Dedication

MR. H. E. PHILLIPS

With deepest appreciation, love, and heartfelt thanks we honor H. E. Phillips in dedication of the 1961 REMINDER. Mr. Phillips, agriculture teacher, retires from his teaching position July 1, 1961, to assume duties as superintendent of county schools. His ability to instill in students the importance of learning, his intense desire to see his pupils succeed, his love and interest in their welfare, and most of all, his friendship--these are the eternal qualities for which we honor this noble man. Although he will be with us no longer in our school work, memories of his devotion to all students, especially "his boys", will live forever within our hearts and minds.

Last Will and Testament

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF SCOTTSBORO HIGH SCHOOL, CITY OF SCOTTSBORO, COUNTY OF JACKSON, AND STATE OF ALABAMA, BEING OF SOUND MIND AND MEMORY, DO HEREBY MAKE, PUBLISH, AND DECLARE THIS TO BE OUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

- We, John Frank Armstrong and Bambi Howland, will our height to Parks Tubbs and Jack Holder.
- We, Gaynel Thomas, Ann Nevils, and Brenda Perry, leave our love of sports to Lillie Sanders and Virginia Lackey.
- I, Barbara Bankston, leave my twirling class to whoever wants it.
- We, Mary Ann Harris, Carolyn Woodall, Carolyn Hodges, and Shirley Traylor, leave our shortness to Nita Dawson, Carolyn Hinkle, Louise Sisk, Joan Stephens, and Jessie Dell Hicks.
- I, Jackie Grider, leave my never ceasing ability to cry in all situations to Vivienne Webb.
- I, Kenny Atkins, will my dimpled chin to Wayne Womack.
- We, Raymond Pendergrass and Martha Whitehead, leave our wit to Charles Yarborough and Wesley Barnett.
- I, Ken Manning, leave my slide rule to Billy Matthews.
- I, Shiles McCord, leave my love for older girls to Doug Norris and Nathan Black.
- I, Charles Dawson, will my ability to "shine" in a tight ballgame to Wayne Treece.
- I, Jimmy Beason, will my ever-combed hair to Howard Stuart and Rayford Guffey.
- I, Gary Crawford, will my seat and good grades in Democracy to Skippy Cunningham.
- I, Bernice Latham, leave my title as Homecoming Queen to the lucky girl who gets it.
- I, Martha Campbell, will my red hair to Joyce Goldston and Faye Lewis.
- I, Lyle Haas, leave my ability to flirt with five girls at one time to David Howell.
- I, Don Trammell, leave my ability to perform chemistry experiments to Roger Carter.
- I, Margie Blackwell, leave to Rachel Higginbotham the exclusive right to linger in front of the mirror for a final glance to be sure my hair is properly arranged and lipstick artistically applied.
- I, Celeste Chambers, leave the ability to stay true to one boy to Carol Roden.
- We, Linda Cordell Chrisman, Carol Smith James, and Barbara Weeks Bradford, will to Joan King and Shirley Mitchell our ability to catch a man.
- I, Larry Nevils, leave to Bobby Baggett the intense jealousy I have felt all year when Carol looked at another boy.
- We, Pat Elliott and R.C. King, leave our talkative ways to Jerry Barclay and Sandra Mitchell.
- I, Mary King, leave my never ending "crushes" to Rita Womack.
- I, Ruby Lee Proctor, leave my twelfth grade books and sisterly love to Canna Mae Proctor.
- I, Elizabeth Wilson, leave my dream of organizing a girls' football team to Sadie Cross.
- I, Carol Ann Berry, leave my looks to anyone who needs them to get a man.
- We, Stanley Manning and Billy Earl Schultz, leave our basketball ability to Johnny Bradford.
- I, Jo Pell Brandon, leave the job of getting the WILDCAT out on time to next year's editor.
- We, Harry and Larry Hancock and Carolyn and Cathryn Keel, leave the ability to confuse everyone to Roy and Troy Reed.
- We, Doug Green and Jerry Pace, leave our many years of studying to anyone who was stupid enough not to study.
- I, Bill Proctor, leave my ability to bum cigarettes to anyone who can master the art.
- I, John Pepper, leave my habit of saying "I'm Sorry" in all situations to Randy Bryson.
- We, Ronald Rogers and Jimmy Griggs, leave our ability to argue on any subject to Dana Bennett.
- We, Louise Phillips, Sammy Arnold, and Hershel Johnson, leave our quiet ways to Patsy Sherwood and James Adams.
- I, Frances Edge, leave my way with the opposite sex to Doug Bryant.
- I, Jerome Dean, leave my speaking ability to Allen Lee.
- I, Charlotte Rudder, leave my sewing ability to Judy Hubbard.

We, Ruth Bryant, Doris Shelton, Veda Warren, Bobbie Jean Wornack, and Carolyn Bellomy, leave our long hair to Nellie Jo Selvage, Mary Frances Phillips, Barbara Middleton, and Margie Bradford.

We, Billie Ann Sebring and Velma Cornelison, leave our good grades to Carol Bryant and Jane Dudley who need them.

I, Donald Beddingfield, leave to Wade Deerman the power to set every feminine heart in the auditorium beating like a trip hammer.

We, Jean Coplin and Patsy Derrick, leave our pretty complexion to Carolyn Hall and Jo Ann Dickerson.

We, Bob Derrick and Sonny Hodges, will our ability to ski to Doug Hodges and Buddy Lusk.

We, Bobby Atkins, Paul Cornelison, Phil Dutton, Billy Walden, Aubrey Machen, and Sammy Woosley, leave our enormous size to John Brewer, Edward Cornelison, Benny Farr, and Raymond Holcomb.

I, Sue Bradford, leave my pep and enthusiasm to Linda Blackwell.

I, Anne Baker, leave my reputation for keeping my desks and books more neatly than anyone else to Shirley Matthews and Gayle Muse.

We, Billy Dean Deerman, Vinson McClendon, and Johnny Darnell, leave our ability to sneeze 17 times without stopping thus making life miserable for the teacher in charge to Jimmy Green, Larry Henderson, and Donald Hodges.

We, Joyce Gentle, Barbara Brandon, and Jane Gentle, leave our seats at the Rook table in P.E. to Carol Goolesby, Ellen Thomas, and Brenda Hastings.

I, Tommy Brown, leave to Tommy Weeks my chair in the Principal's office. It is doubtful that Tommy Weeks has the ability to do it full justice, but it would be unfair to fail to provide for the carrying on of the custom.

We, Jerry Atkins and Buddy Berry, leave to Harry Ott and Larry Tanner our mischievous ways.

I, Milo Harper, leave my Southern drawl to Wendell Dolberry.

We, Charles Wallingsford, Jerry Wynn, James Austin, Johnny Johnson, and Julian Shelton, leave our crew-cuts to Sammy Thomas, Clyde Wilson, Alvin Stewart, and Franklin Poland.

I, Donna Jo Holder, leave to the future office assistants my ability to argue with Mr. Collins and my knack of getting around the things he says for me to do.

I, Linda Nell Shelton, leave to next year's editor of the annual the headaches of being editor and hope he thinks twice before having summer delivery.

We, Betty Watson, Patricia Keel, and Wilma Lusk, leave our place in Shorthand II to Ginger Hancock, Jackie Greene, Dennie Mitchell, Peggy Wynn, Mary Dell Cowley, and Laverne Holcomb.

We, Larry Hood, Kenneth James, and Rayburn Selvage, leave our way with younger women to Tommy Swanson, and George Walker.

We, Betty Jean Gullatt and Ronald Hammons, leave our pretty eyes to Robert Reed and Jesse Little.

We, Peggy Hall and Mary Clyde Gray, leave our mischievous ways to Blanche Davis, Eunice Manning, and Janice Proctor.

We, Jack Owens, Larry Wallingsford, and Bobby Hammonds, leave our black hair to Kenneth Hess, Thomas Lenox, George McKee, Hershel James, and Bobby Southeard.

We, Alice Ruth Poland, Wanda Phillips, and Elizabeth Shofner, leave our blonde hair to Barbara Bell and Frances Malcolm.

We, John Tally and Vester Potter, leave our ability to sleep in class to Wade Heal, Tommy Hurt, and Jackie Martin.
 I, Jill Porch, leave my state of mind to anyone who needs a state to put their mind in.
 I, James Kent, leave my pessimistic outlook to Luther Hambrick and Eugene Campbell.
 We, Eugene Lewis and Jerry Rodgers, leave our "Happy-go-lucky" ways to Billy Olinger, Charles Kirkland, Cecil Keith, and Marvin Wright.
 We, Earl Reed and Billy Martin leave our ability to answer questions in class to Bobby Reed, Kenneth Rogers, Billy Sanders, and Samuel Proctor.
 We, Fannie Batey and Gladys Kindred leave our places in D. O. to the energetic Juniors.
 We, Ruby Faye Guinn and Joyce Luttrell, leave our sweet ways to Marie Grider and Shirley Jacobs.

Senior Prophecy

Spring, 1966, and I'm back to the old home-town. I'll take a look at the Sentinel-Age files, I think, and see what's become of my old senior class. Well, let's see -----

Raymond Pendergrass has had a little tough luck. His pool room burned and left thousands homeless. Kenneth James has used his skills at the James' Funeral Home. His motto is "You Stab 'em--We'll Slab 'em."

Bill Proctor is a recording star for the Decca Label. His latest release is "We can't Turn On the Christmas Tree Lights, Mother, They're using The Electric Chair Tonight." Rivaling Bill's record on the Hit Parade in Ruby Lee Proctor's new Coral release, "Grandma's Hair Fell In The Butter; Silver Threads Among the Gold."

Linda Nell Shelton was the first woman to fly around the world, nonstop backwards.

Earl Reed is missing in action, he tried to prove the world was square but never could find the third corner.

Kenneth Manning is now a rich manufacturer of slide rules. He hasn't learned completely how to use them yet but never-the-less he is making a fortune.

Barbara Bankston is an interior decorator. She specializes in chicken houses. She believes that pictures of fried chickens on the wall make the hens lay more. She uses colored grass in their nests.

Frances Edge has become one of the leading actresses in Hollywood. She is now starring in a Golden State release entitled "Miss Edge Meets Frankenstein."

Johnny Darnell, who has been taking flight lessons, is in the hospital. He went on his first solo flight the other day but forgot to take his airplane.

Jean Coplin has shocked everyone by becoming a chorus girl in an Atlanta Night Club.

Barbara Weeks Bradford and Kenneth lived in a shoe until they had so many kids that they had to buy a boot.

Billy Martin became an experimenter with instant foods. Mix his latest with hot water and coffee; mix it with cold water and get iced tea; mix it with lukewarm water and get mud pies.

Shirley Cook Traylor is still happily married and now has a yard-ful of "little Traylor's."

John Frank Armstrong has a new product designed to make fat people slim, slim people fat, poor people rich, rich people poor, sick people well, and well people sick. This product was a top seller until someone tried it.

Carolyn Roach is a teller at the Scottsboro Bank. Boy, did she tell some tales when that dough disappeared.

Brenda Perry has written a book entitled, "Three Hundred Ways to Catch a Man. Milo Harper also is an author. His latest book is "Three Hundred and One Ways for Men to Escape."

Rosalie Maples has developed her talents as a fortune teller. The sign on her door reads, "Mosey Posey, Come In and Ask Rosie."

Tommy Brown now has a thriving business of his own. He runs a concession stand in the smoke pit in the band room.

Eugene Lewis now owns a grocery store in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He is noted for high-priced, low quality food.

John Pepper, famed Hollywood, writer, director, producer, and playboy, recently had a very successful movie entitled, "Why Men Leave Home."

Patsy Derrick has become the sheriff of Jackson County. Carol Berry is her chief deputy, and I hear they have robbed many stills.

Jackie Grider owns a Rock-and-Roll drugstore. Bobby Hammonds is her bopping soda jerk.

Larry Nevels, a successful dance instructor, has taught several of Scottsboro's teachers his new steps. Some of these teachers are Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hambrick, and Mrs. Armstrong.

Velma Cornelison has surely surprised me. She wrestles on television at night and is a lady mechanic during the day.

Buddy Berry is owner of the Bridgeport Trackless Trolley Company. He will make his first run with no trolleys and no tracks.

Do you remember that cute Celeste Chambers? She was recently selected "The Prettiest Pea Picker of Punkin' Center." Her hobby is raising pennies (Jimmy's, of course).

Vinson McClendon is a member of the Hobo Union and is demanding upholsters boxcars, and . . . oh yes, they want hot and cold water in every boxcar, too.

Mary King has finally made headlines; "Lady With Ukulele Charms Cows at Milking Time; Saves Feed." She is often asked to lecture to the Cowman's Association.

R. C. King is the wackiest professor ever to hit Harvard. He teaches a course called how to outwit the teachers.

Donna Jo Holder and Billie Ann Sebring are professional toe dancers with the New York City Ballet. I was quite surprised when I learned this because as you remember they were both quite dignified when they were in high school.

Bambi Howland, Barney Brooks, Jimmy Grigg, Johnny Johnson, Jack Owens, and Jerry Rodgers, inspired by their warm reception on the senior trip, have become the greatest group of comb instrumentalists and vocalists since the days of the cave men.

Sammy Arnold and James Austin were last seen disappearing into the wilds of Africa in search of a revolt to crush. They are two members of Jimmy Beason's REC (Revolution Exterminator Corps).

Bobby, Jerry, and Kenny Atkins now sing in fancy hotels and resorts on the Riviera, calling themselves the Brothers Three.

Anne Baker, Carolyn Bellomy, and Fannie Batey also entertain millions each year with their roving minstrel show. It's called "The Three Bees and their Banging Banjos".

Don Beddingfield runs a business which is engaged in writing reports on short notice for out-of-luck students, and he employs Buddy Berry (alias Lawrence) to handle English Composition, Bob Derrick in economics, Phil Dutton for science, and Bobby "Hambone" Hammonds for general social studies.

Carol Berry and Margie Blackwell are dramatic actresses involved in the Broadway production of Sue Bradford's novel "First Monday Hound", adapted to play form by Barbara Brandon, produced by Ruth Bryant, Directed by Paul Cornelison, and backed by millionaire yo-yo-manufacturer Bill D. Deerman.

Louise Edmonds is a nurse in an asylum and is especially comforting and sympathetic toward former classmates Jerry Pace and Wilson Wright.

Joyce and Jane Gentle are law partners with Wanda and Louise Phillips in the firm of Gentle, Gentle, Phillips, and Phillips.

Mary Clyde Gray and Ruby Guinn are experts on the application and uses of cosmetics and perfume. Betty Jean Gullatt heads their line of fine models which includes the two beautiful Carolyns', Hancock and Hodges.

Lyle Haas, owner of Haas's Home for Dumb animals has provided residences for Ronald Hammon, Harry and Larry Hancock, Sonny Hodges, and Larry Hood, all of whom pay for their care by doing bit parts in movies. (Such as stand-in for chimpanzees, or corpses, or screams in horror scenes.)

Betye Irvine is a stenographer at the Pentagon in Washington and is among the few people in the world who can actually find their own way out of the building.

Billy Johnson, Jimmy Kent, and Stanley Manning are cigar manufacturers and are before an investigating committee on suspicion of substituting corn silk for the cross-vine they usually substitute for tobacco.

Billy Martin and Shiles McCord fought to a stand-still on Meet the Press the other Sunday. Martin advocates Civil Rights for the mentally deranged, while McCord counters that bopping should be a profession.

Ann Nevils, "Miss America" of 1964, has joined Fidel Castro Jr.'s rebels as they struggle to get out of Cuba, which is still under Fidel Sr.

Elizabeth Shofner is a socialite in New York City. She loves it and says the people are the warmest and friendliest in the world.

Gaynell Thomas, Carolyn Womack, and Carolyn Woodall are in politics and have been highly successful as candidates on the Communist ticket.

John Tally is the first man to win the Pulitzer Prize for a single statement. He said, "Darnell, leave me alone." The secret is that he said it 692 times in the span of six days. (Senior Trip, 1961)

Billy Mack Walden was voted "Man We'd Most Like to See in Space" by the people who know him best. (Fellow inmates at Kilby say also--"He teaches us bad habits".)

Veda Warren is a palmist and recently told Bettye Watson that her stock holdings were worthless. Bettye "palmed" them off on Elaine Wilson who turned out to be the buyer for palmist Veda. In this the famous philosopher Elizabeth Wilson found the moral "Don't palm things off when a palmist tells you to palm them off."

Sam Woosley, better known as Tam Ootie, received an award for his service to Communism. This award reads "For extreme ability in the good RED ART of Confusing People."

Jerry Wynn is an author and playwright. He has given the world a masterpiece in his "Story of a Water Addict."

Martha Campbell and Charles Dawson are professional Class Prophets!

ALMA MATER

Scottsboro High School, listen to us,
To our vows of love,
To our selves and to each other,
Faithful friends we'll prove.

High school days are swiftly fleeing,
Soon we'll leave thy halls,
Ne'er to join another meeting
In Thy hallowed walls.

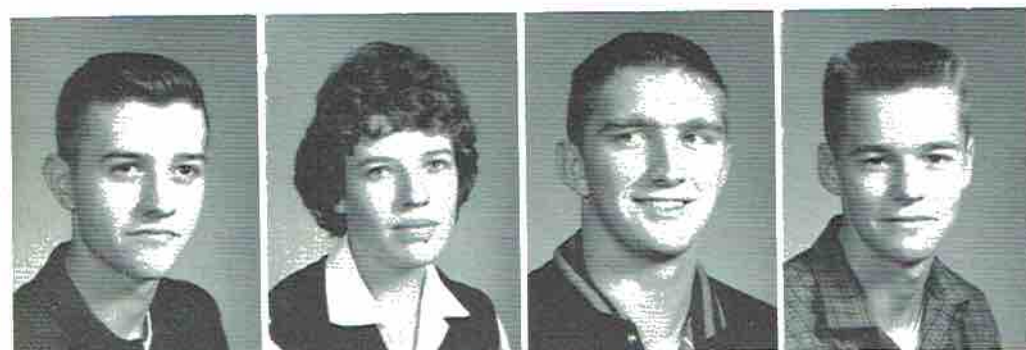

So farewell dear Alma Mater,
May Thy name we pray,
Be reverenced ever pure and stainless,
As it is today.

Chorus

Faithful, loyal, firm, and true
Heart bound to heart will bear,
Year by year the ages through,
Until in Heaven we'll meet.

and out through openings a person of greater heights could ever attempt. Even though here are many types of clothing that I'll never be able to wear, there are also things that may wear with ease that don't suit taller people.

I think that now that I have accepted the fact that I will be short the rest will get along well. It seems that my brother is getting weight that I might have lost or wasted after a long time. I don't think that I can enjoy being short or tall. I want to be able to fit in there!

Editor's Note

The Wildcat staff expressed their appreciation to two members of the senior class for their English compositions included in this issue. Ed Wilson rendered the "The Tall Girl" and Mary Ann Harris composed "Hello Up There".

An Appalling Sight

Every day at 11:10 A.M. and 2:10 P.M., a terrible sight takes place. These are the times of our two lunch periods. At the bell signifying the beginning of a lunch hour, a wild mass of humanity comes roaring down the hall like a locomotive. The look in the eyes of these "people" is not unlike the look in the eyes of Texas Longhorns during a cattle stampede. Their minds are intent upon but one thing-- food! In order to get this food, people are scattered both left and right from one of these mad rushes. Not long ago, I saw a girl sitting at a lunch table crying. Her dress had once been blue,

Library Club

The Library Club at present has a double--header going. It is sponsoring two projects-- a service project and a money raising project. The service project is the photographic exhibit, an annual event, now on display in the Library. The photographs are on loan from the Eastman Kodak Company. They are the prize winning photographs from the 1960 National Photo Awards for high school students. Anyone interested in entering the 1961 contest may obtain an entry blank with complete rules from the circulation desk in the Library. The money raising project is the selling of the school emblem headscarves. The price is $1.00 and the money will go towards a much needed card

This is the last the D O department no longer be called I C T -- Industrial Training. This change in name was brought about by the Federal Government.

The Department regrets having lost two of its finer pupils. Clarence Potter moved and is now doing well at Butler High. "Sawlog" Venable quit school, and it is rumored by the "grape vine" that he is considering matrimony.

On Tuesday, January 10, Mr. Hatcher of the Sentinel, took pictures of the entire I C T group and club officers. These pictures will be sent to the state I C T paper.

There will be a meeting of the district coordinators in Gadsden, on January 11, to decide where the district contest of skits, oratorical, Mr. and Mrs. I C T, and other contests will be held.
