Leroy Shook married Harriet M. Chorn, daughter of James B. Chorn and Mary Elizabeth Criner.

HAMBRICK SINKS CEMETERY

This cemetery is located in Township 2 South, Range 3 East, probably in Section 9.

This information was given to us by Mrs. Amos Walker, a granddaughter of Elizabeth Golden Hambrick, who is buried in the cemetery. At the time Mrs. Walker lived near this cemetery there was a tombstone for her grandmother. Elizabeth Golden Hambrick's husband, Wesley Hambrick, is buried in Hollytree Cemetery.

There were several unmarked graves here but Mrs. Walker has knowledge of only one other grave which is that of an infant child of Fronie Hambrick White.

BAPTIST CHURCH HILL CEMETERY

This cemetery is about  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile north of Princeton on the left of Alabama Highway 65. It is in Township 2 South, Range 4 East, Section 20 at Old Baptist Church Hill.

All that is known of this very old cemetery is from legend. There are eight or ten graves still evident and marked with native fieldstones.

As a child I heard many stories of this being a haunted cemetery and many different people told stories of "seeing" and "hearing" things here. Since these were long ago and not written down they are very hard to recall.

One story I remember is that of a lady and some small boys riding horses by there to church. On the way back they discussed the ghost and they evidently encountered it though I don't remember just how. I know this very truthful lady said she would not ride by there at night again.

Another story recently reported to me was that three young men once were hunting for a bottle that they thought someone had hidden there and one asked the other if he saw the man dressed in a black hat and long black coat who had passed right by him and went down the hollow. He never saw him. I suspect they had already found the bottle but they said "not a drop".

There were many more stories during my childhood but I cannot recall them. There is nothing known of the church located here except that it may have been a black church.

Milton F. Graham was a Justice of the Peace and performed many marriages in Paint Rock Valley. He married Milly J. Swaim, daughter of Moses and Elizabeth Frazier Swaim. Milly Graham died when her fourth child, John M., was sixteen days old. John M. was reared by Milton's sister, Mary Graham Walker and her husband, Simeon. Another son, George S. We do not know where James Newton and Sarah Graham are buried, possibly on the Grady Graham farm on Larkin Fork but no evidence of graves can be found.

BLACKWELL CEMETERY

This cemetery is located southeast of Princeton in the southwest quarter of Section 29, Township 2 East, Range 4 West. This land was deeded from Peter Blackwell and wife, Lydia, to R. A. Williamson 15 June, 1857, "except for three rods square to include the graveyard".

In 1971 when a descendant, Mary Robinson of Tulsa, Oklahoma copied the cemetery, she estimated that there were 40 graves marked with native fieldstones. There were also four tombstones with inscriptions, almost illegible. One was inscribed "Maples". The three marked Blackwell graves have been determined by Blackwell descendants to be those of Peter W. Blackwell (son of an older Peter Blackwell and Lydia Padgett Blackwell) and his wife, Thersa, and their daughter, Martha. The younger Peter W. Blackwell was born 2 January, 1820 and died before 1858. The Blackwell graves are boxed-up tombs covered with stone slabs. The slabs are marked: By J. H. Maples and J. R. Menzeys (evidently the manufacturers or stone masons).

It is reasonable to assume that the older Peter Blackwell and his wife, Lydia Padgett Blackwell and other members of their family are buried here. Some of their children moved on to Arkansas, Missouri and Texas but Peter's estate was settled in Jackson County Probate Court 15 June, 1858 and his widow Lydia was still residing in Jackson County at that time. Descendants have been told that a disease, possibly typhoid, had wiped out an entire Blackwell family.

AN UN-NAMED BLACK CEMETERY

This cemetery is located on the old Clay Stovall farm in the mouth of Fowler's Cove, in Township 2 South, Range 4 East, Section 22. This is the childhood home of Addie Stovall Shaver.

At one time there were many graves here, marked with fieldstone only, but evidence of most has been erased by time. The cemetery is about  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile on the left of the Fowlers Cove road. It is in the edge of the woods and a high bank has washed off some graves by the road.

Addie remembers many stories about this cemetery being haunted but has been in it many times and encountered no ghosts. One grave, with a picket fence around it, was said to be that of a black man who played the fiddle. Some people were afraid to be in the vicinity after dark and one man in particular who was in the habit of imbibing a little too much. Addie remembers him going home one night after a heavy rain, and since the roads were very muddy, he lost his shoes after an encounter with the "ghost" and ran about a mile home barefoot.

This ghost was supposed to play very sweet "fiddle" music at night, according to some people.

Addie's father, Clay Stovall, told her some of the people buried here lived on their farm during his childhood and many were remaining in the area after the Civil War. Addie's grandparents, Bill and Ruth Clay Stovall, moved here in the 1860's.

AN UNKNOWN CEMETERY - FOWLER'S COVE

This cemetery is in Township 2 South, Range 4 East, Northeast Quarter of Section 22, a few yards from the black cemetery in Fowler's Cove, in the edge of the woods just above the field of the farm now known as the Warnie Shephard Farm.

Addie Shaver remembers playing around this cemetery as a child. At that time there were three or four graves with a picket fence around them but all evidence has long since vanished. Addie does not remember ever hearing who was buried here but one older family member states she has heard they were the graves of Furman Fowler's parents but we have found no evidence of them ever being in this area. Furman Fowler was in the 1830 census of Jackson County as a young man with a wife and 2 small children. He first purchased government land 5 January, 1831 in Township 3 South, Range 4 East, Section 7.

Recently, someone has stated that these graves were those of Beason children.

FOWLER CEMETERY

Fowler Cemetery is located in Township 2 South, Range 4 East, Section 26 in Fowler's Cove off County Road 142. This cemetery is near the head of Fowler's Cove, has a fence around it, and is cleaned once a year. There are at least 30 unmarked graves here.

Furman Fowler was one of the oldest settlers in Paint Rock Valley and was a Justice of the Peace. He performed many of the early marriages in this area.

PRINCE CEMETERY

This cemetery is located at Baileytown on County Road #138 about one mile north of the intersection of County Roads #138 and #146. It is in the Southwest quarter of Township 2 South, Range 4 East, Section 13.

Although this cemetery and the Sanders (Mill Creek) Cemetery are not located in the valley, we thought it well to group them with Paint Rock Valley cemeteries because of their proximity to the Valley and because of the old Valley names buried in these two cemeteries.

PRINCE POINT CEMETERY

This cemetery is located on State Highway 65 by the Grant Barham home. It is in Township 2 South, Range 4 East, Section 16.

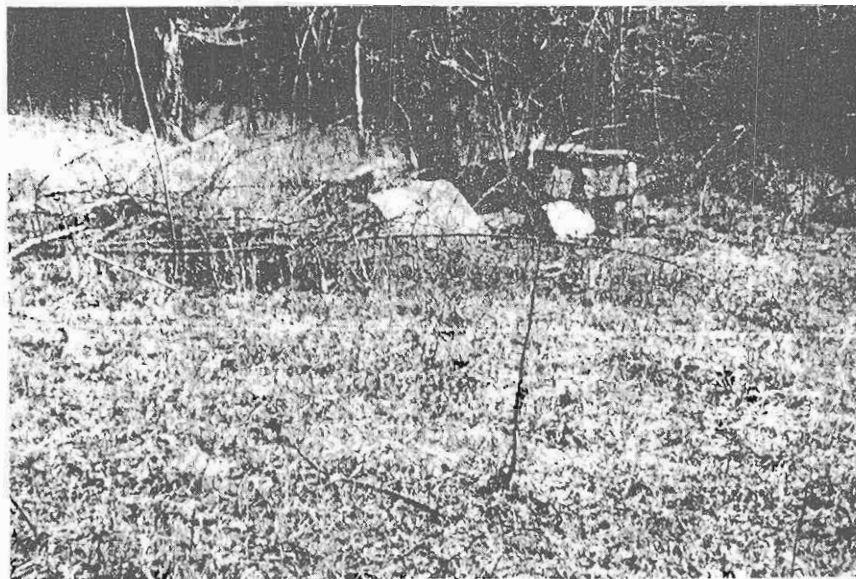

This old cemetery is known to have had a lot of graves but time has erased all signs except for two box tombs of large limestone rocks. It is said they are the graves of James Hall and his first wife. James Hall was one of the earliest settlers in Paint Rock Valley and the ancestor of most Paint Rock Valley Halls. He had 16 children some of whom are said to be buried here.

One of James Hall's daughter, Permelia, who married a Vandiver, is thought to be buried here.

Others believed to be buried here are:

Warnie P. Robertson
Born ca 1845
Died June 9, 1890

He was killed by lightning while working on a barn at Hollytree. His parents, Warren Peter Robertson and Frances (Calaway) Robertson, are also probably buried here.

"DUB" GREEN GRAVES

These two graves are located on the Green family farm on Larkin Creek, in Township 2 South, Range 4 East, Section 16. They are between the road and the fence, and near the family home of these people.

We are not sure who George W. Green's parents were but his wife, Frances Elizabeth (Lizzie) Green was the daughter of John Rich and Sarah A. (McCollum) Stovall.

FANNING CEMETERY

This cemetery is shown on TVA maps as being in Township 1 South, Range 4 East, in the NE quarter of the SW quarter of Section 19 in an almost inaccessible area of Hodge Mountain about  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile east of the Madison County/Jackson County line.

This land was entered by William Fanning 31 August, 1852. However, we have been told that members of a Thomas Fanning family are buried here. We have also been told that there were markers here at one time but all traces of this cemetery have vanished - another one destroyed by logging and time.

BEECH GROVE CEMETERY

This cemetery is located in Township 1 South, Range 4 East, Section 6, in the Francisco community. The cemetery is situated on a very high hill adjacent to the Beech Grove Methodist Church and is almost on the Alabama-Tennessee state line. It is one of the oldest cemeteries in the area, is very well-kept and in current use.

Beech Grove cemetery has the oldest known graves in the Paint Rock Valley area. They are the graves of the Tucker children who were killed by the Indians in 1812. At that time the community had not been settled but the Tucker family came from Greasy Cove, Tenn. to tap maple trees for syrup. They had set up camp and the mother had gone to the spring for water. She took the baby with her and left the two children at the camp. While she was gone Indians raided the camp and killed the children. When she came near the camp and saw this, she crawled in a large hollow log and put her hand over the baby's mouth to keep the Indians from discovering them. The men, on returning to camp and finding what had happened, followed the Indians across the mountain to Bridgeport but lost their trail there. Several years ago Mrs. Herman (Eugenia) Green raised funds in the community to erect a stone in their memory.

We were not able to visit this burial place, the grave of Elvie George who wished to be buried near his home on the mountain. He and his wife selected this site, located on their son's land, and she will be buried by him.

Elvie George's father, Luke , and other members of the family are buried in the George Cemetery on Miller Mountain.

Birth and death dates for Kelvie George are not known.

OLD BOSTICK HILL CEMETERY

This cemetery is located on County road #9 about midway between Swaim and Estill Fork. It is on a hill near the site of the old Bostick Hill Church, about ½ mile from the present church. We do not know exactly when the old church was built and the cemetery started but William Floyd Bostick, who died in 1849, is said to have given the land for the church. None of the marked graves are that early but there are many unmarked ones.

Sam Hinshaw Cemetery is located in Township 2 South, Range 4 East, Section 2, across the river from County Road #9. It is almost directly east of the Old Bostick Hill Cemetery. Nancy Prince patented the 160 acres where this cemetery is located 16 September, 1830.

This cemetery has been badly overgrown but someone has made an effort recently to clean off part of it. There are about fifty graves here with fieldstone markers only.

SWAIM CEMETERY

This cemetery is located in Township 1 South, Range 4 East, Section 35, on county road #9. It is just a few yards from the Estill Fork Post Office. It is only a few feet off the road and there is an iron fence around five of the graves and two graves are just outside the fence. It is said that there were many more graves here that have been plowed over.

Buried here are members of the Moses Swaim family. Moses Swaim was one of the earliest settlers in the Valley and owned land in the Estill Fork community, including land where the Freedom Church now stands and probably where the Estill Fork Post Office now stands.

Moses Swaim was married three times and was the father of 25 children. Many descendants are still in this area and others are all over North Alabama, Tennessee, Arkansas and Texas. His first wife was Elizabeth "Betty" Frazier, his second wife was Alcey Houston, and his third wife was Elizabeth Adeline Vandiver. It is believed that Moses Swaim and his second wife, Alcey Houston, are buried in the Collins Cemetery with no markers.

Known to be buried here are:

Elizabeth Adeline Vandiver Swaim
Born
Died 20 June, 1903

Felix Richard Swaim
Born 1861
Died

A daughter of Moses and Adeline Swaim, possibly named Elizabeth, is also buried here.

A grandchild of Moses Swaim (infant of Yeargin Swaim)

There are plans to erect a stone in the near future in memory of all these family members. Moses Swaim is a great grandfather of Addie Shaver.

Death of a Pioneer

Scottsboro, Alabama Citizen, Friday, Oct. 15, 1880

"Died in Paint Rock Valley Oct. 7, 1880, Mr. Moses Swaim. He was an old and respected citizen, having moved to the Valley in 1823, consequently, he was one of Jackson's pioneers. Mr. Swaim was the father of twenty-five children, thirteen of who are still living. He has sixty-five great grandchildren. He had been married three times, his last wife surviving him. He was universally esteemed by his neighbors and his death is genuinely regretted."

REID CEMETERY

This cemetery is located in Township 1 South, Range 4 East, Section 35, about ½ mile off County Rd. #9 in Hollands Cove at Estill Fork. It is in the edge of the woods almost behind the Floyd Brewer home. It has been abandoned, is covered with brush and weeds, and some stones are down. There are at least 4 graves with limestone rock markers only.

MONEY CEMETERY

This old cemetery has disappeared with time. It is not known just how many graves were here as they are not marked. It is located in Township 1 South, Range 4 East, Section 25. Jacob Money patented 80 acres here 13 February, 1836. Many of the Moneys lived nearby and it is reasonable to assume that many Moneys are buried in this cemetery.

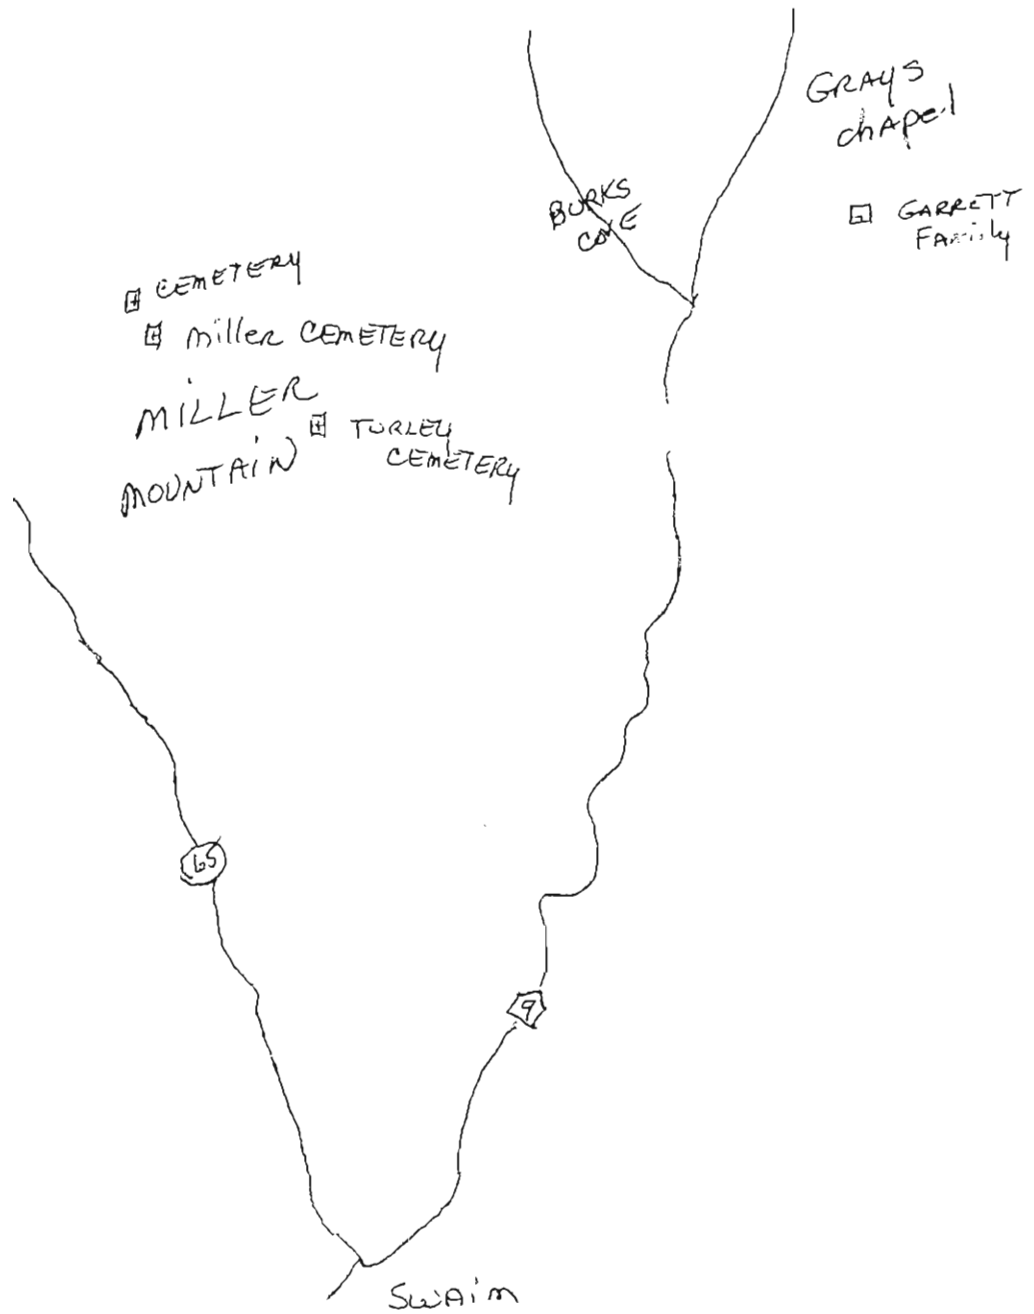

The only person known to be buried here is William Isbell who was killed by bushwhackers during the Civil War.

GEORGE CEMETERY

This cemetery is located in Township 1 South, Range 4 East, Section 15, on Miller Mountain in Upper Paint Rock Valley. This mountain is now almost inaccessible except in a four wheel drive vehicle. The roads are very bad and most of them have been closed and posted by owners and hunting clubs. There are three unmarked graves here.

TURLEY CEMETERY

Although this cemetery is shown on TVA topo maps in Township 1 South, Range 4 East, Section 14, we have been unable to find it.

David Johnson, who is very familiar with this area, searched for this cemetery but could find no evidence of any graves. It possibly has been destroyed by loggers.

GARRETT FAMILY CEMETERY

This cemetery is located in Township 1 South, Range 5 East, probably in Section 7, on a mountain east of Sisk Cemetery at Gray's Chapel.

The only known grave is that of "Coonie" Garrett, about two or three years of age, and son of Hardy Garrett and Charlsie Everett Garrett.

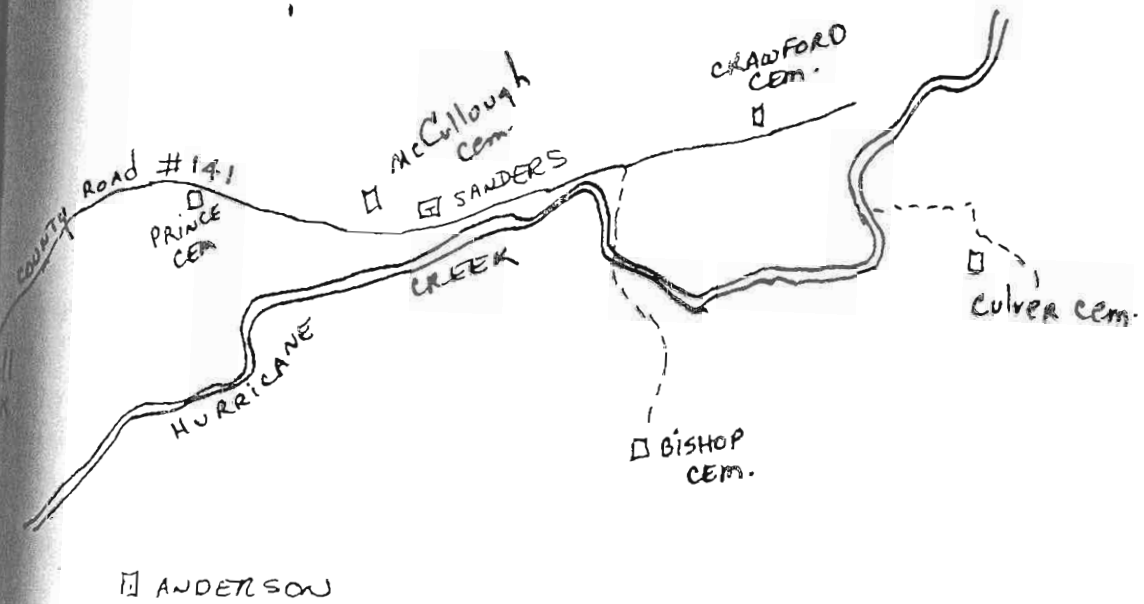

This information was furnished by John Brown Garrett, a brother of "Coonie" Carrett.

UNNAMED CEMETERY (probably TURLEY)

This cemetery is located on the same mountain as the above Garrett Cemetery. There are about ten to twelve unmarked graves here - no tombstones.

The only person known to be buried here is the mother of Sid Turley. Her name and birth and death dates are unknown.

ANDERSON CEMETERY

This cemetery is located in Township 1 South, Range 4 East, Section 36, in the Estill Fork Community, across Hurricane Creek on a high hill. It can only be reached from the creek by walking or in a four-wheel drive vehicle. There are about 30 unmarked graves here.

The people buried here are descendants of Horatio Anderson and his first wife, Elizabeth, and his second wife, Catherine A. Williams, whom he married 10 February, 1854. Catherine died 19 July, 1894 and is buried here in an unmarked grave. We feel sure that Horatio and Elizabeth are also buried here along with other members of the family. This land was entered by Horatio Anderson 12 November, 1853.

It is in a cedar thicket and many markers have disappeared due to cattle running here at one time. The cemetery has been abandoned but many native stones marking graves can still be seen.

CULVER CEMETERY

Culver Cemetery is located Township 1 South, Range 5 East, Section 32, off County Road #141 east of Hurricane Creek. It is on the Sam Culver farm across the creek from the Sherman Sanders place. There is no bridge and it can be reached by car only in dry weather.

There are at least twenty five old graves with fieldstone markers only. Two graves with fieldstone markers are enclosed with an iron fence. We have been told by a family member that Jane Jacks Sanders, born 1826 in North Carolina and died 1891 in Jackson County, Al is buried here. She was buried inside an iron fence enclosure but the tombstone is now missing. Her husband, George Sanders, is buried across the creek and has a tombstone that is enclosed with an iron fence. George Sanders was born in 1824 in Alabama and died 1858. There are several unmarked graves. This information was given to us by Chick Sanders of Huntsville, Alabama, a great grandson of George and Jane Sanders.

DOTSON CEMETERY

This cemetery is located about 1 mile from the Wilson cemetery - across the state line into Tennessee.

There are at least four unmarked graves here. Three are unknown. The only known person buried here is:

Son of John and Nancy Dotson Wilson
Birth and Death Dates unknown
(Died as a young man)

UNNAMED CEMETERY

Across Burke Creek from the home of Partlow Wilson on the old Forrest Gifford homestead, there are four (4) graves marked with native fieldstones. We have been told that this may possibly be a Fanning family cemetery. This could be true since there were Fannings living in this area very early.

PRATT (CARLTON) CEMETERY

This cemetery is located above the Martha Jane Sims' farm on Estill Creek in the head of Paint Rock Valley. It is in Tennessee - about three miles across the Alabama-Tennessee state line. The cemetery is on a small hill with a large tree in the center. A good wire fence has been erected around it. There are 25 to 30 graves with no markings and several that have only fieldstone markers or footstones with initials.

Footstones only: G.G.C., B.G.C., S.M.C., A.C., S.A.C. and J.R.C. These footstone must surely go with the headstones on Glenie Gertrude Clark, Benjamin G. Clark, Stella Mae Clark, Austin Clark, John R. Clark and Sitha Arie Clark.

This cemetery was copied September 8, 1953 by Addie Shaver and Kittye Henshaw. At the same time we interviewed Mrs. Martha Jane Sims, who was then 82. She told us that her grandmother, Sitha Rice Koger, was almost 108 years of age at her death. Sitha Rice Koger was born in Kentucky, moved to Sequatchie County, Tennessee, then to Flat Rock, Al on Sand Mountain. From there she moved to Paint Rock Valley. At 100 years of age she rode a horse back across the mountain to Sand Mountain.

Revolutionary War Soldiers

There are no marked graves of Revolutionary War soldiers in Paint Rock Valley, though some are known to have lived here.

Jesse Temple, a Revolutionary War soldier, is thought to have died in Paint Rock Valley but his grave has not been located. It is possible that he could be buried in the old Taliaferro Cemetery. This was one of the largest cemeteries of the time in the community where he lived. Jesse was born in Surry County, Virginia. He later moved to Wake County, North Carolina and then, before the Revolution, to South Carolina. In September, 1775 he joined the South Carolina Provincial troops in a cavalry company of light horse, commanded by Matthew Singleton, in Sumpter County, South Carolina. After July 4, 1776, he served in the South Carolina militia under the command of Col. Roebuck until 1781. He was in both battles of Charleston, South Carolina, among others. After the war he settled for a time in South Carolina and then received land grants in Barren County, Kentucky for his war service and moved there. His first wife's name is unknown but she evidently died before November 14, 1807 when he married Liddie (Lydia) Rush, daughter of John Rush of Barren County, Kentucky.

Jesse sold his land in Kentucky in 1813 and 1814 and for fourteen years it is not known where he lived. He moved to Paint Rock Valley in Jackson County in 1828. He bought land on Lick Fork Creek near Princeton and is believed by descendants to have died there between 1840 and 1850. Jesse was the father of 22 children - 12 by his first wife and 10 by Liddie Rush.

Most of his children, especially the older ones, never lived in Paint Rock Valley but it is possible that he may still have descendants in this area.

Jesse Temple
Born Nov. 13, 1763 in VA
Died 1836 - 1840

Liddie (Rush) Temple
Born ca 1792
Died 1840 - 1850

Information on Jesse Temple was furnished by a descendant, Billy J. Temple, 12773 Hillcrest Drive, Longmont, Colorado 80501

- * Lewis Clark/Clarke, a Revolutionary War soldier, was born April 22, 1763 in Dinwiddie County, Virginia, and died January 12, 1842 in the Paint Rock Valley area of Jackson County, Alabama. His grave has not been located.

He received a pension beginning November 4, 1833 under the Act of Congress of June 7, 1832.

The name of his first wife is not known but his second wife was Sarah (Sally) Rogers, whom he married on September 24, 1800 in Dinwiddie County, Virginia, and who received a widow's pension after his death.
