Wood-Rutherford Families

WOOD-RUTHERFORD FAMILIES

The Sumner connection to the Wood family was through Susan Mariah Wood, wife of James Exum Sumner Jr.

I have done very little research on the Wood family but I found the following in Volume 2, p. 1, Annie Coleman Proctor Collection, Scottsboro Public Library, Scottsboro, Alabama:

Rev. T. J. Wood was a minister of the Gospel and was born in 1798 in South Carolina according to the 1850 census records. He died after a brief illness on Monday morning the 3rd of November, 1884, aged 86 years.

The wife of T. J. Wood was Maria-Mary-Mariah Rutherford, daughter of Archibald Rutherford and his wife (Barabara?). Her father died in 1814 in Cocke County, Tennessee, then his wife came to Jackson County, Alabama and lived with her daughter. She died in (1824?).

Maria Wood was born 26 February 1802 in Tennessee (Cocke County?) and married T. J. Wood (Cocke Co., Tenn.?) 24 February 1818, died on Tuesday, 11 October 1887 at her residence in Scottsboro, Jackson County, Alabama. They were the parents of 15 children. Twelve of these children were still living when their mother died. Below is a list of their names as I have record of them:

John M. D. Wood was also a minister of the Gospel and always lived in Jackson County, Alabama. He married twice. In the 1850 census he was living in his own home with his first wife and four children that had been born to them by 1850. He was listed as John W. Wood and was called "Uncle Johnny." He was age 31, a farmer born in Tennessee. His wife was Margaret (Barclay) age 29 born in Alabama. Their children were William, Mary M., John Calvin (called Jack) and James ages 7, 6, 5, 1, respectively, all born in Alabama. Deborah Wood, a daughter of this couple must have been born after the 1850 census. She married J. Harve Cunningham as his first wife and she died on 15 February 1870 and I suppose is buried in Woods Cove Cemetery but no tombstone.

Mrs. Gordon Young tells me that her father, John Calvin Wood died at the age of 35 with lung disease (consumption). She knows nothing about his sister Mary or brothers William or James, so they must have died young. She has no Bible records of her grandparents, John M. D. Wood or anything. John Calvin Wood married Prudence Wilson and they had three children: Hettie married Mack Finney, Donald married Etta Pierce and Eva married Gordon Young.

Note by Mrs. Proctor; Information given to me by Mrs. Don Cunningham of Scottsboro on this family:

Uncle Johnny Wood (John M. D. Wood) and Aunt Jennie Benson Wood (his second wife) gave 2 acres of land for Randall's Chapel Church where it now stands and Mrs. Cunningham has the deeds to it in her possession. Jennie Benson Wood lived at Langston, Jackson County, Alabama and is buried there.

Browder Wood lived at the George Baker homeplace. Mrs. Ida Law's husband's mother was a Wood.

Thomas Browder Wood estate--Book D, p. 27, 491, Jackson County, Alabama; Will Book 1, p. 213, 1892-1895. Will recorded July 14th, 1893. His children and heirs were: Paulina A. Swaim and husband Moses Swaim; Sallie Ellen White and husband W. S. White; Nancy Missouri Swaim and husband F. P. Swaim; T. J. Wood (Thomas James) and wife Rutha Wood; Susan Mariah Sumner and husband J. E. Sumner; Hugh Charlie Wood and wife Ruthie Wood.

Death notice from an old book in the County Judge's Office, Scottsboro, seems to be several certificates of deaths by doctors of Jackson County: Died: Thomas Browder Woods, on May 25th, 1893, Aged 66 years. A married man, place of birth, Alabama, by Dr. Andy Boyd.

The following also given by Mrs. Proctor. She did not give her source but she interviewed many people in Jackson County over a period of 30 years.

Somewhere in the Proctor collection is probably the obituaries of Thomas J. Wood and his wife. I took the following information from their obituaries some years ago:

* The Rev. Thomas J. Wood was born in 1798 in South Carolina (Mrs. Proctor says Laurens County). His wife, Mrs. Maria Wood of Woods Cove, Jackson County, Alabama. Rev. Wood died after a brief illness on Monday morning the 3rd of November 1884, aged 86 years. His wife was born February 26, 1802 in Tennessee and married T. J. Wood in Tennessee on February 24, 1818 and died in Jackson County on Tuesday October 11, 1887 at her residence in Scottsboro. They were the parents of 15 children. Twelve of them were still living when their mother died.

Notes from Dr. Wilson: James Rutherford born in Virginia married Susan Henry born in Virginia and moved to Cocke County, Tennessee, accompanied by Archibald, Jr. between 1796 and 1799. The family moved to Alabama where James died in Jackson County. His children included Archibald, James Claibourn, Francis Marion, Joseph, Sarah, Nancy, George and William.

Will Book N, pp 147, 206, 207, Estate of James Rutherford.

James Rutherford and Thomas B. Wood, Adm. of James Rutherford, deceased. Heirs, nine children: William Rutherford who resides in Franklin County, Tennessee; Missouri who married Sevier Bolton, Jackson County, Alabama; Archibald Rutherford, full age, Jackson County, Alabama; James Rutherford, of full age, Tishimingo County, Mississippi; F. M. Rutherford of Jackson County, Alabama; Sarah who married David L. Starkey, resides in Miss., County unknown; Nancy who resides in Mississippi, county unknown; Joseph W. Rutherford who resides in Jackson County, Alabama. October 12, 1867.

Notes by Dr. Wilson: James Rutherford served in the War of 1812, enlisting at Knoxville, Tennessee on October 7, 1813 and serving until January 7, 1814. He served under Capt. William Jobe and Col. Samuel Bunch. His service was with the Tennessee Mounted Volunteers in the Creek Indian Campaign. He was awarded two land grants in Jackson County, Alabama, as a result of his military service.

Kenneth Rutherford, who wrote the Rutherford book (Scottsboro Public Library), thinks James' father was probably a Robert Rutherford but he has no proof and James did not name any of his children Robert. I think his father was the William Rutherford, born at Cripple Creek, Wythe County, Virginia June 10, 1748. He married Agnes Beard, daughter of John Beard. He died Knox County, Tennessee November 16, 1833. He served two tours in the American Army during the Revolutionary War. For this he received a pension No. S 1869, at Knox County, Tennessee, in 1833. Need his will of property settlement.
