

THE
REMINDER

1964

More than a building,
Scottsboro High
School is a way
of life.

The Reminder

Scottsboro High School

Scottsboro, Alabama

Spirit . . . laughter . . . gaiety . . . the words are almost synonymous. In our friendly attitude toward fellow students, our willingness to work for school and community, our recognition of outstanding students and accomplishments, and our support of Wildcat teams, we prove this spirit is what makes Scottsboro High School great.

The football team demonstrate their school spirit as they break through the Wildcat at the Homecoming Game.

S. H. S. spirit reaches Pyramid heights under the leadership of its award winning team of talented cheerleaders.

Dear Students:

You are in a vulnerable position to receive advice, for you are lingering between the security of home and school and the realities of a bold, inviting world. Your anticipation of the future has not, yet, been marred by adversity, nor has your least expectation been spoiled by disappointment. It is my hope that your experiences at Scottsboro High School may be such that any disillusionment you may encounter will serve to make you even more persistent in your endeavor to live a useful and purposeful life.

My best wishes, of course, are yours always.

Sincerely,

Ray Collins

Administrators Serve Faithfully

Scottsboro High School is able to maintain the high standards set forth by the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges because of the unselfish dedication of the members of the School Board who serve without pay. On them falls the responsibility of governing the Scottsboro City School System. They must be capable of recognizing needs and making decisions that will enable each student to obtain the best possible education.

The past year has seen new improvements in the school plant, new facilities installed, new courses offered, new rooms added and additional personnel employed. These improvements were made possible through increased local support.

It is the desire of the City Board of Education that the Scottsboro City School System be second to none and their efforts are pointed toward this goal.

THE INVASION OF THE BEATLES
By Richard Matthews

It was early in February of sixty-four
When a new kind of bug invaded our shore.
They called them the "Beatles" and it fitted too,
They looked like a bug with a long hairdo.
They came from England, and isle in the sea
And if they hadn't come it would have suited me.
Their long hairdos reminded me of mops
But I'd wear it too if it would make me tops.
They sang and danced and moved around
And for several weeks they were the talk of the town.
Then came the day for the Beatles to leave
But I just couldn't make myself grieve.
All the girls, oh how they did cry,
But all I could think to say was - Bye, Bye!

MYSTIC DEATH

O mystic death, you wisp our friends away
And leave us with the words we did not say.
O Death, we wonder where the reason lies,
When from this life you break all bonds and ties.

O mystic death, you wisp our youth away
And give no time thy powers to inveigh.
To thee, O Death, we only give our strife,
But God hath said thou art a bridge to life.

Written by a classmate--
Elizabeth Barnes

On Wednesday, April 8, 1964, an automobile accident took the life of Billy Keel, a senior at Scottsboro High. To everyone at SHS, and especially to those who knew him best, the news of this tragic event brought a cloak of sorrow and regret.

Billy Keel possessed traits for which many strive but are never able to attain. His warm, friendly smile and calm nature were an influence on everyone with whom he came in contact. He harbored no malice but merely "laughed off" anything that could lead to an argument--a talent few possess.

Billy Keel's life will not end with a written biography, for the things he did and the things we shall continue to remember will be a monument to his days on earth. And maybe, as we remember Billy, we will make his better habits ours that when we too pass on, some writer of future years can see our lives as we see his. So let him not die, but rather let him live in us and make our lives better because we knew him.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society of Scottsboro High School became an active organization in 1958 when our first induction ceremony was held. The purpose of the National Honor Society is "to create an enthusiasm for Scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of America's secondary schools." These four qualities of genuine Scholarship, noble Character, Worthy Leadership, and distinguished Service are the virtues most fundamental in life.

"Everybody smile!" Louise Precise, Hugh Sumner, Lynda Campbelle, Pam Mitchell, Rita Rudder, Bonnie Nevils, Diana Evans, Judy Williamson, Alice Culver, Clyde Broadway, Patricia Geren, and Rebecca Ryan are shown making plans for the yearbook and school paper.

The preparation of a yearbook and school paper is a long, tedious, fun-filled, and challenging task. The Journalism Department started planning the year's activities in September. Staff members were assigned specific duties so that they could begin drawing layouts. Pictures were taken and retaken; copy, cutlines, and headlines were written. With hard work and strong determination the deadlines were met.

"What do you mean your pages aren't finished!" Wildcat editor - Clyde Broadway, Annual editor - Judy Williamson, and sponsor - Mrs. Eloise Broome encourage staff to meet deadlines.

"There's one of me!" Bonnie Nevils, Diana Evans, Patricia Geren, and Alice Culver scramble for first choice of Reminder pictures as a "shipment" arrives from the studio.

Staff Strives for Perfection

"The smile of triumph!" Rebecca Ryan, Clyde Broadway, Judy Williamson and Pam Mitchell smile as completed pages are marked on the chart.

Sportsman's Club

In the Sportsman's Club there are no scholastic requirements. The only requirement is that a member have an interest in the out-of-doors. The purpose of the Sportsman's Club is for enjoyment, to increase companionship and make students feel that they belong in school and to teach sportsmanship and principles of conservation of natural resources. These principles preserve the beauties of nature for future sportsmen.

The major activities in the Club are dove shoots, and crow shoots. The main event of the year is their fishing rodeo in the spring. Prizes are given for the most fish and the biggest fish caught. This year the Adult Sportsman's Club of Jackson County gave the Sportsman's Club of Scottsboro High School an electronic game call.

For a number of years a Medical Careers Club has existed in Scottsboro High School under the sponsorship of the local Medical Auxiliary with one of the members of that organization serving as advisor. In the 1962-63 school year for the first time a faculty member was selected as a co-sponsor with the Medical Auxiliary representative so that the Medical Careers Club could become a bona fide part of the school club program.

The Medical Auxiliary remains actively interested in the Medical Careers Club which has as its main purpose guidance in the area of medical careers by acquainting the members with the numerous and varied opportunities available to them in this field of service.

S.H.S. Majorettes

Liz Barnes - Sr.

Patsy McNeill (Head Majorette) Jr.

Bunnie Bradford - Jr.

Many thrills are linked with being a majorette, and among the greatest of these is the part they play in boosting school spirit. The six bouncing girls of the line this year really did their job. They performed at many places, such as pep rallies, parades, and football games.

There were three returning majorettes: Patsy McNeill, Bunnie Bradford, and Liz Barnes. The three new ones were Sue Neyman, Lynda Campbelle, and Becky Barclay. Tryouts were held May 5, 1963, and the majorettes were off to Ole' Miss for Majorette Camp July 7-13. Here the girls learned and prepared for the '63 Wildcat football season. It was an excited group of girls which stepped out on the field for the first time that fall night, but after the first few steps they forgot their nervousness and put themselves fully into what they loved to do-being a good majorette. It comforted them to know that they had the great Scottsboro band behind them in their snappy new uniforms.

All in all it was a wonderful year, and all the broken fingernails and bruises were soon forgotten in the whirlwind of activities. Each girl will always remember that she was a part of the school spirit of S.H.S.

S.H.S. Cheerleaders '64

The 1963-64 Varsity Cheerleaders have once again added their spirit to S.H.S. leading the Wildcats on to a rewarding year. They have led cheers faithfully, ignoring rain, freezing nights, and the opponent's ferocity, always proving their agility and skill. During the year the cheerleaders sold slogan ribbons, plastered the halls with spirited posters, had charge of the Pep Club meetings, conducted pep rallies, held the homecoming bon fire, and led cheers at football and basketball games.

The cheerleaders attended the summer clinic for cheerleaders at Old Miss. Their determination and hard-working attitudes proved to be an asset since they brought back one second place ribbon, two third place ribbons, and one fourth place ribbon. Using all the new cheers and techniques they had learned, the cheerleaders held their own one week clinic for prospective cheerleaders who wished to lead the mighty Wildcat spirit in the years ahead.

These cheerleaders play a big part in making school spirit soar.

MISS PAT HARTSELLE

TRI-STATE CANDIDATE FOR F. F. A. QUEEN

The candidate is selected from the S. H. S. home economics chapter by the sponsor on the basis of individual accomplishments in third year F. H. A. work. The candidate and her escort represented the F. F. A. Chapter at a contest held in Chattanooga, Tennessee, where the Tri-State Queen was Chosen.

MISS ALVA DALE JOHNSON

MCCALL'S TEEN FASHION BOARD MEMBER

To be selected as a member of McCall's Teen Fashion Board, a third year home economics girl is judged on clothes she has made outside of class. She is judged on how the clothes are made, the colors she has chosen, and the way they look on her. McCall's sends the board member patterns and materials every month.

MISS JEAN WALES

BETTY CROCKER HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow is chosen on the basis of an objective test which is taken at high schools all over the United States. Nancy received the highest score on the test in S. H. S. To be eligible for the test, a girl must be a senior in high school and she must have had at least one year of home economics.

The Betty Crocker test covered many different facets of life, such as: family relations, spiritual and moral values, child development and care, health and safety, and using and conserving resources.

MISS NANCY KELLY

GOOD CITIZENSHIP GIRL

The good citizenship girl of Scottsboro High is chosen by the faculty to represent her school and the local chapter of the D. A. R. at the annual pilgrimage in Montgomery, Alabama. This honor is presented on the basis of leadership, scholarship, dependability and character.

Alma Mater

Scottsboro High School listen to us,
To our vows of love,
To ourselves and to each other,
Faithful friends we'll prove.

High school days are swiftly fleeing,
Soon we'll leave thy halls,
Ne'er to join another meeting,
In thy hallowed walls.

So farewell dear Alma Mater,
May thy name we pray,
Be revered ever pure and stainless,
As it is today.

Faithful, loyal, firm, and true
Heart bound to heart will beat,
Year by year the ages through,
Until in Heaven we'll meet.

In Appreciation

. . . of the willing assistance we have received in producing this book reflecting the "Magic of School Spirit," we dedicate this page to:

the hard-working Reminder staff,

Taylor Publishing Company for printing, binding, and covers,

Mrs. Newman Davis for her help in proofreading the sections,

Mr. Leroy Gist for pictures,

Mr. Ray Collins and the faculty for their fine cooperation, and every S.H.S. student for making the 1964 Reminder possible.

Sincerely,

Judy Williamson, editor

Mrs. Jack Broome, sponsor
