19 TIGER 79

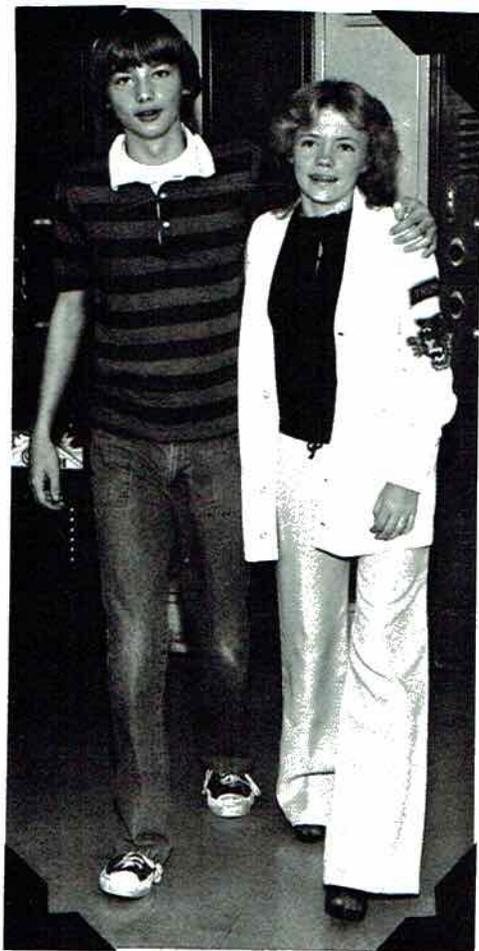

The 1979 Tiger

*Bridgeport High School
Bridgeport, Alabama
Volume 27*

Once upon a time we lived with hearts that raced and minds that dreamed and clocks that had no hour hands.

With common goals and common longings, we loved, we played, we won.

Those were our school days, our happy days. They were real because we made them real. They were alive because we existed.

And then as suddenly as they had dawned

Dedication
Ms. Elizabeth G. Matthews

We, the students at Bridgeport High School, are very fortunate and proud to have as a member of our faculty, Ms. Elizabeth G. Matthews.

Ms. Matthews, a 1966 graduate of South Pittsburg High School and graduate of MTSU and UTC, came to us nine years ago. Since then she has devoted her time and energy to becoming one of B.H.S.'s outstanding teachers. She has been an active and dedicated sponsor of the senior class, Beta Club, Blue and Gold Staff, senior play, and Jr. cheerleaders.

Not only has she been an excellent instructor, but through the years she has instilled enthusiasm and initiative into the minds of the student at B.H.S.

And now, we the students at B.H.S. wish to thank you, Ms. Matthews, for all your help in preparing us for the future.

To show our appreciation we would like to dedicate the 1979 Tiger Annual to you.

Seniors

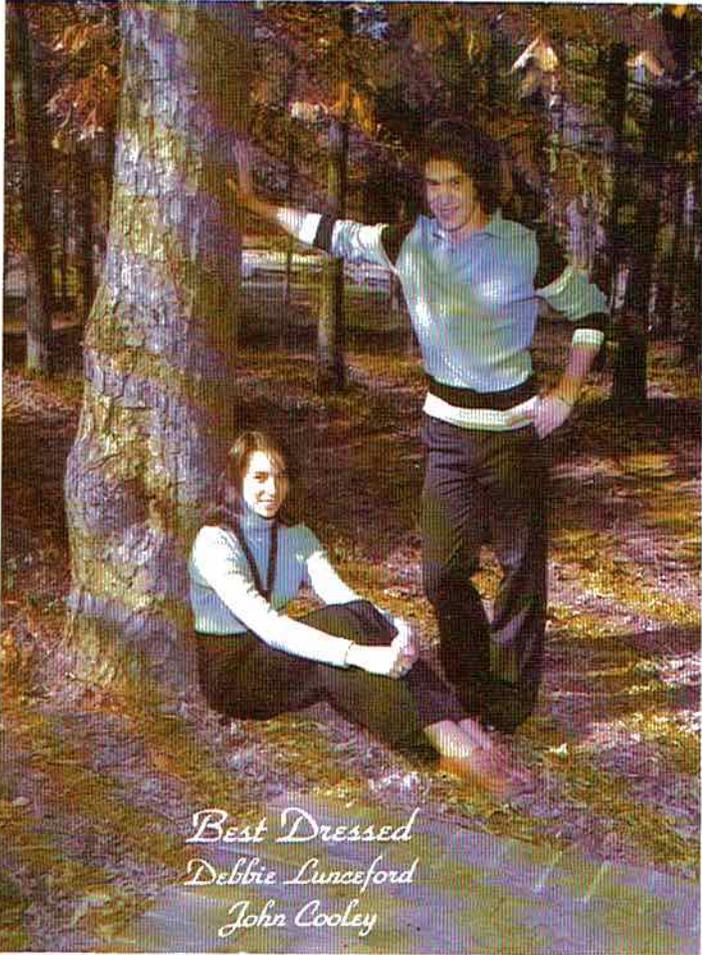

1979

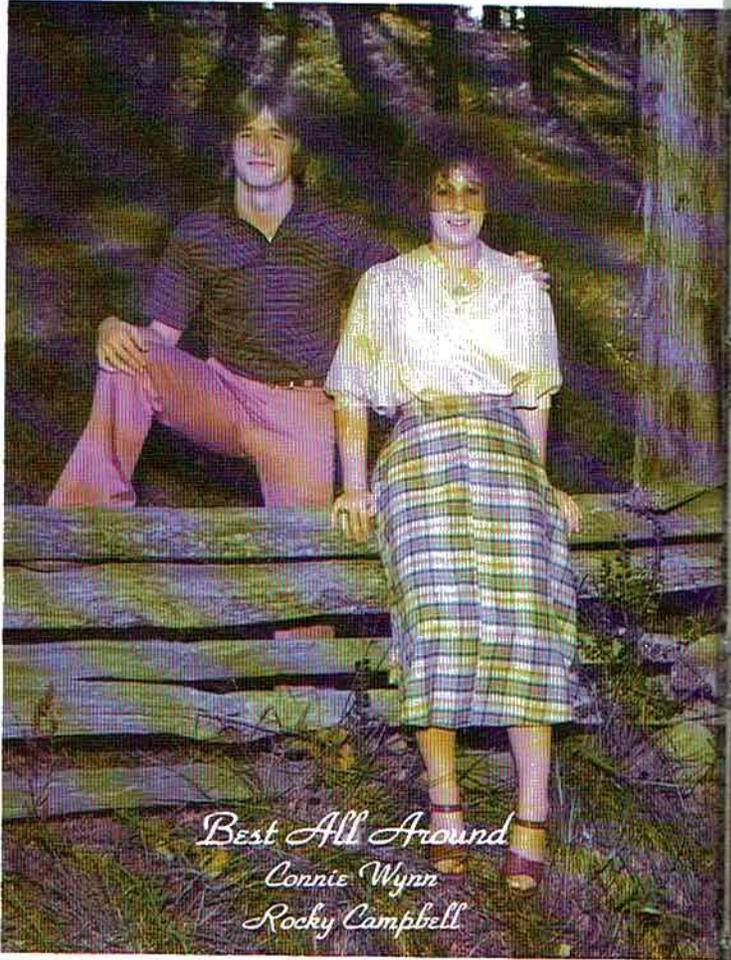

Memories . . . Senior year. It's truly one of life's "special times." After more than a decade of climbing from grade to grade, the end is not "in sight." It's staring you in the face. Like all "special times" senior year is full of promise, challenge, reward, fun — and just enough fear to keep the heart and mind doing double-time.

Classes

Memories . . . Classmates. During the year the extra moments that greet B.H.S. students during the school day, and even after school, become prized moments. We found minutes between classes a time for friends, friendly glances, and occasional coke. The lunch hour gave us a chance for conversation and relaxation. After school the freedom widened and B.H.S. scattered from band practice to football games, from dates to meetings and from running around to home again.

Memories . . . Sports. The high spots and the low spots, the wins and the losses, the spirited crowd being led on by the enthusiastic cheerleaders, the sunny days and the gloomy ones, the crowded gym, the touchdowns, fieldgoals, foul shots, the balls and strikes, homeruns.

It's graduation and it's unbelievable that I'm here. They'll call my name in a few minutes, and I'll walk up to receive my diploma . . . where do I go from there? I've always had the security of the school routine and its activities, surrounded by the friends I was so familiar with. Now we'll all be going in different directions, and I wonder how long it will be before the memories that meant so much start to fade. After twelve years of this you would think I would be ready to move on, but I fell like I'm leaving a part of me behind. Maybe that's good though, because I really have changed in the six years that I've been here. Well, pretty soon they'll get to my name. Then I'll be up there, and it'll be all over. In a way, I guess everything's really just beginning.

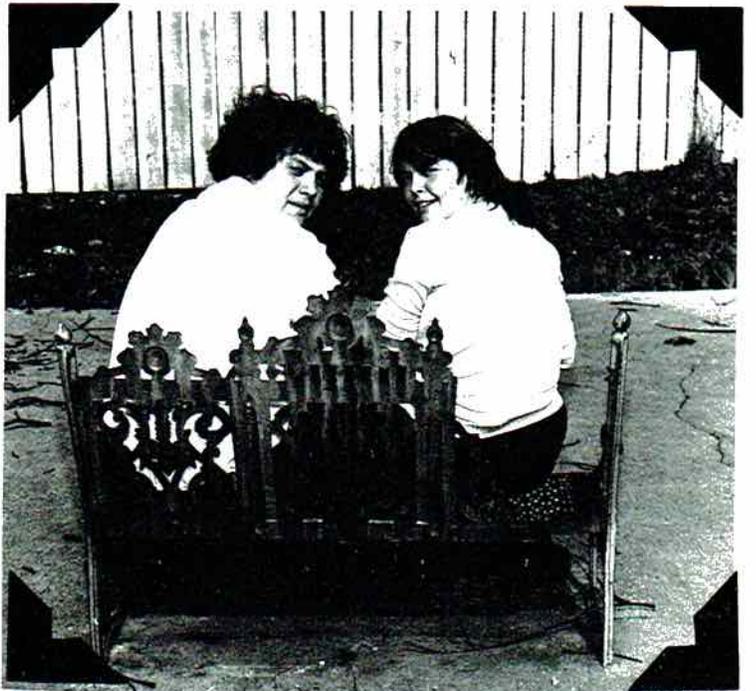

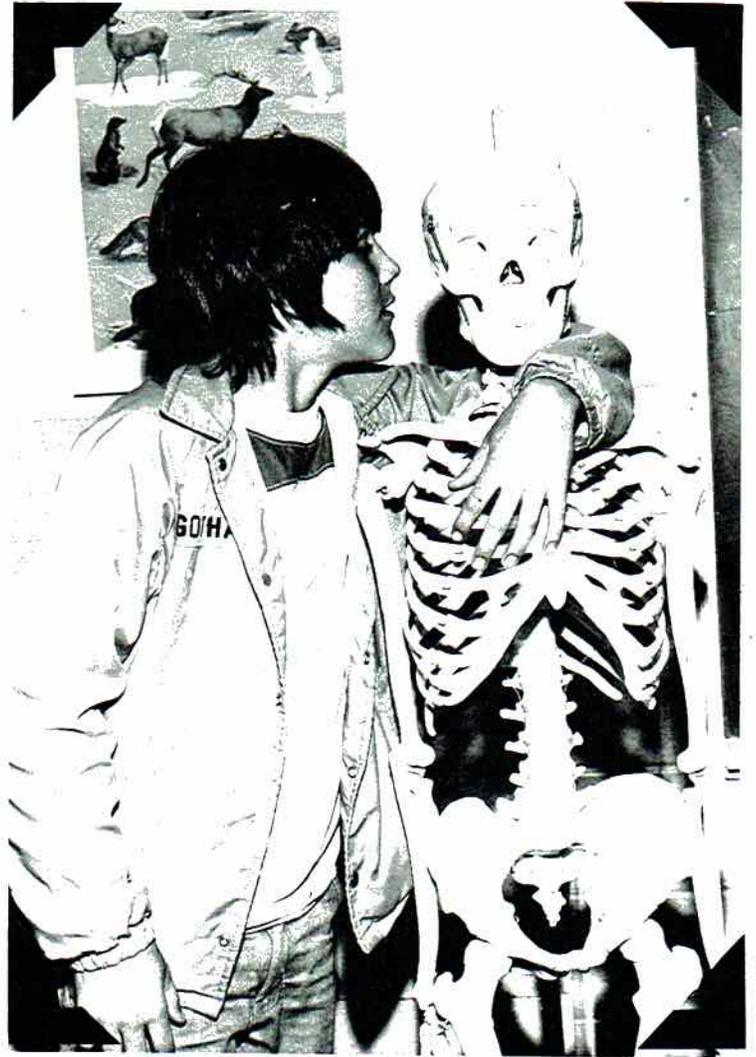

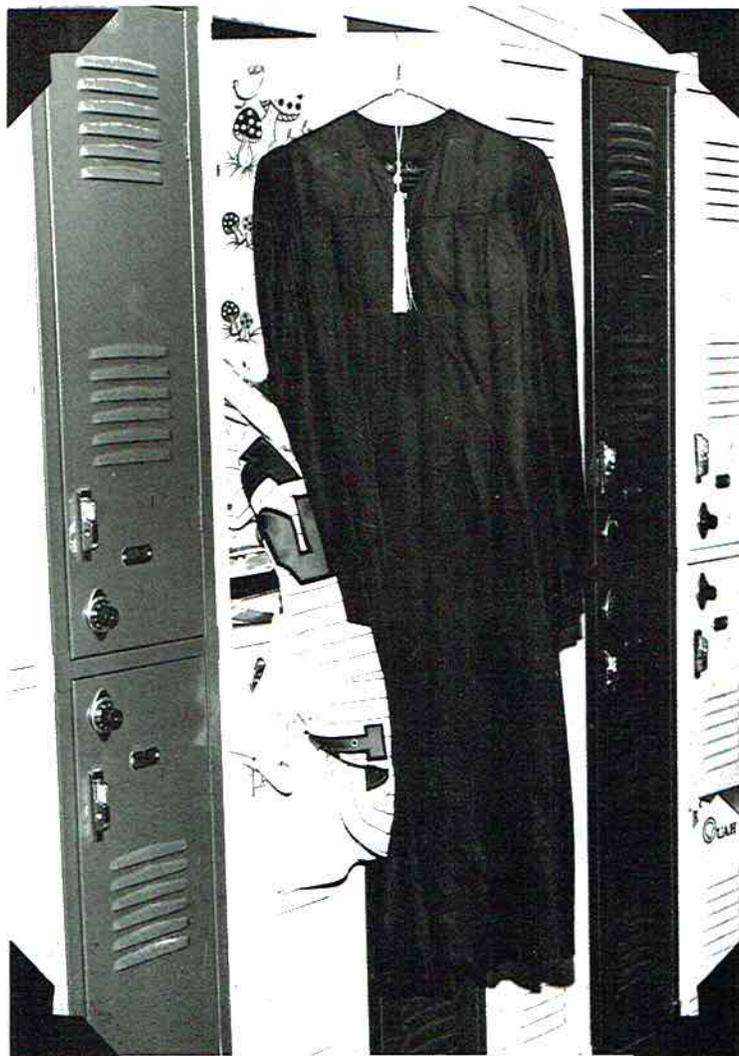

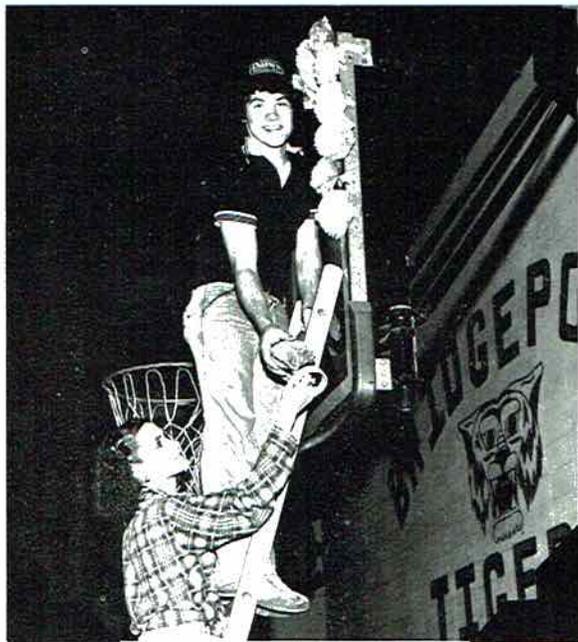

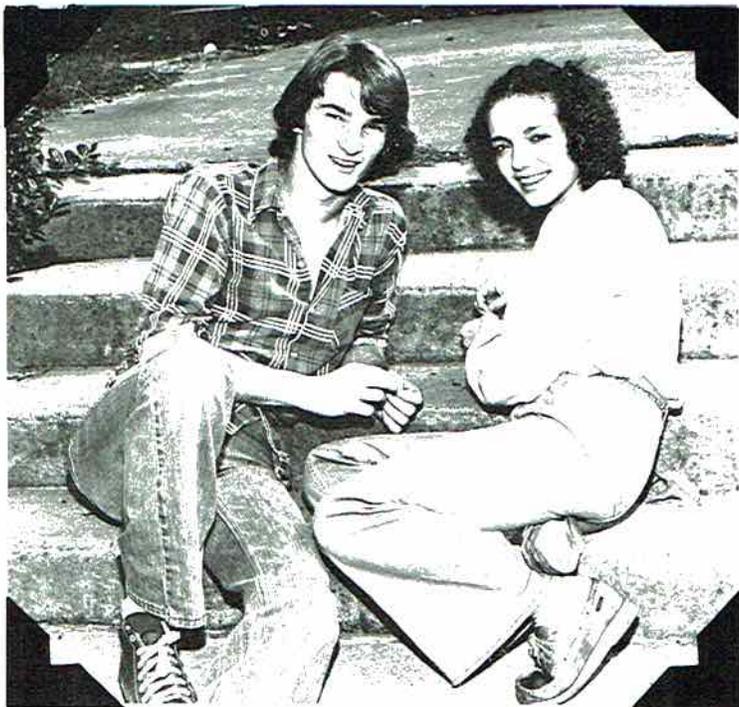

*In years to come
what will I remember?
Will I remember the year as it was or as I had wished it to be?
Will I remember only
the happy times or the disappointments we also shared?*

*Did I express
myself to the fullest extent and yet keep an
open mind which welcomed the thoughts and opinions of others?*

Did I utilize the days and months to form lasting friendships with others. Or will the experiences we shared be lost forever with the closing of a book NEVER to be of benefit to me in a more serious later life?

Will I recall the good times of shared laughter that came from such simple things as having a coke, or enjoying the fresh Spring sun? Was I alone or was I a real part of them? What will I remember?

Alma Mater

Bridgeport High School, listen,
 Mother,
 To our vows of love,
 To ourselves and to each other
 Faithful friends we'll prove.

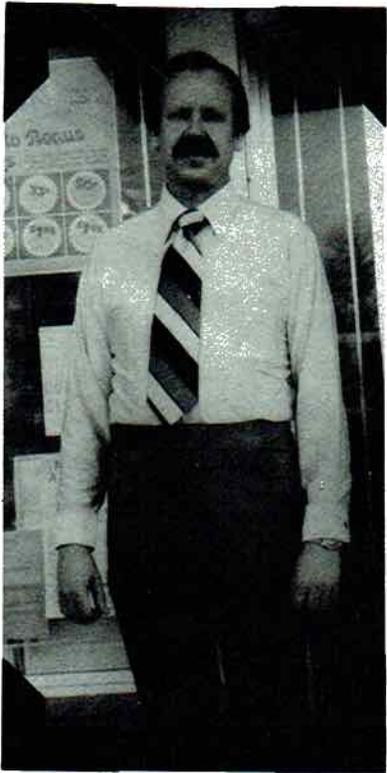

High school days are swiftly fleeting,
 Soon we'll leave these halls
 Ne'er to join another meeting
 Neath these hallowed walls.

So farewell, dear Alma Mater,
 May thy name we pray
 Be revered and ever stainless
 As it is today.

Faithful, loyal, firm and true
 Heart bound to heart we'll be
 Year by year the ages through Until in Heaven we'll meet.

Your friends say they'll keep in touch, but you know they won't. Your teachers say come back and see them. And you know you won't.
 Maybe someday it won't matter. But right now, it hurts a little.

Imagine America without textiles.

Quality textiles for over 75 years.

They're so much a part of our life that we tend to take them for granted. The textile industry, however, does not take lightly their role in American life. They are continually adding young people to the work force in order to stay new and adapt to a fluid society.

Avondale salutes the textile industry and American Youth. They're working together to stay ahead of your needs.

Avondale Mills.
