Calendar of the 1931 Class History

*"Life is a full-blown year,
Bringing all things in season;
As, in our school career,
Each change hath rhythm and reason;
Thus seasons come and go
Each with its varied gifts in hand,
That we may see and know
How well all life is planned."*

FRESHMAN (All's at the Spring)—Spring! Time of bursting buds and growing things, fresh and verdant in newness of all life. What more fitting then, than that the Freshman, in this green time of his life should enter school! The March winds swept our minds of the glimmering cobwebs of entangled brilliance after due graduation from Grammar School. The down-pours of April showers in Junior II necessary to the budding of the shoots of knowledge to spring forth in freshness of green and sweet in our dewy innocence, so we felt the pull of the plow and cut of cultivation. In the spring of our career, were transplanted from the hot beds of Grammar school to a fertile row on row by our sponsor, Mrs. Turner, who pruned one expression by severely cutting here and there our mixed metaphors reversed speech and scrambled verbs so we might get rooted in fundamentals.

Sophomore (Summer)—The March winds and April showers help to open forth the bright May flowers. So delightfully did the seasons blend, that we were almost unaware of Summer time. With bluer skies and warmer sunshine we stuck our heads high and kept the stalk that supported them very straight. They were not yet very heavy with accumulation of wisdom, so did not droop with the weight. With the careful spraying and staking of Miss Gilbert our sponsor and Mr. Browder our beloved principal, our flowers were unfolding little by little. One was picked from this fair garden and a few withered and faded away but the remainder stood the heat of the day. The beaming delight of our party days too soon departed while with longing for the new domain where Juniors ruled so royally. But one buds had become blossoms and the color of one dominant characteristic had changed with the unfolding of the larger blooms. It might be expressed like this:

*"Next year bow their heads would be swelling
With the love Wise Fools acquire!
Ask them what they fail in telling,
And they turned as red as fire!"*

Junior (Autumn)—Even as in nature where the leaves begin to turn, all foliage dons their brilliant hues. Ours was rich and rare and with it came the quicker grown flowers from the freshman buds. However it was the harvest of all our hopes and efforts. The glow of our radiant knowledge flushed the whole year with the mellowness of sunset splendor. Walker McCutchen being president raised his head to give orders to his blooming flowers. Our special achievement was our play, "Honor Wins" after which we consoled the seniors who were so near plucking with a picnic.

*"Juniors oft in doubtful wonder,
Puzzling what they ought to know,
Scowled like clouds of Blackest thunder
Felt as blue as indigo!"*

Senior (Winter)—The fruits gathered and stored away in our memories with our hoary heads of wisdom we welcome the approach of winter. The flowers have long decayed as we out grew them and all too soon we were beginning to know the fruits of our labor. With all this maturity came new obligations. The changes in our class enlarged our borders to transplant others as mature as ourselves. Ed Hayes, voted best all round, was chosen our new president and also president of the Student Body. Our class is well represented in the honor society by Frances Lyles Gay, Lucille Benson, and Walker McCutchen. These with other members well represent us in activities of the school. The class was well represented in Who's Who contest having Sara Bradford as "Miss Jackson County High School."

*"For the last year satisfying,
Must all shadows safely blow;
Senior life is purifying,
And we pass—as white as snow!"*

AMY LOUISE GAY,
Class Historian.

Dreams of the Future

(Class Poem 1930-31)

GENTLY as the winds of summer
Waft a song o'er land and sea
Comes a wistful, wandering whisper
From the future unto me.

Stories of vain glorious heroes
Are the ballads left untold
And the tales most important
Are those of black and gold.

But the legends of my fancy
Deal with faithful, honest men
Those striving ever upward
Mindful of their fellow men.

We must do the best that's in us
As we answer duty's call
When our youth has fled and left us
We must then survey it all.

Shall we be a mourner, sighing
For the things we might have done?
Shall we be a broken weaver
Rav'ling out the threads we've spun?

No, I hear the gentle whisper
Of the future unto me,
"Persevere, be true and loyal
If you would the victor be."

—ERA WILHELM
Class Poet.

Senior Prophecy '31

ON a beautiful July afternoon in the year 1930, I strolled along a green woodland path. Coming to a mossy mound beside a trickling stream, I sat down and began to read one of Shakespeare's comedies called "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Ere long I laid the book aside and began to meditate. The thought came to me of wondering what the future held in store for my classmates after we were graduated from dear ole Jackson High. Before long, I fell asleep and there came to me a wonderful dream of prophesy.

Suddenly, I found myself in a huge throng of people. Bewildered, I turned to a person beside me and asked what was happening and why the people were shouting so. The man turned to me, and I found myself facing Bill Dean, who told me that it was a football game between the Army and Navy and that Ed Hayes had just made a touchdown for the Army. I learned that Bill Dean was General-Manager of the Army team and he told me that Lester Precise and Nelson Varnell also played on the team. I told him I was very glad to learn this, and I asked him what had become of Frances Lyles Gay. He told me that she had gone to Europe to attend the League of Nations at Geneva, for she had become an efficient member of the Secretariat.

As I walked along, I came to the radio announcer's box and none other than Ernest Breland was broadcasting the game. I was surprised and glad to see Ernest, and during the half of the game, I asked him if he knew what any of the class members were doing now. He told me that Madelyn Daniels and Inez Jenkins had made a great hit on Broadway, with Raymond Blevins as their manager. Sara T. Bradford had won a beauty contest and had gotten into the movies; Lucille Benson had become the champion woman golfer of the U. S.; Oneva Whitt, Bessie Bell, and Era Wilhelm had entered a chewing gum endurance contest; and Alma Riley, Ruth Sloan, Thelma Staton, and Roxie Mae Gibbs had settled down in an old maid's home and were raising the finest breed of canary birds and cats ever known. An immense band came marching by and the director proved to be Kenneth Butler and behind him was Kirby Morris playing the drum. Kenneth told me that Lucy had refused him and was teaching Home Ec. in Berea College and Amy Louise Gay was teaching French in the University of Mexico and Mary Jane Hodges was teaching music there. Kirby told me he had a fine cleaning and pressing business in New York City with Tom Ferguson as his partner. He told me, also, that Fay Philips and Buell Britt were teaching chemistry and coaching the girls' basketball team at the University of New York.

Suddenly, my dream changed; I was in Washington listening to Mary Benson speaking in the Senate. Mary told me that she was married and her husband whom I knew well, owned a great chain of grocery stores. Billie Shook, she said, was running a drug store with her husband, a former Scottsboro boy, in Washington, and Red Wing Moody was up at the White House painting a portrait of the President. I learned, also, that Walker McCutchen was Secretary of Treasury and John T. Reid and Armine Hays were his chief bookkeepers. I was congratulating Mary on her success as a congresswoman when I suddenly awoke, startled at the reality of my dream. It was almost dusk, so I hurried home to my study and wrote about this wonderful dream.

Last Will and Testament of the Class of '31

Upon behalf of my client, the class of 1931 of Jackson County High School, of the city of Scottsboro, State of Alabama, U. S. A., I have called you together upon this solemn and serious occasion, to listen to her last will and testament, and to receive from her dying hands a few gif's she has to bestow in her last moments. She has tried to be just, as well as generous and impartial, and distribute wisely unto those who will make the best use of such gifts. These, then, are her decisions, as at last, definitely arrived at through very deliberate consideration:

Listen, then, one and all, while I read the document duly drawn up and sworn to:

We, the class of 1931, do make and publish this, our last will and testament:

Item I—To the school as a whole we will our patriotic inspiration that they shall straight way resolve themselves into committees of one to spread broadcast the call of the place where they learn to grow, to do things, to make a noise.

Item II—To our beloved principal, Prof. I. J. Browder, we will our sincere affection, our deepest reverence, our heartiest gratitude, and the whole unlimited wealth of our eternal memory.

Item III—To the dear faculty, who have been our instructors in all the wisdom of the ages, we will a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams,

Item IV—To the Senior II Class we give and bequeath our knowledge of chemistry. We trust that this brilliant class can survive through it.

To the Senior I Class we give and bequeath our athletic ability and wish them success in winning the class trophy next year.

To the Junior III Class we give and bequeath the example of all the members of this class. We have proved our ability to keep quiet on all occasions.

To the Junior II Class we give and bequeath our ability to co-operate with the teachers in every way.

To the Junior I Class, in spite of their lightheartedness and irresponsibility, we give and bequeath our Senior dignity.

Item V—The following may seem but trifling bequests, but we hope they may be accepted, not as worthless things, lavishly thrown away, because we can no longer keep them, but as valuable assets to those who receive them. We hope that they will be kept as continual reminders of the generosity of heart displayed in our free and full bestowal:

1. To Ola Bell Starkey, Tossie Staton's gift of gab.
2. To George McCutchen, Kenneth Butler's bluff.
3. To Tom Ed Webb, the secret of Ernest Breland's method of becoming the best athletic.
4. To Maude Lindsey, Oneva Whitt's authority as official announcer.
5. To Isaac James, Walker McCutchen's intellectual ability.
6. To Albert Holland, Nelson Varnell's boisterous nature.
7. To Johnny Morgan, Roxie Mae Gibbs' musical ability.
8. To Ruth Starkey and Tom Ed Webb, Sarah Bradford's space at a radiator.
9. To John D. Evans, Tom Ferguson's physique.
10. To Bill Evette and Edna Clayton, Lucille Benson's and Amy Louise Gay's skill at playing golf.

All the rest and residue of our property, whatsoever and wheresoever, of what nature, kind and quality soever it may be, and not herein before disposed of, we give and bequeath to our beloved Principal for his use and benefit absolutely, and to be disposed of for the good of the coming classes as he may see fit.

We do hereby constitute and appoint the said Principal the sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, we the Class of 1931, the testators, have to this our will, written on one sheet of parchment, set our hands and seal this eighteenth day of May, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

SENIOR CLASS OF '31.
BILLIE SHOOK

Senior II

THE things usually considered in judging a class are its officers, scholastic standing, representation in school activities, and growth. This class stands high in all these considerations.

The Senior Two Class has for its president, William Sloan, a capable executive who likes to appoint committees and speil on paying dues. Other officers are: Virginia Bryant, Secretary and Treasurer; William White, Vice-President; George McCutchen, Historian; Julien Campbell, Reporter; Johnnye Morgan, Poet; and J. C. Clemons, Goat.

The standing in scholarship compares favorably with any class in school. Those who made either the first or second honor roll last semester were: Julien Campbell, Sammie Moore, Joel McClendon, Elizabeth Jacobs, Evie Ruth Sisk, William Sloan, Lawrence Sebring, J. B. Wynne.

Senior II is well represented in all school sports. Members going out for basketball are: Jack Downey, William White, Ben Harper, Ruth Starkey, Louise Simmons, Lora Hamilton, and Elizabeth Williams. Delbert Crawford has played on the class team for the last two years. Mary Ellen Benson and Lucille Stagner made a good showing when the Senior II girls were beaten by the Senior III girls. Our best athletes, Jack Downey and Bibb Chandler, starred on the football team as halfback and center, respectively. These two and W. C. Selby played on the baseball team last year. Maynard Kelly, ineligible for inter-scholastic play, gave the varsity a hard time in practice during football. There were several others on the second team both in baseball and football.

There are four members of this class on the Principal's Cabinet: Julian Campbell, Johnny Morgan, Elizabeth Hunt, and Elizabeth Jacobs. In the "Who's Who" contest this year Sammie Moore and Bill Cook were selected as being the most in love. Billie White was the most popular boy of the class and Jullian Campbell was the most intellectual.

We have an artist, Ada Shelton; a Hollywood queen, Marie Starkey; speakers, Joel McClendon, winner of the school Declamation Contest, and Ben Harper, contestant for the Birmingham News prize; beautiful girls and plenty of good times. Elizabeth Hunt was elected the most beautiful girl in our class. Johnny Morgan was the most representative. Speaking of good times, we surely did have a good time at the Tacky Party given at Mary Lou Money's on February 7. Mary Lou Kelly won the prize for being the tackiest, but we know that she can also make lovely things because she, with the help of Virginia Bryant, George McCutchen, Mary Lou Money, Myrtle Payne, and Bibb Chandler, decorated our room most attractively for the Christmas holidays.

Many of the members of our class have joined us since we started our real high school careers. Some of those who came in this year are: Stella McKenzie, Elizabeth Williams, Pauline Wilhelm, Ruth Young, Roy Wilkes, Ben Harper, and Ben Southerland. We were grieved to lose Mary Joe Gordon this year.

Ben Southerland, Delbert Shelton, and Isaac James are three of the thirteen physics sharks. We will complete the sketch of our class by mentioning Maude Lindsay, who is always the last one of us to get to class.

JULIAN CAMPBELL
ELIZABETH JACOBS

Senior I

THE first of September, 1931 marked the beginning of an important year for the Senior I Class because it was the beginning of our real high school days.

As the walls of our home-room began to echo familiar sounds, Julia Snodgrass, Irene Carter, Erskine Berry, Elizabeth Thomas, Mildred and Catherine Sentell, and Fay Kennamer met for the first time since those last exciting examination days—and everybody knows how those girls talk. They were glad when the bus from Section came because Virginia Rudder, Zadia Sparks, Emmett Harris, Elizabeth Holcomb, Trewitt Green, Dallas Sparks, "Dutch" Thomas, and Bessie Kate Station were to enter J. C. H. S. as Senior Ones. Naturally they were glad to see "Dutch," who was a star basketball player, as were Odessa Swain, Myrtle Starkey, and Gusta Reid.

When the other busses came in, there were Ewing Wann, Sadie, Eloise, and Vivian McGuffey, Beatrice Craze, Opa Wright, Irene Lockard, Hazel Smith, Ruby Cunningham, and Herchell Crye with more new members: Eva Lawson, Pauline Bryant, Lewis Wheeler, and Mary Nell Campbell.

There were others, too, who were to make a place for themselves during the year. Elizabeth Parks, Hugh Butler Campbell, Lester Smith, Norma

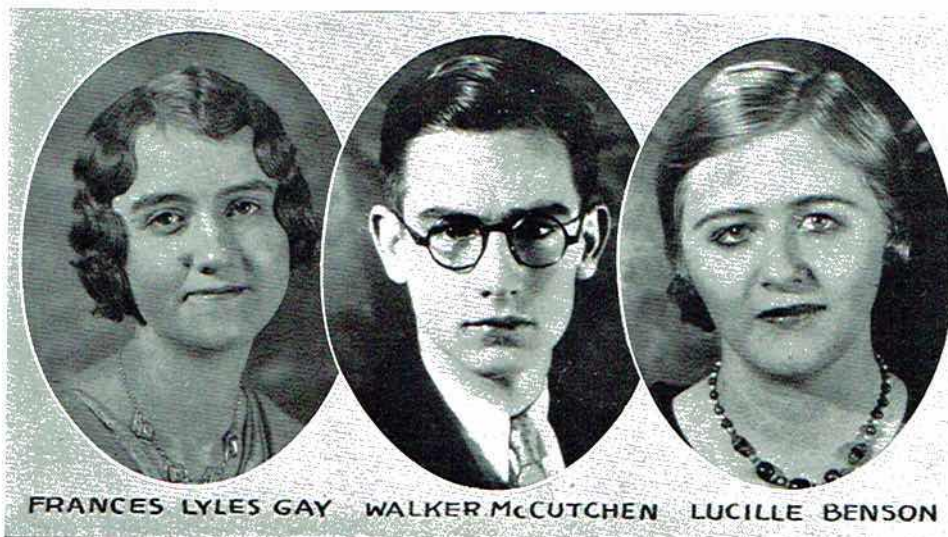

Evans, Mary Ethel Foster, Rebecca Hollis, Nellie Sisk, Zelma Rorex, Pauline Bynum, Carrie Nell Selby, "Pugie" Larkin, and Rubye Reed were to see their names on the Honor Roll; Ester Lee Starkey and Annie Bell Thompson were to transfer their interests to homes of their own. Evelyn Couch, Margaret Raney, and Rubilee Moore were to begin their careers as public speakers. Mildred Hough was back too, and before the year was over Irma McCoy was to enter.

And then, there were Winsten Payne, Sam Gay, Raymond Brandon, J. B. McClendon, Wyatt Stewart, Howard Parsons, Hugh Otis Bynum, Olen Spears, and Elmore Dodson who were to defend the title of the Black and Gold on the football field.

At the very last minute before time for the bell, Albert Holland, our soda-jerker, came poking in, followed by our golf champion, Sam Gay, with his caddy, Ben Thomas. In a few seconds Caesar himself—Bruce Young—came in. Among our last minute arrivals were: The Five-Points Chef, Lester Walsh, with his aides, John Finney and W. H. Robinson; John Will Thompson, our inventor, with G. W. Ambrester and Paul Walsh, both of whom were also developing inquisitive minds; and three of the radiator specialists, Autrey Gardner, Lillian Gordon, and Bill Cook. Fortunately, they all got in before the bell rang.

Junior III

THE Junior III Class is made up of fine young boys and girls who are honest, ambitious, and trustworthy. We have our faults, we'll admit, but it would take a great critic to find them. If you don't believe we are honest and trustworthy just ask Coach Davie.

Speaking of English, We've some folks in our class who know all about those verbs, nouns, complements, adjectives and all the rest of those English puzzles. For instance, we have Marguerite Thomas. We honestly believe that some of us would faint if she made less than ninety. Mildred White is another bright English student. She gives Marguerite a hard race for the high honors. David Telford is a fine example of a bright English student, and so are Bertha Bohanon, Elizabeth Owens, Mary Sue Payne, Cecil Beard, Lee Matthews, Ora B. Cornelison industrious seekers of the knowledge of phrases and clauses.

As hard as algebra is, we still have some bright students in it, and how they can master it is beyond my comprehension. Bertha Bohanon is excellent, and so are Edward Barclay, Harold House, Eileen Smith, Kermit McClendon, Mildred White, Joe Brewer, Bedford Cunningham, Beatrice Smith, Cecil Sisk, Howard Carter, and Naomi Canterbury.

We've plenty of good ones in commercial geography. There are Hobson Porter, Eloise Jones, Mildred White, Birdie Clark, Daisy Brandon, Catherine Peters, W. B. Sumner. W. B. and Mr. Bower get along together better than anybody else. There are also Billy Bryant, Mary Sue Payne, Cecil Sisk, Helen Holder, Erskine Sisk, Cecil Beard, Kermit McClendon, Grady Brandon, Mary Lou Carter, Essie Carter, Mary Louise Dye, and Tom Ed Webb.

But that's not all. Just wait till I tell you about the smart ones in civics. Not one person has failed in civics. Some of our civics sharks are King Morgan, Elmer Gattis, Alyne Roden, Erskine Sisk, Carl Brannum, Joe Brewer, Catherine Peters, Eloise Jones, W. B. Sumner, Fred Stanfield, Ray Stanfield, Frank Kirby, John Clemons, Aubrey Clemons, Beatrice Smith, Mary Louise Dye, and Birdie Clark.

We have exceptions to the rule in quietness and attention. You would never know Marguerite Thomas was around if you didn't see her. Naomi Canterbury is seemingly both deaf and dumb. Other quiet ones are Mary Lou Carter, Emily Bynum, Ora B. Cornelison, Elmer Gattis, Cecil Beard, and Harry Campbell.

We have an excellent basketball team. Cecil Beard never missed a shot. Joe Brewer just can't be beat. David Telford is good on long shots and short ones, too. Tom Ed is a first class guard. He can also shoot perfectly. He's the man who put ball in basketball. When Ed gets that ball, you might as well chalk up two more points for the Junior III team. Joe is some jumper for our center! And fast, phew! He goes so fast the opposing team can't see him. We have already beaten the Senior Two's in the school tournament, and we hope to win the tournament.

Really the Junior III Class has the name of being the meanest class in school, but that is because people do not really know the Junior III Class. Our class is full of pep and energy. Maybe it is because we are so energetic that we get such a bad name. But we are proud that we are a part of J. C. H. S. and we are going to try to make J. C. H. S. proud of us in the future.

WALTER SUMNER,
Class Reporter.

Junior II

AIRHEART

In Junior High the fattest boy
Turn out to be our own Leroy.

AUSTELL

A is for Austell, better known as "Jack,"
All kinds of pretty clothes she wears upon her back.

BELLOMY

Bellomy comes second in the alphabet,
He's the shyest fellow you've ever met.

BERRY

We've a Berry, though not on a vine,
She's found talking all the time.

BRANDON

Herman, whose last name is Brandon,
Wanders to the office, though not at random.

BRYANT

B is for Bryant, Eugena's her name,
Nice and sweet, and a right cute dame.

L. BYNUM J. S. BYNUM

B is for Bynum, Lucy and Jessie Sue,
Found among the cleverest in Junior II.

CAMPBELL

C is for Campbell, our President,
Also, our most intelligent.

CARTER

Carter also starts with C.
A very nice fellow he seems to be.

CHANDLER

The Chandler girl, Mary Sue,
Will prove a friend sincere and true.

G. DERRICK M. DERRICK

We have two Derricks, Malda and Glenn,
Not brother and sister, but still some kin.

DICUS

D is for Dicus, freckled red head,
Her many pounds weigh like lead.

T. EVANS J. D. EVANS

E is for Evans, Trixie and John D.,
Brother and sister, so you see.

FENNELL

Some say Fennell, some say Fennell,
Which is the better, we can't tell.

GAY

Jane, they say, is pretty Gay,
And to us, she is O. Kay.

HAYS

H is for Cecil's last name, Hays,
Her happy smiles and winning ways.

L. HOLDER

Lois signs her last name Holder,
Teachers seldom ever scold her.

E. HOLDER

Her cousin, Elaine is a little older
And seems to be a little bolder.

JACOBS

Helen's last name starts with J,
But we don't know how long it will be that way.

KENNAMER

Kennamer's first name is Weldon,
He fails on his tests seldom.

KELLEY

Jennie Lee is our reporter and poet.
From these verses you might know it.

KING

Mary Bet is a king without a throne,
She's a queen who rules alone.

McCARY

McCary begins his name with M.
Just a year have we known him.

MILLER

Our Miller is a priceless Pearl,
A very sweet and friendly girl.

MIDDLETON

Joseph is the last of the M's.
He plays football and breaks his limbs.

PARKS

Albert is a jolly boy,
History and science he does enjoy.

PETERS

Our would-be football star is Joe,
He plays in rain, sunshine, or snow.

L. PRECISE
T. PRECISE

Tom and Leonard are the Precise brothers,
Tall and sturdy and liked by others.

REED

Flavia's presence in our class is a delight
Because she is studious, patient, and quiet.

RICE

Gladys counts her friends by the score.
And wherever she goes she adds many more.

ROBINSON

Sarah is liked by all who know her.
She's ready to learn most anything you show her.

SELBY

Elizabeth Selby has a smile for all,
She knocks home runs and plays basketball.

SHELLEY

Louise likes to talk, there is no doubt about it;
It would be impossible for her to get along without it.

SHELTON

In our class, we enjoy having "Brad."
Because he is such a witty lad.

STARKEY

Robert likes to joke and tease,
And all the girls he tries to please.

STAPLES

Next comes Jim, a stately boy,
All the girls he likes to annoy.

SUMNER

Short and plump and freckled face,
Ada is usually on time and in her place.

TALLY

Robert is a boy full of fun,
Although he looks like a serious one.

THOMPSON

Ruth is a charming blonde
Of whom we are very fond.

W. T. THOMAS
M. N. THOMAS

The Thomas twins, Mary Nell and Wm.
Tell
Are liked by all who know them well.

WALLACE

Rena is our very best athlete,
Her record is broad jumping thirteen feet.

WILKES

Pauline came only a little while back,
Yet without her, something we lack.

WOODALL

Her friends all call her Buel,
They say she is a priceless jewel.

IN co-operation with the George Washington Bicentennial Commission the Junior One Class planted a water oak on the high school campus. The aim of the American Tree Association is to have over ten million memorial trees planted between February the 22, 1931, and 1932, dedicated to the father of our country. The Junior One Class has done its part in taking the lead on the J. C. H. S. campus by planting the first tree in honor of the birth of George Washington.

Our Coaches

JACKSON County High School is very fortunate to possess two such fine coaches as Mr. Davie and Mr. Bower. The splendid athletic program which has meant so much to the school is a result of their diligent labor and training.

Jackson County High had a very successful football season—tied Stevenson at the Thanksgiving game; Basketball, for both boys and girls, has been a great source of pleasure to all sport lovers of J. C. H. S. and of the town. No wonder our school is proud of its coaches who have made possible such a splendid season of clean, wholesome athletics.

WILLIAM DEAN—Captain

Left End—170 lbs., 5 ft., 7 ins.

Dean was always there with his best, and by his consistently good playing he set an excellent example for the team.

ED HAYES—Alt. Captain

Quarterback—160 lbs., 5ft., 7 ins.

"Dink" never made a blink while calling signals. The team was always willing to do as his signals directed, and he could always be depended on to choose the best play for each situation. The team will have a hard time getting a man to fill his place.

RAYMOND BRANDON

Right Tackle—155 lbs.; 5 ft., 7 ins.

Without this plucky boy who knows the meaning of the word "Fight" but doesn't know the meaning of the words "Stop" or "Quit," we would have had a weak spot on our team. He put everything he had into every game, and students of J. C. H. S. are glad that he will return next year.

WINSTON PAYNE

Right Guard—158 lbs.; 5 ft., 7½ ins.

We call Winston "Buck," and, I mean, he can rare and buck when the opposing team starts over his side of the line. He will be one of the best players on the team next year.

LESTER PRECISE

Left Guard—170 lbs.; 5 ft., 7½ ins.

Precise was a plucky player and in every play he made, he was as careful as he could be and lived up to his name to the fullest extent.

HUGH OTIS BYNUM

Right Half Back—140 lbs.; 5 ft., 8 ins.

On the field this kid is as fast as a rabbit, and when he gets loose, J. C. H. S. rooters know it means a touchdown or a long gain. He will be one of the mainstays of the team next year.

JACK DOWNEY

Full Back—169 lbs.; 5 ft., 7½ ins.

In the Stevenson game, Downey got away for many good runs. In four plays he carried the ball half the length of the field. Next year the school can expect a star player from this boy.

BIBB CHANDLER

Center—161 lbs., 5 ft., 6½ ins.

Bibb slings a toe as wicked as Sington or Whitworth, and we expect him to use it to the advantage of J. C. H. S. next year.

TOM ED WEBB

Left Half Back—150 lbs.; 5 ft., 8 ins.

When Tom Ed punts the pig-skin, the ends always give their legs a good stretch, because his punts are always long ones.

ERNEST BREELAND

Left Tackle—173 lbs.; 5 ft., 8 ins.

From the day when Breeland first donned a J. C. H. S. uniform in the fall of 1930, he gave his best to his adopted school and made for himself an enviable place in the love and esteem of his class mates.

JOE JOHN MONEY

Right End—145 lbs.; 5 ft., 7½ ins.

As soon as an opposing team tried a play or two over our Money, that team realized that our Money is good National Money and changed its plays.

Basketball Review

THE basketball season of 1930-31 was a very successful one. The J. C. H. S. squad, one of the snappiest to ever appear on any court, was composed of the veterans, Ed Hayes and Tom Ed Webb; a fast new player, Ernest Breland; and the former subs, Joe Brewer, Jack Downey, J. B. McClendon, Cecil Beard, Billie White, Walker McCutchen, and Ben Harper. We won the majority of games we played, and won fourth place in the district tournament in which ten teams participated.

THE Mathematics Club has existed for three years and it is the pride of the club that during this time more pupils have signified their desire to join this club than any other club in school; but after they get into it they want to stay in. The Mathematics Club is wide awake, full of pep and enthusiasm, and is backing every project sponsored by the school. Daisy Brandon was selected by this club to represent it in the declamation contest put on by the student council, although she did not win the trophy she made a creditable showing and our Mathematics Club is proud of her.

The Junior Citizens Club

CONSISTING of boys from the junior high school classes, boasts of having one of the most wide awake groups in school. The activities of this club are not restricted to citizenship programs at club period, but include frequent hikes, weiner roasts, etc., on which occasions the boys enjoy the experience of rolling their admired sponsor, Mr. Bower, on the turf in "gang wrestling," all of which contributes to the development of citizenship.

AFTER several months of vacation the Dramatic Club met in September with Miss Garlington as sponsor and officers were elected for '30 and '31.

After all the officers had been elected we knew it was time for us to start to work as the Dramatic Club had much to do. On account of not having quite enough boys our plans were not carried out fully, but many interesting programs were given.

The faculty was called together for a meeting to decide when each club should have charge of the program in chapel. The time soon came for the Dramatic Club to have charge of the program. It being Lincoln's birthday they were very fortunate in having John Will Gay, Jr., to make a very interesting talk and other things that went to make the program very interesting.

It was decided at a meeting of the faculty and the Student Council that a declamation contest should be given which every club must take part by selecting one person to represent them. A trophy was to be given to the winning club. The Dramatic Club selected Raymond Blevins for their representative. The Science Club, however was successful in winning the trophy, although the Dramatic Club was second.

The Dramatic Club has been very successful this year and it is hoped that it will be more successful next year.

THE Home Economics Club is organized to increase the interest in Home Economics among the high school girls. A program was given in chapel by the club girls which showed the advantages to be gained in choosing or selecting clothing by taking a course in Home Economics.

During the year the members of the club have given some very interesting programs as well as ones which were of great benefit to any person. Each member has tried and succeeded in living up to the motto: "Make the Best Better."

The Music and Art Club

THIS is the first year that we have had the Music and Art Club in J. C. H. S. In our programs, under the leadership of our sponsor, Miss Dovie Bridges, we study music, dramatic art and paintings.

AS this was a new club with a new sponsor, our first proposition was to select a name for our club. Various names were submitted but we chose the name we thought most suitable which was History, because Mr. Johnson, our sponsor, was a history teacher.

Just after Mr. Johnson became acquainted with our club members and work, he resigned his position at the High School and we were to have a new sponsor. Mr. Darden, who took the place of Mr. Johnson, became our sponsor. We have been very delighted with the interest Mr. Darden has taken in our Club.

Our club consist of some thirty members, who do all in their power to render the club more appealing and enjoyable. Each program has consisted of the history of something—plants, animals, dates, mottoes, etc.

THE Latin Club was reorganized September 10, 1930. There were only eight of the old members back but with ten new ones we had hopes for a better and more successful year's work.

Trying to live up to our motto: "Carpe Diem" (seize the opportunity) we took up the study of the Greek gods and customs of the Roman people. This proved to be interesting as well as beneficial.

Thirteen Club

MR. BROWDER.....	Sponsor
TOM ED WEBB.....	President
RAYMOND BRANDON.....	Vice-President
ERNEST BRELAND.....	Secretary-Treasurer

ABOUT two years ago thirteen stalwart young fellows met in the principal's office to discuss their adjustment to the work of clubs already existing. Out of the meeting came the idea of a new club with the title "Thirteen Club," in defiance of the common superstitions regarding that famous number. Since that time the club has made a careful study of American Sports, the Wonders of Science, and is always eager to attack a new field for a few weeks study.

WILLIAM DEAN.....	S'g't-at-Arms

THE Science Club, composed of fine girls and boys, stands out as one of the best clubs in J. C. H. S.

We have, in Mr. Davie, a capable sponsor, and we certainly do appreciate his help in making our club a success.

The members of our club have co-operated wonderfully with the club officers in making a good name for the club.

We have in our club Joel McClendon, the winner of the Declamation Contest, and as a reward for her efforts a beautiful trophy to rest in the club room.
