MEMORIES

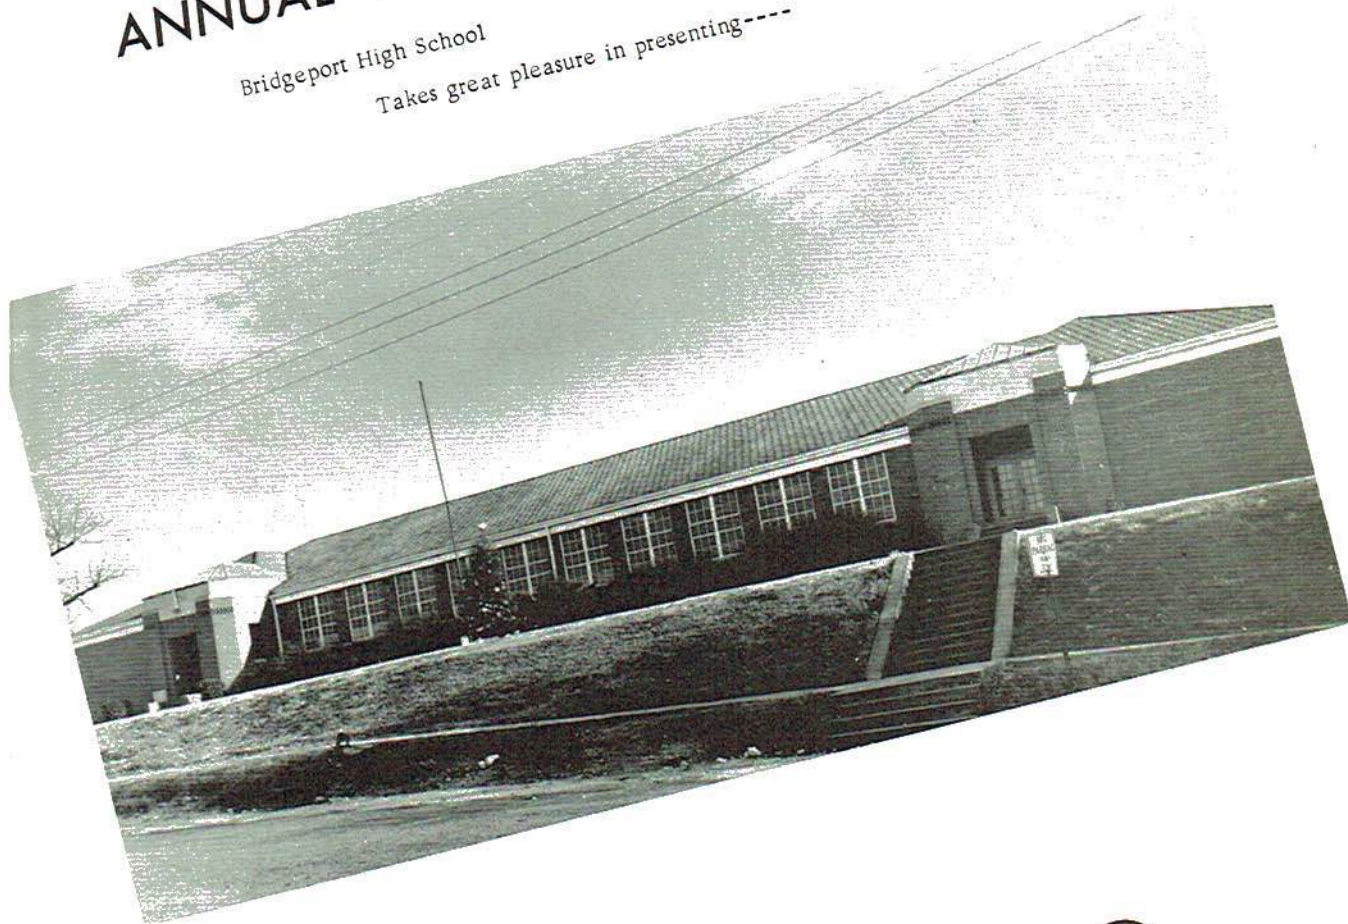

The 1958-1959

ANNUAL STAFF of

Bridgeport High School

Takes great pleasure in presenting-----

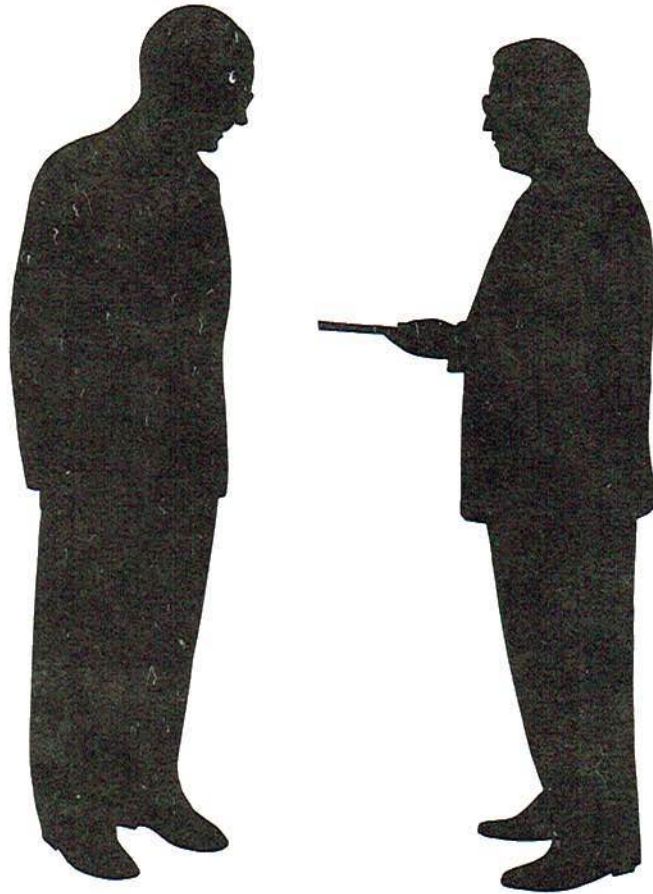

MEMORIES

This edition of "Memories" is brought to you with the fondest hope that you may derive many hours of pleasure from it now and in the future when you think about the days gone by.
I sincerely hope that between these covers we have a part of the happiness and togetherness that we shared during our school days.

The Editor

ADMINISTRATION

DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of 1958-1959, fondly dedicate this edition of "Memories" to our beloved principal, Mr. Neil Knox. His ever-present desire to serve, his winning smile, and his untiring guidance shall never cease to be an inspiration to all of those who have known him.

A TYPICAL SCHOOL DAY

Here goes another day!

Children! Please!

Get to work!

The daily traffic jam!

Now, why did you do that?

Is it supposed to look like this?

Ye Olde Lunche Line

Don't throw it away!

No erasures, please!

Big plans-No money

But I thought-

Beauty in the rough

That angelic look!

Ready, down!

Now right here...

Whew! I thought it would never end!

ffic jam!

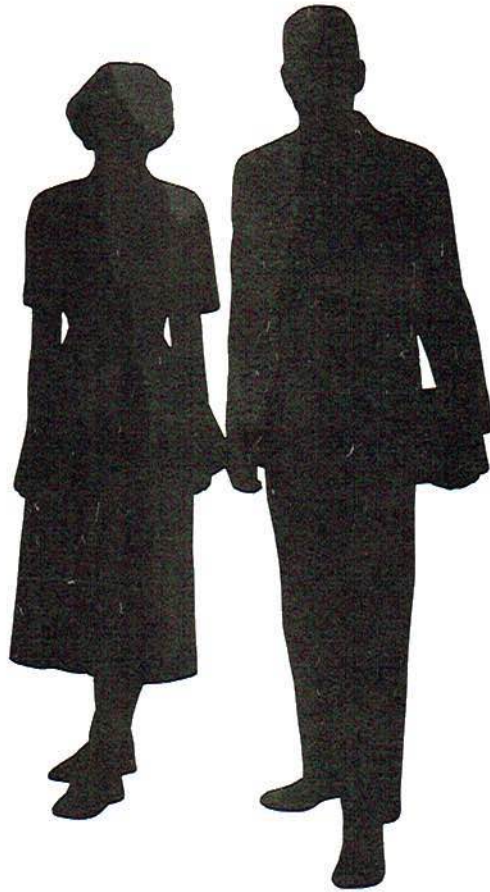

it away!

the rough

thought it er end!

CLASS POEM

Would you like to hear this story?
It's all written in rhyme
And it's about the Seniors
Of the Class of '59.

First there is Billie B. Crabtree
Our one and only flirt.
She has all the boys
Tagging at her skirt.

Take Kenneth Hart for instance,
He's a friend to one and all.
If Bridgeport wants a touchdown,
Just let him grab the ball!

Our cutest girl, Irma Rogers,
Is always on the go.
You always know when she's around
Because she giggles so.

Next comes Miss Emma Richardson.
She's so nice and sweet
There's not a thing wrong with her.
She's a gal that just can't be beat.

Ann Moore is the studious kind.
Books are always on her mind.
Lots of hard work she has to do;
Our class is proud of her, so you should be, too.

School activities take hard work,
Charles Smith does it and never shirks.
But in his spare time he can be found
In South Pittsburg or that way bound!

C. N. Gothard, a "ladies man,"
Has a very firm foundation;
But it's doubtful that he'll ever be
The President of our big nation.

A young man who is true blue
Is none other than Sonny Stewart.
He'll succeed, we all are sure,
For never a friend could be as true.

Bobby Crabtree is tall and lanky
About school he's not very cranky.
He was always late to class,
But somehow he managed to pass.

Mary Ruth Knott is tall and slender,
I'm here to tell you of her splendor.
She's quiet and very studious.
Mary's life aim is to be duteous.

John T. Hughes, our "Trumpet Man,"
Is always willing to do what he can.
You might say he's kind of bold
'Cause he's fond of the ladies, we've been told.

President of the Student Council
Is none other than Judy Lea.
Though a heart-breaking damsel-
A very hard worker is she.

Donald and Donnie Tiffin
Are the twins of the class.
If your spirits need a 'liftin',
Their friendship you just won't pass.

Shirley Richardson is a sweet gal.
We all think she's a real pal.
She thinks a lot, but says little.
In other words, she's fit as a fiddle.

The "Pearl" of our Seniors is Inda Witt,
Most athletic she was voted.
Her magnetic charm which adds a bit,
Leaves her as the girl to be noted.

Because of his nice manners
And his brilliant wit,
Charles Thomas, along with banners,
Could very well be it.

Although Judy Phillips is a quiet gal,
She's a friend to the end.
And that's without fail
For on her you can always depend.

ard Abbott
b. Champ

The inseparable twins are Virginia and Jerry;
They always seem so gay and merry.
Our love for them can't be measured
Doing things for others is to them a pleasure.

Arnette Ridley is President of the F. F. A.
He likes farming any old day.
Just let him have a tractor and plow
He'll get the job done, and how!

Blanche Blevins is everybodys friend
On her you can always depend.
She's loyal and honest as can be,
She'll be a success, just wait and see.

Robert Bynum is a handsome guy
Who lives across the river.
We'd probably see him more often
But there's a flat on this T-model flivver.

Dickie Vinson is a real nice kid
He's a lover of practical jokes.
There's one thing we've found wrong
with him--
He likes to steal pins from girls'
Petticoats.

Short and blonde, but cute as pie,
Is this Senior from Bridgeport High
We're speaking of none other than Doris Ragan.
She'll go far in life, I'd imagine.

Carolyn McDowell, Most Popular girl,
Keeps all the boys in a whirl.
With platinum blonde hair and eyes of blue,
Anybody can see she's no fool.

Susie Durham is small and petite.
In her heart there's no room for conceit.
Her eyes of brown and lovely red hair,
Make all the boys just stand and stare.

Kenneth Thomas was voted Best-all Around.
Everyone knows he's just a clown
This boy think he's got what it takes,
But really I think he's a fake!

Cecil Kindred is quiet and shy.
Just one look and the girls almost die.
He never has a lot to say,
But he's a great guy anyway.

Tall and handsome John R. Payne
A nice quiet lad is he.
A pair of long red flannel
Would fit him to a "T".

A real fine tackle on our football team,
With him our teams not hurtin'
Now who could we be speaking of?
Nobody else but Eugene Burton.

Sidney Toney has a personality that shines.
A nicer girl you'll never find.
She's always doing good deeds for the day.
She's really a friend in every way.

Tiny, neat, and flirty is Jean Steele.
In the Senior Class she's a big wheel.
Because of her ability to be witty,
She wonders if it's a disgrace or a pity.

Girls like Barbara Blevins are rare.
Of her we are certainly proud.
Her personality is warm as the sun.
She listens instead of using her tongue.

Tommy Rogers, better know as "Rosco,"
Is noted for slipping out of history.
How he does this without getting caught
Will always remain a mystery.

Merle Bellamy, better know as Squirrel
Has eyes for only one girl.
He'll be important some day
With a big job and lots of pay.

Small and slim is Carrie Kemp
She's mischievous as an imp.
With one boy she can usually be seen,
They will probably end up as a team.

Tall and graceful is Annetta Myers.
Fortune and fame are her desires.
She'd rather make history than study it
With all the boys she makes a big hit.

Warren Whitcher, voted Most Handsome Boy
To us he's a big bundle of joy.
His good looks will take him far.
Someday he'll probably be a movie star.

Shirley Akins is quiet and sweet,
And we know she's really neat.
She's one on whom you can depend.
And we're all glad she's our friend.

Joyce Olinger, being very athletic
Can knock a ball a mile.
She does many good deeds at school
We know she lives by the Golden Rule.

Crystal Thomas was our Best Dressed.
For her, clothes can't be over-stressed.
She seldom thinks of another thing
Except HIM and that diamond ring.

Bruce Coffman, an all-around guy,
Whose scholastic ability won't rate high,
But since he's a captain of our team
B. H. S. girls think he's a dream.

Rosemary Warren is a beautiful gal
To everyone, she's a real pal.
Writing letters to Eddie she can be found,
Or else, Post-Office bound.

Sharron Paris is known for being pretty
And for her cheering ability.
She's always fun no matter where
It seems she has not a care.

Little but loud just fits Wanda Parker,
Who came to us from Jasper.
If you don't know the latest jokes,
Just walk right up and ask her.

Tallest of our class is Carl Foshee.
In football he plays end.
But he never quits drinking Double Colas
Even when football practice begins.

Fay Ruth Cookston has plenty of pep.
She can make noise with little help.
If she can help, she's always there
With plenty of time and energy to spare.

Everybody's buddy is Leon Mathis,
Of all the Seniors, he's the happiest.
When you're in need to him you run,
'Cause his pockets are full of gum.

Blonde curly hair and big blue eyes
He's an asset to our class.
Of course we're speaking of Clyde Raulston
This boy really gets around fast.

The great talent of William Carlisle
Words cannot express.
Unless you see the efficiency
With which he sends the Blue and Gold to press.

You can't tell if she's mighty or meek,
For at a piano or a clarinet,
Nancy Thompson is hard to beat!
She has so much talent it's hard to tell it.

Last, but not least, is Kenneth Cooper,
Who goes by the name of "Pet."
How he managed to get out of work
Is something we'll never forget.

And I, Nancy Rorex,
Who wrote this little ditty,
Think you should all commend me
For trying to be so witty!

CLASS PROPHECY

Irma Rogers

Class Prophetess

As I gaze into my crystal ball, I see the '59 Seniors 20 years from now:
William Carlisle, our Blue and Gold Editor, has really gone places: he is the editor of the New York Times.

C. N. Gothard is now President of the United States. Everyone thought Miss Gentry was kidding when she said that being President of the Senior Class gave him a feeling of responsibility.

Judy Lea is the first girl to go to West Point. She must really like boys, huh?

Rosemary Warren is now a busy homemaker, always going around singing her favorite song, "Eddie, My Love."

Donnie Tiffin married right after Graduation and they live in Hollywood now. A talent scout discovered our Donnie has facial features like Barrymore.

Wanda Parker is in her beloved Jasper again. She is the owner of it's largest department store.

Kenneth Thomas sprained his wrist so many times the atmosphere of the hospital must have gotten in his blood. He is one of Bridgeport's leading physicians.

Remember how Virginia Duke used to make her own clothes? She only designs now while others make the clothes. She is a famous fashion designer in Paris.

Clyde Raulston is Principal of dear ole B. H. S. He worked himself up from school bus driver during school days.

Donald Tiffin was always so good in shorthand. He is now private secretary to John R. Payne, President of Bridgeport's largest blue jean manufacturing company.

Inda Witt has taken Jim Backus' place in the "Mr. McGoo" cartoons. That laugh of hers has really taken her places.

Bruce Coffman and Kenneth Hart were great teammates in our school days but now they are arch rivals. Bruce is coach at Auburn and Kenneth is coach at Alabama.

Billie B. Crabtree did such a good job on the Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class that she decided to study law. She is now a partner in a law firm in New York. I'm sure you have heard of it -- Crabtree, Crabtree, Crabtree, and Crabtree.

We don't see much of Carrie Ruth Kemp any more. Between running her own 5 & 10 store and keeping house, she's pretty busy.

Shirley Richardson is secretary to Cecil Kindred, the President of Prudential Life Insurance Company of Chattanooga.

Carolyn McDowell is one of the models on the Bob Cummings Show now produced and directed by Bob's understudy, Charles Vinson.

Eugene Burton has taken Ralph Edward's place on "This is your Life" which by the way is going to do the life of the famous actress Bridgette Monroe (our own Sharron Paris) next week.

Bobby Crabtree is now star of "Gunsmoke." That long lanky look drew a talent scout's roving eye.

Sidney Toney is first grade teacher at B. H. S. She always seemed to like those first graders.

In case you wondered who the neat, attractive saleslady is in Bridgeport's Penny's Department Store, it is our own Shirley Akins.

Since Merle Bellomy was always class advisor in English he is now the editor of the Dorothy Dix column.

Arnette Ridley is sailing around the world trying to prove the world is flat. He never did believe that Columbus feller.

"Chuckles" Smith now owns his own Cadillac, two as a matter of fact-his and hers-one for Judy. He doesn't have to ride to South Pittsburg with Miss Gentry anymore.

Warren Whitcher is in Washington. He is official pencil sharpener for the Assistant Secretary to the Under Secretary to the Secretary of State. I knew he would be important someday.

Crystal Thomas is the proud owner of a diamond mine in Africa. I just knew that diamond collection would grow, and grow, and grow.

Remember how Jean Steele was always late to class. Well, she now owns a different color jet for every day in the week and she is never late anywhere now.

Joyce Olinger and Robert Bynum don't have to wait for the ferry anymore. They own a yacht, apiece and cross the river whenever they want.

Leon Mathis now owns a chain of grocery stores in Bridgeport. I knew he would be very successful someday.

John T. Hughes has really gone places with cool, cool trumpet. He has taken Louis Armstrong's place in the bright lights of Broadway.

Sonny Stewart is Leon Mathis' biggest competitor with his chain of grocery stores across the street from Leon. Mr. Austin is proud of Sonny.

Jerry Duke is band director at B. H. S. He must have really liked playing the saxophone in high school.

Carl Foshee is owner of a Double Cola Plant in Chattanooga. He drank so many Double Colas they finally just sold him the place.

Mary Ruth Knott is a four-star general in the Women Marines. She really tells everybody what to do now.

Nancy Rorex, who was voted Most Likely to Succeed, has really gone and done it---Y-E-P-the first woman Governor of Alabama.

Charles Thomas is President of a nationally known Cab Company which has its headquarters in Chattanooga. He must have been wild about the cab business.

Ann Moore and Emma Richardson have combined their talents and made Bridgeport's Home Economics Department the most outstanding in the state.

Susie Durham is a Happy housewife rearing her own baseball team.

Tommy Rogers is county agent for Jackson County. He bosses Mr. Freeman around now.

Annetta Myers is State Advisor of the F. H. A. Being President of the F. H. A. must have given her a feeling of authority.

The Blevins sisters, Blanche and Barbara, are private secretaries for two very handsome young executives of General Motors Corporation.

Nancy Thompson took Bess Myerson's place on "The Big Payoff." Can't you just see her in that mink coat???

Judy Phillips married a French Count and returned to her old home last year with her Cadillacs, diamonds, and 25 pink French poodles.

Doris Ragan is owner of a large cattle ranch in Texas. Being F. F. A. sweetheart must have given her ranching ideas.

Kenneth Cooper is English teacher at B. H. S. That English bug must really have bitten him.

Faye Ruth Cookston is in charge of the loudspeaker system at Grand Central Station--and she was so Quiet during school days.

And I see myself, Irma Rogers, starring in the famous television program, "Medic." By the way, I am married to a handsome young doctor.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of 1959 of Bridgeport High School, being of sound mind, having enjoyed twelve years (and maybe more) of school together, and having grown to love dear old B. H. S., hereby bequeath the following to the teachers that will remain after we are gone, and to the Seniors of next year.

To all the teachers that have had a part in our education, we leave you a promise that we Seniors will live up to your every expectation and wish. We will strive not to disappoint you.

And now the Seniors of 1959 will to the Seniors of 1960 a few of their many desirable (and some undesirable) traits.

Shirley Richardson and Shirley Akins will to Emily Mashburn their sweet and charming ways. Merle Bellamy wills to Benny Hill his athletic appearance.

Barbara and Blanche Blevins leave their ability to always stick together to Jeanne Rogers and Elizabeth Keys.

Robert Bynum leaves to John Olinger his nickname "River Rat."

William Carlisle leaves his editorship of the "Blue and Gold" to Bobby Lee.

Fay Cookston leaves to Patsy Burnette her craze for the Stevenson boys.

Eugene Burton and Bruce Coffman leave to Wayne Steele and Bobby Wells their big rush for the Boiler Room every day.

Kenneth Cooper brought nothing, did nothing, so he leaves nothing.

Bobby Crabtree leaves his hookey-playing ability to James Steele.

Jerry Duke leaves his quiet, gentlemanly manner to Kenneth Burrows.

Virginia Duke and Rosemary Warren leave their long hair to Beatrice McCloud.

Susie Durham wishes to will her red hair to Wanda Headrick.

Carl Foshee leaves his bungling ways to Thomas Click.

C. N. Gothard leaves his name, Coinage Napoleon, to W. M. Randolph.

Kenneth Hart leaves his reckless good looks to Jimmy Dean.

John T. Hughes leaves his driver's license to Jackie Jones.

Carrie Ruth Kemp and Mary Ruth Knott leave Mr. Freeman's odd jobs to Sandra Rogers.

Cecil Kindred leaves his black hair and blue eyes to Howard Blevins.

Judy Lea leaves to Sandra Scissom and Beulah Pelham her love for the finer things of life -- MEN!

Ann Moore leaves to Lois Seale her quiet, ladylike ways.

Annetta Myers leaves her fun-loving ways to Laura Crownover.

Carolyn McDowell leaves to Carolyn Peoples her lovely blonde hair and her "Most Popular" title.

Joyce Olinger leaves her athletic abilities to Molly Burton.
Wanda Parker and Sidney Toney leave their good behavior in English Class to Veda Warren.
Sharron Paris leaves her wit and charm to Frances Newton and says "Good Luck."
Leon Mathis leaves to Richard Abbott his ability to always get a date at the last minute.
John R. Payne leaves all his troubles to Dickey McMillan.
Doris Ragan and Nancy Rorex will their friendliness to Mary Ann Moore.
Emma Richardson leaves her height to Dava Raulston.
Arnette Ridley just leaves.
Irma Rogers wills her sneaky ways and her winning smile to Jane Brown.
Tommy Rogers leaves to Charles Bass his ability to get into trouble.
Charles Smith leaves to Charles McCrary his meanness in Advanced Science class.
Imogene Steele leaves her noisy ways to Mary Frances Sebring.
William Stewart leaves his good old easy-going ways to anyone lucky enough to get them.
Charles Thomas leaves his devilish actions and flirty ways to Larry Cain.
Kenneth Thomas leaves his ability to irritate all the teachers to Billy Steele.
Crystal Thomas leaves her ability to love only one man to Brenda Kemp.
Clyde Raulston leaves his love for those Christmas parties to Jimmy Nowlin.
Charles Vinson leaves those adorable dimples to Butch Couch.
Nancy Thompson and Judy Phillips leave their seats on the front row to Mary Frances Steele.
Inda Witt leaves her ever-lovin' giggles to Glenda Coffman.
Warren Whitcher wills his title of "Most Handsome" to Flavil Wear.
Donald Tiffin leaves his sly-as-a-fox ways to Paul Price.
Donnie Tiffin wills her ever-lovin' mischievous ways to Dorothy Burton.
And I, Billie B. Crabtree, will my bubbling enthusiasm for life to the whole Senior Class of 1960.

By the power invested in me by the Senior Class of nineteen hundred fifty-nine, I hereby affix my hand and seal.

Billie B. Crabtree
