NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Numerous and exciting activities were on the National Honor Society agenda for the 1978-79 school year. To promote scholarship among students, the A-B Honor Roll continued each six weeks. As a service to our community, Christmas baskets for needy families were prepared by club members. April was packed with fun as we surprised 35 new members with a secret induction service, planned the Student-Teacher Extravaganza, and participated in the Ugly Walk. In May we presented our musical assembly, were involved in Sadie Hawkins Day, awarded the National Honor Society Scholarship, and ended the year with our annual spring picnic.
