

The Reminder '51

Alma Mater

Jackson High School, listen to us,
To our vows of love,
To ourselves and to each other
Faithful friends we'll prove.

High School days are swiftly fleeing,
Soon we'll leave thy halls,
Ne'er to join another meeting,
In thy hallowed walls.

So farewell dear Alma Mater,
May thy name we pray,
Be revered ever pure and stainless,
As it is today.

CHORUS:

Faithful, loyal, firm, and true
Heart bound to heart will beat,
Year by year the ages through,
Until in Heaven we'll meet.

Foreword

At a football game, at play on the basketball court, or engaged in other extra-curricular activities a high school student is happy.

Herein is an attempt to show the gay side of student life in pictures.

To the end that pleasant memories be shared and preserved, we contribute to our fellow students and other friends this Reminder as another volume to a pictorial history of Jackson County High School.

Dedication

In appreciation for kindness, understanding and devotion infinitely beyond her duty; with love we dedicate the 1950-51 Reminder to MISS CORA MICHAELS.

Class History

Six long, eventful, worthwhile years have passed since the class of 1951 arrived at the cornerstone to pursue a higher education. Eager were we for new experiences. We had come up through the lower grades and could now participate in athletics and music and could elect academic subjects.

In junior high school we learned the true meaning of core work. The experiences gained and shared meant a great deal to us in preparation for future study.

In Sr. I our class jumped up in number. Students from Dutton, Section, Skyline, Hollywood, Macedonia and Limrock joined us. Their contribution has added to our accomplishments.

We are proud of the fact that our class has been a vital part in the different clubs and organizations in our school. Ten are members of the Future Teachers of America, five being charter members. We have been actively represented in F.H.A., F.F.A., Spanish Club, Band, Glee Club, Wildcat Staff, and Student Council, which is directed by Kenneth Carter, Student Council president. The boys have been outstanding in athletics. In 1950 both football captain and co-captain were from the senior class.

Sr. II year did not appear quite so difficult as the past four years. All realized that four years were behind and there were only two years to go. The Junior-Senior banquet, held in the school cafeteria, was enjoyed by everyone. To secure money for the banquet we had to practice salesmanship in selling Christmas cards. Through hard work we financed a wonderful banquet.

After traveling the rough road for five years, we come to the last year of our course. Robert Clemens was elected to steer the class during this, our final year. At the beginning of the year we lost seven boys to the National Guard. Our loss is made up in part by the fine service which we know they will render to our country in its hour of need, but we still have eighty three on roll. Reviewing our time spent at Jackson County High School, we find the last year the saddest. Most of us bid "Au Revoir" to life-long friends and face a world shrouded in confusion and indecisions.

Every movement, song, and book must come to an end. This Chronicle must finish as the covers are closed on our book of yesterday at Jackson County High School. We hope that every member of our class will reflect credit on his country, his home, and Jackson County High School.

Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class 1951

This is declared to be the last will and testament of the Sr. class of 1951 J.C.H.S. Scottsboro, Alabama. We are known to be sound in bodies and of practically whole minds and bear this out to be the truth.

To Mr. Couch we leave our sincere thanks for his faithfulness and wonderful leadership throughout these past six years of.....(would you call it life?)

We leave our tender spots in Mrs. Davis's and Miss Michael's hearts to the Sr. II Class; and, as a whole, bequeath to them our title of "Dignified Seniors" but one by one will the following to them.

We, Inez Loyd, Lizzie Cornelison and Nona Whitehead, will our ability to look down on small people to Perline Sharp, Beatrice Chandler, Elsie Anderson, Ruby Hall, and Wayne Ball.

Charles McLaughlin, the handsomest boy in school, leaves part of his good looks to Bud Hunt; the rest he takes with him to college to assure himself of popularity with the girls there.

We, Jimmy Sparkman and Rayford Hancock, will our title of "Teller of Tall Tales" and wisecracks in class to Quenneth Holland, Billy Tiffin, Andrew Bradford, Will Jack Lewis, and Windell Jones.

We, George Nichols and Aubrey Cooley, will our wavy hair to Matthew Tatum, Edward Latham, Louis Bellomy, and Charles Washburn.

We, Carrie Vincent Gentle, Joyce Hill, Faye Fossett, and Mary Allen, leave our earnestness in school work to Annie Pearl Berry, Geraldine Smart, and Carolyn Precise.

I, Jo Anne Hale, leave my talent in music and my "Fust Cheer" in band to Janice Hodges.

I, Robert (Big Foot) Clemons, bequeath my (Guess What?) big feet to Hilburn Green.

We, Billie Jean Nichols, Kathleen Brogden, Anita Jo Ray, and Peggy Holland, leave our hints on how to catch that certain one to hopeful Pauline Luttrell, Ruth English. Sue Nell Cowan already knows.

We, Hilda Gibbs and Douglas Thomas, will our inseparableness to Lois Jean Gist and Ed Foster.

I, Kenneth Carter, leave a copy of "My Key to Success in Love Affairs" to Birda Anne Hancock.

I, Bernice Matthews, bequeath my red hair and many freckles to Margaret Lester and Imogene Durham.

We, James Watson, George Westmoreland, Winnie Jean Olinger, Betty Hazel James, and Wilma Payne, leave our quietness and friendly natures to Annie Lou Dobbins, Vivian Hooper, Mary Evelyn Lusk, Catherine Gamble, Berith Hess, Helen Stewart, Winnell Ball, Adena Grider, Lavonne Kennamer, James Hass, Rayford Thrasher, and Rosa Fay Chandler.

Wendell and Randell Allen leave their asset of each hiding his identity from teachers to Lorene Hall, Evelyn Hall, and Billie Hall.

We, Ollie Mae Lackey and Katherine Williams, donate our everlasting friendship to Nina Christa and Jane Preston, also Jane Patterson and Gleta Jones.

I, Jack Akin, leave my favorite seat in English to whoever can fill it, preferably Moody Stone or Eliza Davis.

I, Jimmie Lou Foster, will my never ceasing babble to Sue Brandon.

I, Ida Jane Hughes, will my boisterous laughter to Betty Crawford.

I, Betty Fay Edwards, will my ability to get along with boys to Jo Alder, Carolyn Reed Davis, Sally Ann Gass, and Florence Foster.

Rush Rush Peggy Devers leaves her many speed tickets to Doris Sumner.

I, Clara Mitchell, leave my singing ability to June Hodges.

We, Louise Glass, Una Jean Bellomy, Rae Patterson, Betty Sue Meyers, and Virginia Welch, bequeath our cuteness to Merle Farrior, Betty Zane Givhan, and Bess Cowan.

We, Billy Ray Sisk, John Austin Wann, Christine Bryant, and Margaret Lemons, leave our sweet dispositions to Donald Cunningham, Othell Patterson, Rena Matthews, Dot McClure, Dean Welch, Fay Hastings, and Betty Clyde Benson.

I, Imogene Gist, leave my "wee littleness" to Jan Bellomy.

I, Eileen Machen, will my tongue twisting language to Brooks Brown.

I, Lila Jean Keller, bequeath my lady-like ways to Jimmie Reed, Fay Holloway, and Hazel Shrader.

We, Janette Dilbeck and Barbara Kelley, will our notes on "How to Apply Makeup and Still Look Natural" to Dessie Gorham and Betty Sue Baugh.

I, Roy Lee Morrow, bequeath my chemistry books to anyone who is looking for hard work. (And not with his hands.)

I, Bill McCutchen, will Ed Cotten my place on the football team.

We, Violet McCoy, Lucy Ann Couch, and Rayford Pendergrass will our slow going but sure, never in a hurry movements to Mollie Sue Wilborn, Virginia Keller, Billy Joe Carson, and Junior Blancett.

I, Billy Jack Downey, will my position as teachers' pet to Mary Catherine Bynum and Erby Ervin.

We, Elizabeth Woosley, Eugene Bryant, and Jerry Chunn, leave our innocent stares and shy friendliness to Wayne Beaird, J. D. Phillips, and Mary Maud Blizzard.

Robert Precise, bequeaths his willingness to oblige and his knack at odd jobs to William Hare and John Paul Tipton.

We, Harold Russell and Carl Waldrop, leave our deep bass voices to Bill Matthews and James Pace.

I, Rex Nichols, leave my good looks, friendly smile, good sportsmanship, and the ability to succeed to Billy Buff.

I, James Killian, leave my ability to jump ten barrels and not fall and break my neck to Winston Payne, who uses the parking meters uptown instead of barrels.

Doris Fincher, leaves her ever-full money bag and her characteristic of being everybody's friend to Mary Loveless Weeks.

We, Sue Edmonds and Mary Woods, wish we could will all our boyfriends to you girls, but we guess we'll keep them and will to Christine Paradise part of our love for a big time.

I, Bobby Jo Culpepper, leave my chewing gum to Mary Pearl Shelton.

Charles Venable leaves his love for agriculture to Fay Williams, Cecil Shelton, and Eldrege Duncan.

I, Robert Bray, leave my muscles to Charles Carter.

I, Peggy Brock, will my neat ways and ability to be everybody's friend to Addie Marie Keller, Lorene Middleton, and John Bentley.

Sue Carter and Kathleen Haynes wish they were in Uncle Sam's Army and so do Gaynell Haynes and Madge Procter.

I, Lora Mae Reed, leave my giggle to Una Foster.

We, Fred Carter and Johnny Pitman, will our art ability to Clara Sue Tigue, Kenneth Glass, and Edwin Thrasher.

We, Charles Stanfield, Red Patterson, and Billy Bryant leave our reputation for good sportsmanship to Janette Porter, Evans Kelly, Dee Chandler, and Douglas Carter.

I, Zell Roberts, bequeath my love for sporty clothes to Jimmy McCord.

I, Carl Cook, leave my big loud mouth to Howard Oden and I hope He gets to be a cheer-leader.

I, Glenn Smith, last but not quietest, leave my ability to drive the teachers batty to Bobby Harless.

Prophecy

When school was out in '51, the Senior Class decided to have a homecoming in twenty years, which makes it now 1971. Driving down yesterday from Chattanooga, where I am now instructor in psychology, I could hardly keep my mind off the big event to occur today. A telegram had come from Jerry Chunn, Speaker of the House of Representatives, informing us that he would be unable to attend because Congress was in special session.

Reverend Aubrey Lee Patterson conducted the devotional.

After we had eaten, we began talking about each other, finding out the whereabouts of our classmates and whether each had fulfilled his ambition.

Bettye Faye Edwards, Doris Fincher, and Kathleen Haynes have purchased Hammer's Store, and made it the largest one on the western side of the Square.

Jimmy Lou Foster sued her millionaire husband for a divorce. The respectable lawyer, Glen Smith, pleaded her case. She receives $320,000 a year from her ex-husband.

James Watson has taken over WCRI. Each day at eleven o'clock, he and his "Crazy Four", Randall Allen, Wendall Allen, Billy Bryant, and George Westmoreland are on the air.

Jack Akin has recently completed his series of books entitled "How to Reduce". There are rumors that Robert Bray, Imogene Gist, and John Austin Wann have been his most successful victims.

Those two inseparable old maids, Mary Wood and Sue Edmonds, still set traps every night in hopes of catching a man.

Kenneth Carter has been lucky enough to inherit ninety-seven cents. It seems that he had a rich relative, of whose existence he was wholly unaware.

Robert Clemons is making an excellent Governor of Alabama, and his private secretary is Nona B. Whitehead.

Billy Jack Downey and Douglas Thomas are in charge of an Agricultural Play Time Class at their dear old Alma Mater.

George Nichols, Carl Cook, Carl Waldrop, and Charles Venable are on the Board of Education. The schools now have a three-day holiday out of each week.

Kathleen Brogden, Anita Jo Hamilton, Peggy Word, Billie Jean Hancock, Carrie Vincent, and Bobby Jo Presley have just completed a book entitled, "If at First You Don't Succeed, Try, Try, Again, and Then If You Don't Succeed, Don't Make a Fool of Yourself, Stop."

Barbara Ann Kelley, Lora Mae Reed, Zel Roberts, Peggy Brock, Jeanette Dilbeck, Hilda Gibbs, and Eileen Machen have formed a Lonely Hearts Club.

Because of the teaching ambitions of Mary Allen, Joyce Hill, Fay Fossett, Rex Nichols, Billy Ray Sisk, and Charles Standfield, new courses have been added to the J.C.H.S. curriculum. The classes are for morons.

Roy Lee Morrow, Johnny Pittman, and Jimmy Sparkman are star professional basketball players.

Eugene Bryant, Aubrey Cooley, Fred Carter, and James Killian are now holding their own on the street corner.

Inez Lloyd, Una Jean Bellomy, Dorothy Strawn, Rae Patterson, and Clara Mitchell are running their own private busses to Jackson County High School.

Peggy Devers, Jo Ann Hale, Betty Sue Myers, and Louise Glass are exclusive models of Barnes' Dry Goods Store.

Christine Bryant, Bernice Matthews, Margaret Lemons, Violet McCoy, and Winnie Jean O'Linger are stars on the Grand Old Opry.

Charles McLaughlin and Bill McCutchen are official dog catchers of Shakerag, Alabama.

Sue Carter, Lucy Ann Couch, Ida Jane Hughes, and Virginia Welch are professors at the University of Section.

Ollie Mae Lackey and Katherine Williams were late, but full of excuses, for this homecoming.

Lizzie Cornelison, Betty Hazel James, and Elizabeth Woosley are Sergeants in the Women's Auxillary Corps.

Harold Russell, Owner of the Bar Nothing Ranch, came shooting his way through the crowd, followed by Rayford Hancock.

Our Homecoming seemed to end so quickly. We enjoyed meeting our friends- the members of the greatest class that ever graduated from J.C.H.S.
