Vol. II

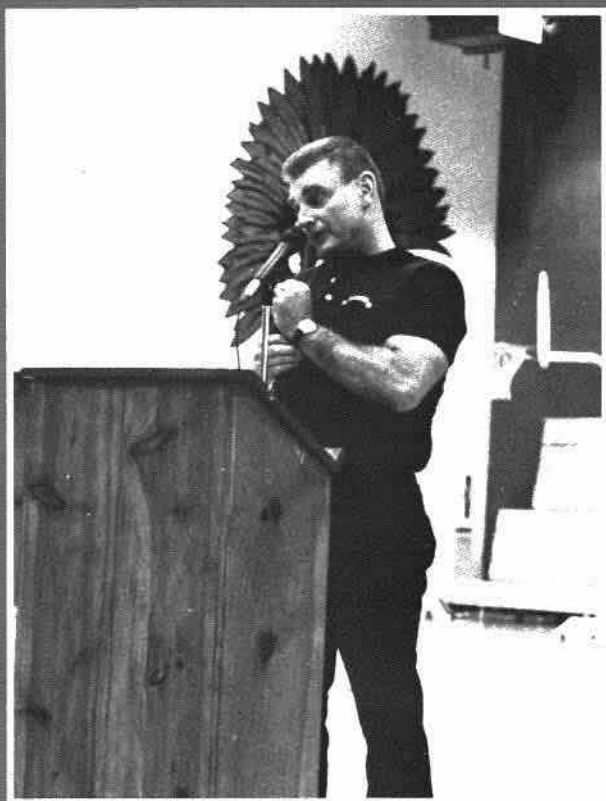

Senior Week was filled with Laughs for people of all ages. Everything from a dunking booth to the Miss Macho Contest kept us all on our toes all week.

One of the most successful events of Senior Week was the Pie-Eating contest. Big John and Kris Kittrell ate their way through cherry pies and peanut butter pies.

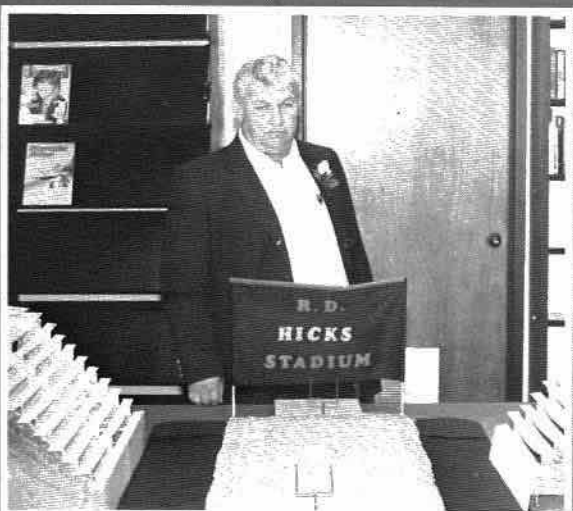

Ranger Gary Horton spoke many words of wisdom to a very attentive North Jackson High School. His powerful words will always be remembered.

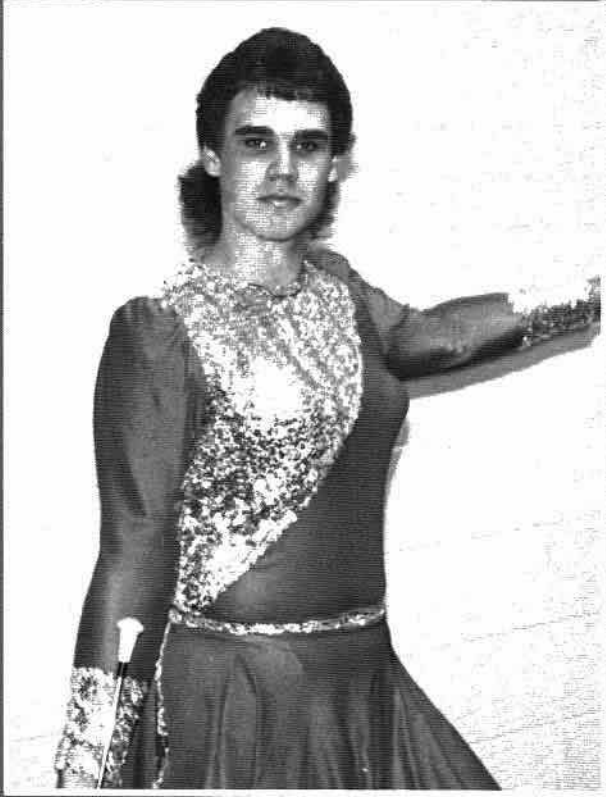

This year we honored one of our community's top citizens; the newly completed football field was named in honor of R. D. Hicks. In addition, Mr. Hicks was further honored at a banquet held in North Jackson's new library.

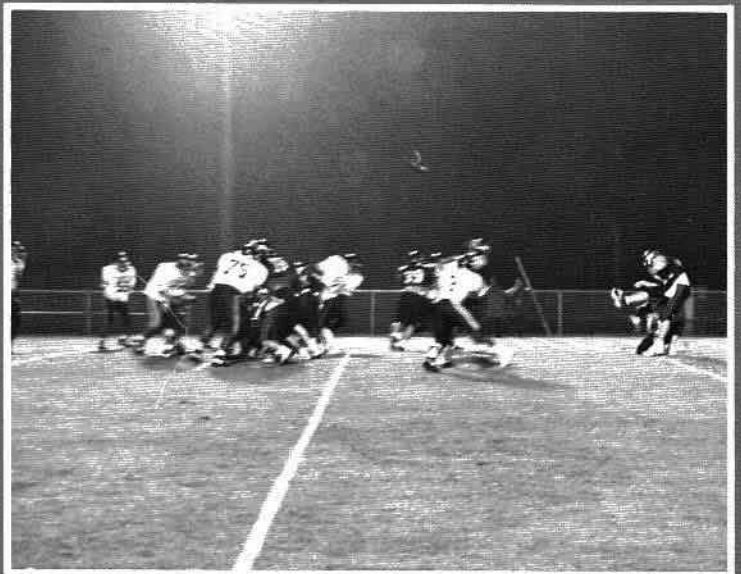

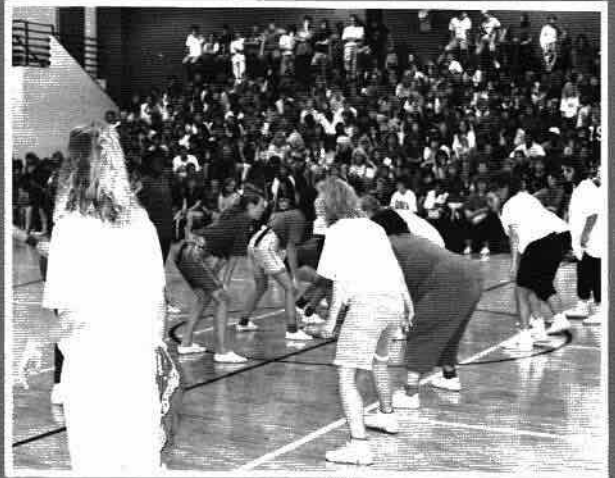

North Jackson's homecoming game against Courtland was most unforgettable considering the tepees, the flaming emblem of "NJ," and the beautiful Homecoming Court.

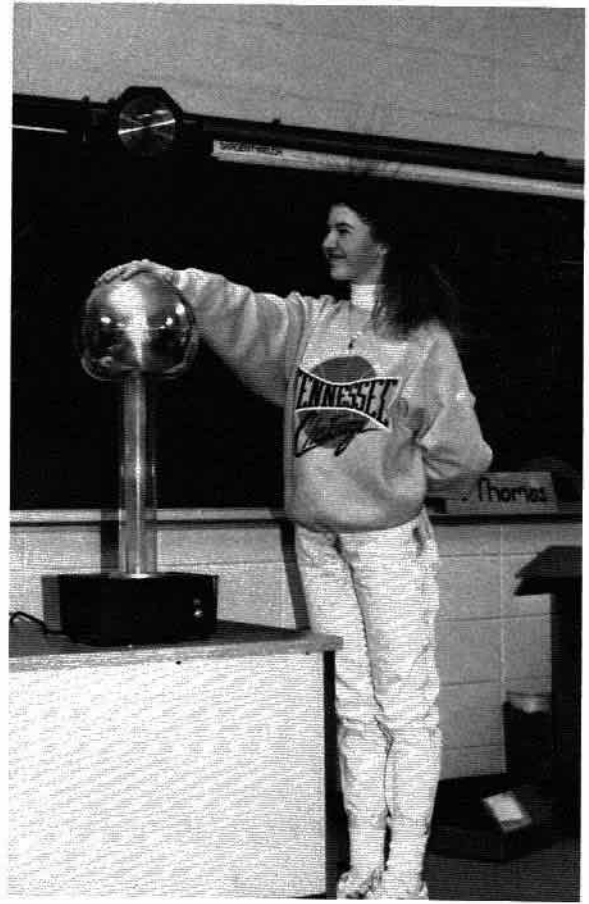

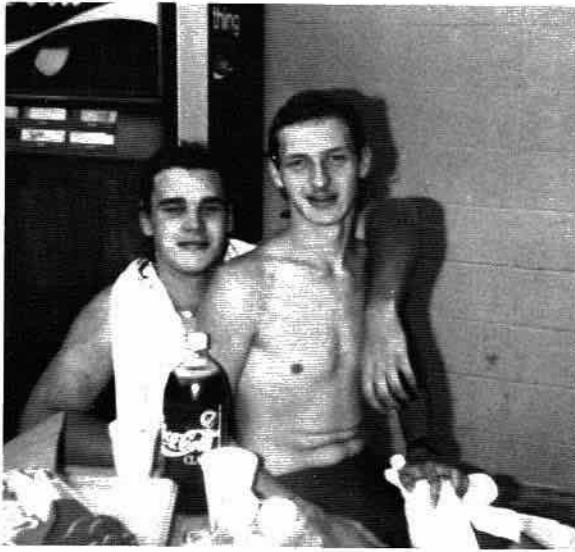

Homecoming brought out excellent participation from the student body. Powder-Puff Football was a big hit. And isn't Wade cute?

Upon sponsoring the Voice of Democracy Essay Contest, the Veterans of Foreign Wars presented Mr. Harding with a United States Flag which flew over Washington, D.C. The VFW also presented Mr. Allred and Mr. Harding with plaques showing their appreciation for participating in the Voice of Democracy program.

Through all the hair-raising adventures we go on, there is always a certain feeling of togetherness. It is this feeling that will carry us on through life.

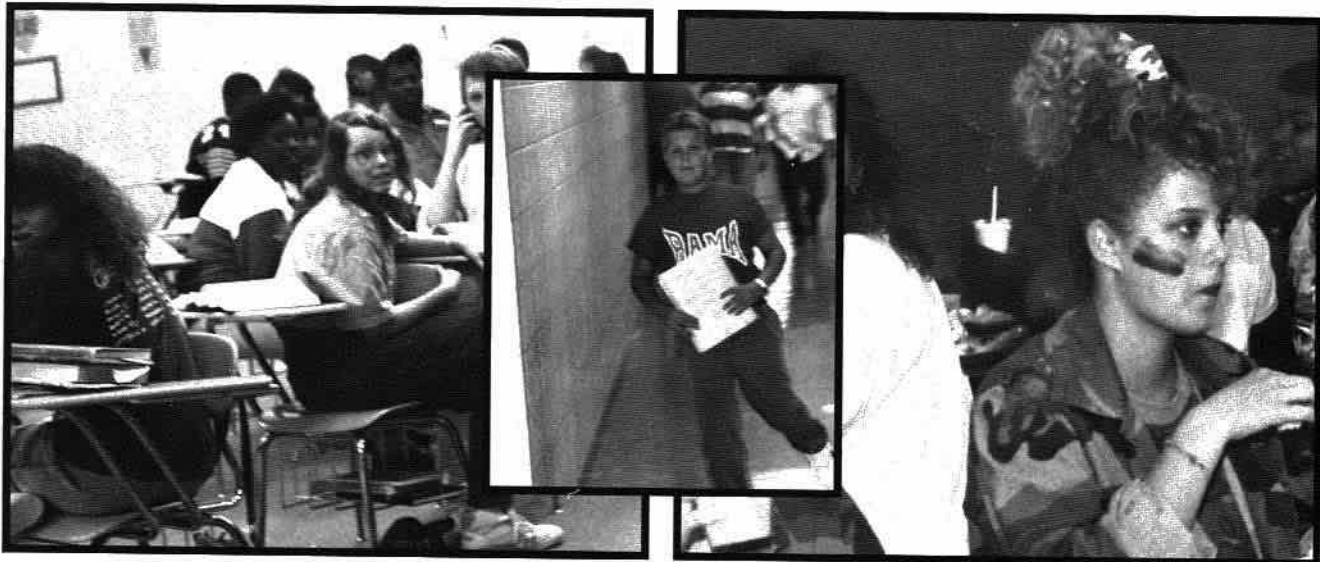

The juniors are a unique group. Who knows what possesses them to do the things they do!

Class of '91

These two young ladies provided us with some interesting attire, as well as some curious expressions.

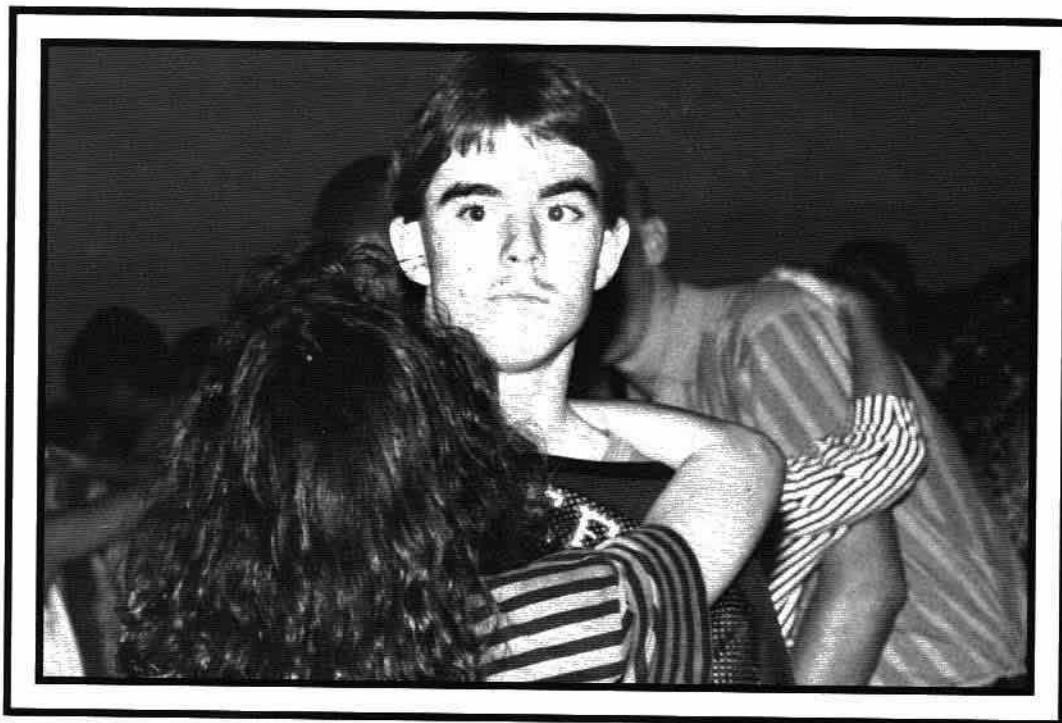

The sophomores made their presence known in the classroom, in the halls, and in the cafeteria, too.

Class of '92

At the dances, however, they seem to fit in perfectly.

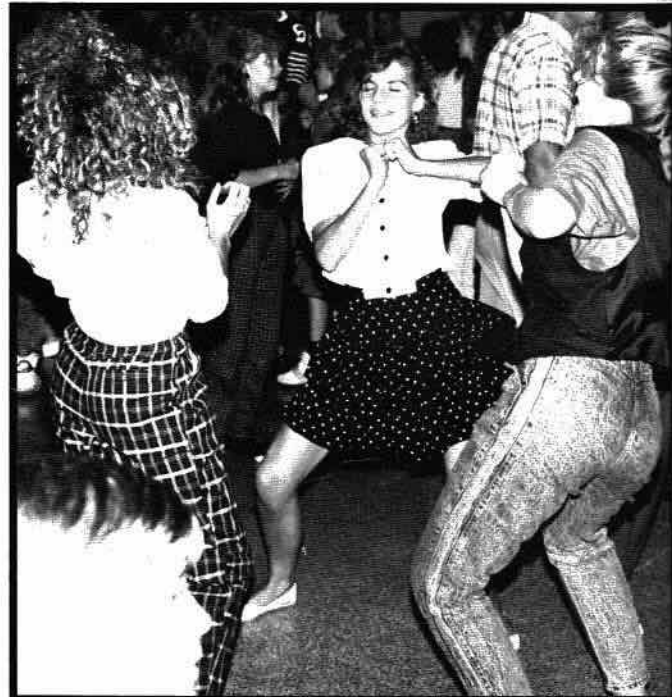

The freshmen promise us a very interesting future. Thank goodness we'll be gone!

But seriously, people like Leigh and Renee will be sure to lead future students — somewhere!

Class
'93

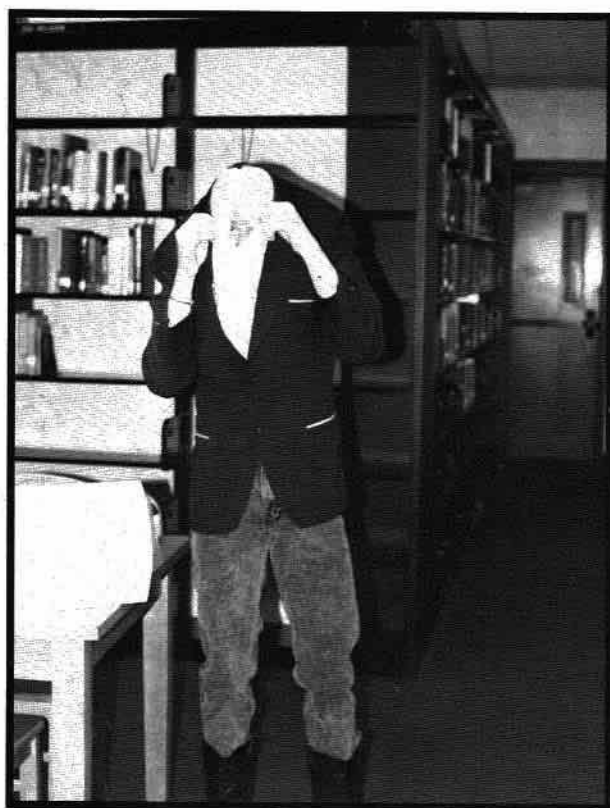

Mrs. Thomas' physics classes had tons of fun designing their own egg-drop containers. We'll never forget the bizarre trip to UAH where we placed 3rd and 4th.

The English department had a very busy school year. The juniors, between reading novels and writing research papers, put on display an excellent literary museum.

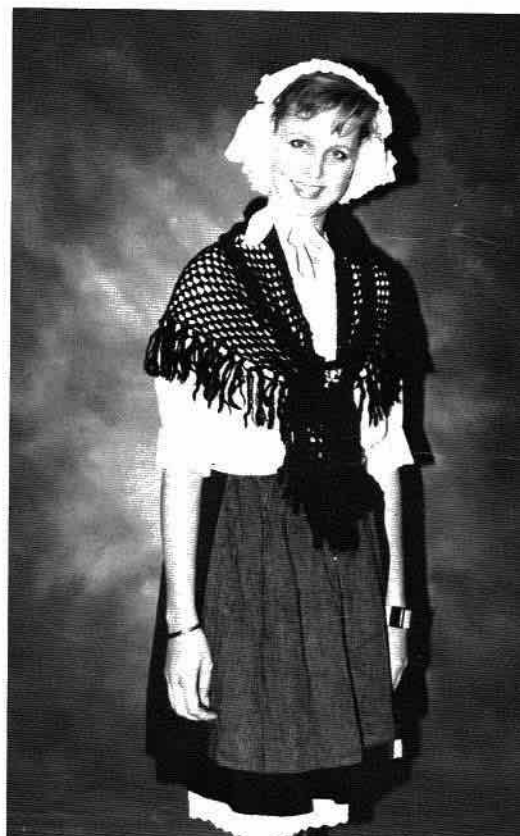

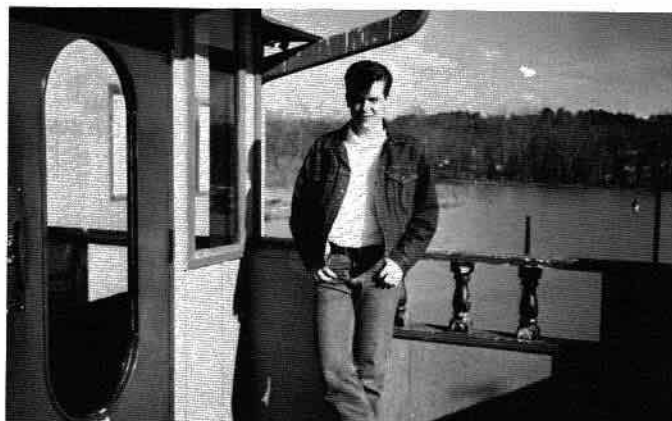

These students greatly enjoyed getting out of class for an hour to stand motionless while hundreds of peers stared curiously at them.

The nightmare continued as the juniors displayed the museum for the public at the PTO meeting that same night.

Our foreign exchange students, Elizabeth, Murella, Jose, and Muriel, introduced us to many new styles and customs. Whereas, we have all become close friends. Thank you for the pleasant memories that you have given us — we'll never forget you!

Remember Yesterday . . .

The freshman year is a big challenge. As freshmen we begin a new cycle of life. The walls we built to support our lives have disappeared, and now we must reconstruct and improve those walls for our future. Amidst this change, we must endure the loss of old friendships and celebrate the arrival of new friends. Furthermore, we must improvise and adjust old methods to deal with new teachers. Somberly, we must face the challenges ahead of us, and succeed. We, the 1989-90 freshmen, will look back on this year and Remember Yesterday.

Remember Yesterday . . .

We thought only of the last bell of the day. Our beginning year was frightening and difficult; but, it was a great learning experience. We learned to live with the jokes everyone else made. So what? We are the class of 1992! We will be the very first class to have gone to NJHS for four years. We Remember Yesterday. We remember being the new kids, starting at the bottom of the ladder. But not anymore, we have graduated from adolescence. We are now one year closer to being the first class to pass completely through North Jackson High School. Yes, we Remember Yesterday.

Remember Yesterday . . .

As we each walked hand in hand, our junior year came to an end. The memories of our first prom, class rings and friends will always remain in our hearts. As we strive to be seniors, we must patiently await our day. For life goes not backward, nor tarries with yesterday. Although we look forward to another year, we will always Remember Yesterday.

Outstanding Seniors

What makes these Seniors outstanding?

Each of these seniors was determined to be "outstanding" by the teaching staff of North Jackson. They based their decision on many factors; including personality, academic achievement, and school and community service. Their goal was to select 10 seniors who best displayed the spirit of North Jackson . . . pride. To be determined as outstanding among the students of the graduating class of 1990 is indeed high praise.

MOTIVATION

Within us all lies a mighty, unexplored passion.
Each of us has the ability for greatness,
for reaching high above the norm.

It is self-motivation which for all times has driven man to heights he never thought possible . . . which led us to the skies first fluttering precariously then soaring like an eagle to new and distant worlds.

We all possess a certain inner creativity which when fulfilled brings as its reward a satisfaction and personal pride which is unequalled.

Lynn Allison — "When I was young, I didn't know much about life. I'm not saying I know much more about it now than I did then. However, I had no common sense. I would get into mess after mess — at home and at school. Yet, I hung onto school. I used to get up early in the morning and be happy that I was going to school (boy, those were the days). Anyway, I tried to do what my teachers asked of me. Thus, at my sixth grade graduation, I won an achievement award. Note though, that unlike many of my graduating classmates, I did not have to give a speech.

So, here I am a senior. What happened? My common sense has finally developed. I have won several certificates of merit in my underclass grades. I suppose I've achieved something over the years. North Jackson High School has helped me to finally make a name for myself. Oh, but guess what! I have to give a speech!

Brendon Holkem is a very nice person. The thing you have to understand about him is that he is very smart. So smart, that he prepares for the future, yesterday. He understands the need for friends. Thus, he writes to complete strangers from varied places, in case his car breaks down or he gets lost out in unknown realms. Brendon's only problem is his handwriting. He never learned how to write the letter "s," which makes correspondence with strangers difficult. But, that's OK. We forgive him. We love him anyway. Why? That's what we haven't quite figured out yet. But we will! Maybe it's his wonderful phrases like "Go figure" or "wanker." In any case, we couldn't have made it without the leadership of our nice salutatorian. Who else can keep the party going but Brendon???

WE'RE Busting OUT

emember Yesterday . . . Graduation has quickly come and the preparation has been a time to remember always.

Looking back, remember yesterday when we were still in grammar school. Doesn't seem that long ago when we were all scared to start the seventh grade at the old high schools. Since then, we have grown closer together, and even matured some.

Now, as seniors, we are leaving those times to enter a new world. No longer will we have the faculty pushing us forward, we are on our own. Now, there are new fears to face. Therefore, we must strive to always be the best we can be.

Although we are not the first graduating class at NJHS, we are the first of a totally new generation. As we leave our alma mater, remember only the good times and never linger on the bad.

Dana Gulley

ON THE WING OF EAGLES

Let the majestic abilities of the eagle inspire you to loftier heights.

See like an eagle. Set your sights on the important things that help you achieve your goals.

Fly like an eagle. Use your parents, teachers, and friends to help you make your hopes and dreams come true.

Spread your wings and dare to fly. Take off on a journey of new experiences that will be full of achievement and accomplishment.

Just like riding on the wings of eagles, you have within you the ability to make your dreams a reality.

Prom 1990

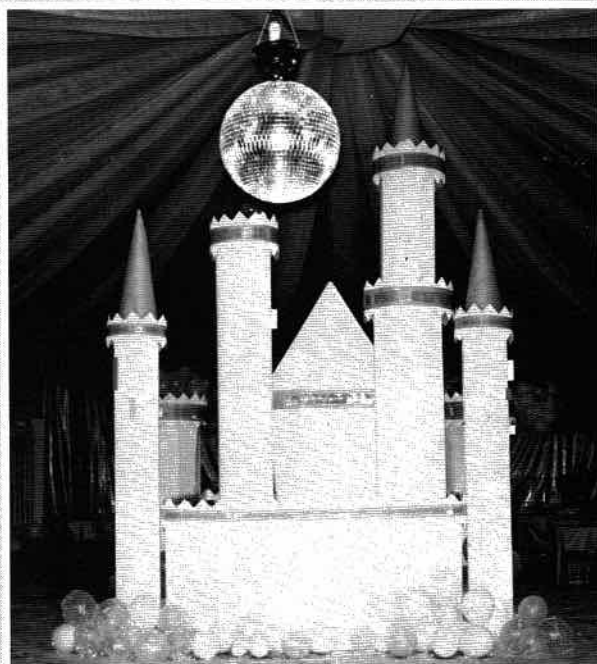

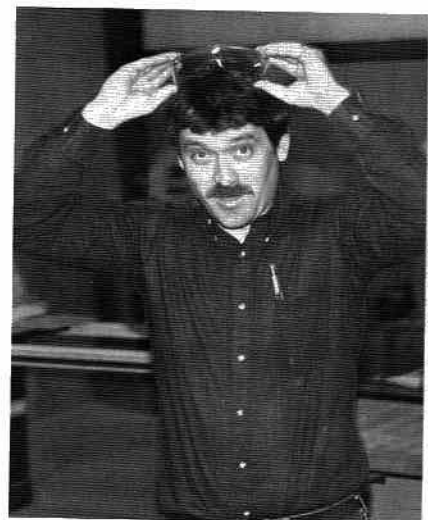

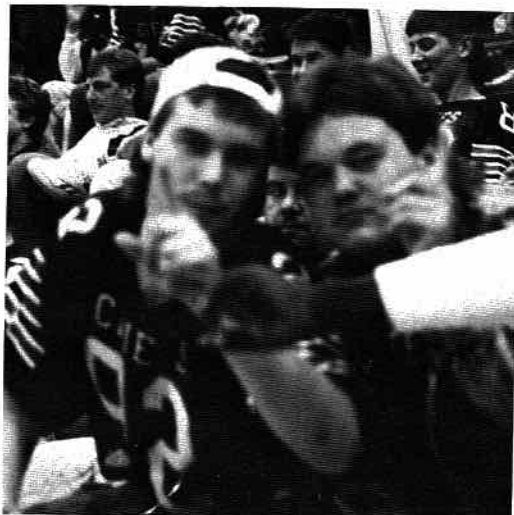

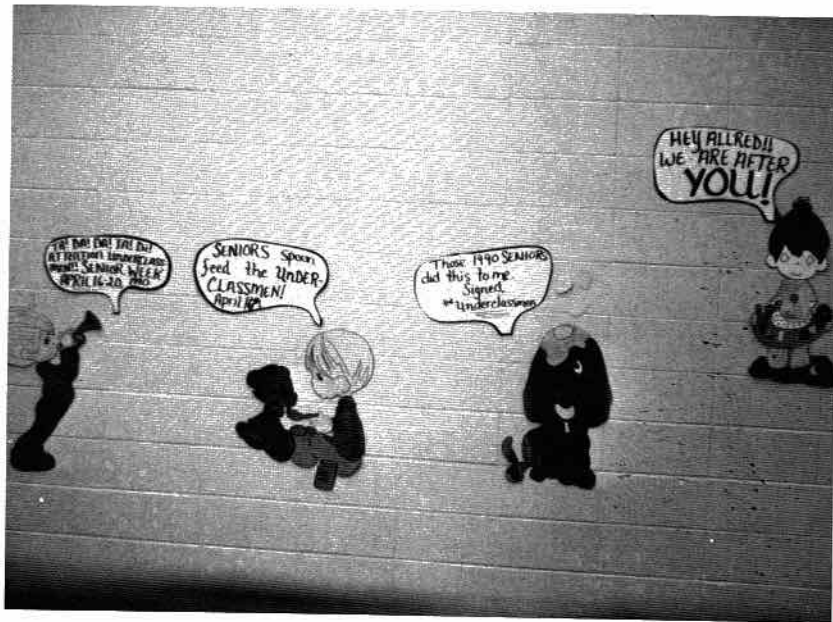

The 1990 Jr.-Sr. Prom is one we will never forget. Every time we enter the gym in the days to come, our thoughts will be of the beautiful castle and Connie Raulston as she was named the Prom Queen. The theme was most suitable — I Remember You!

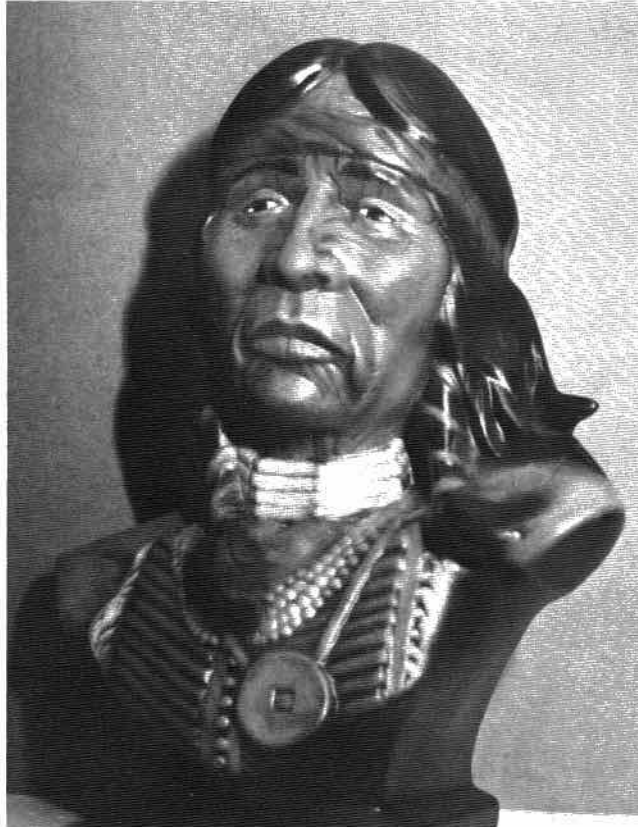

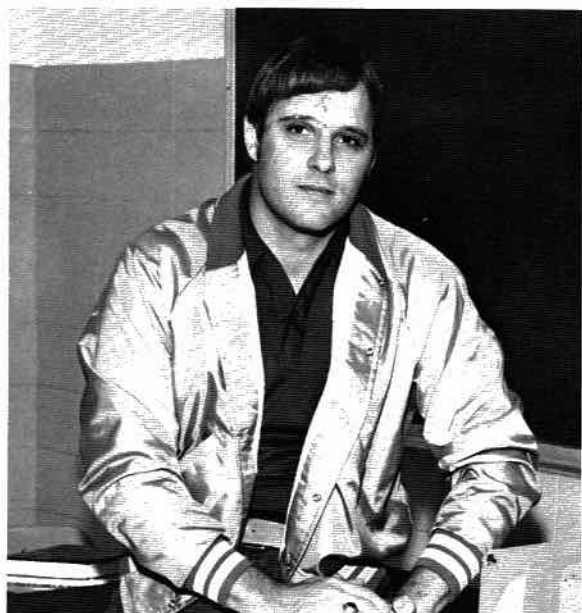

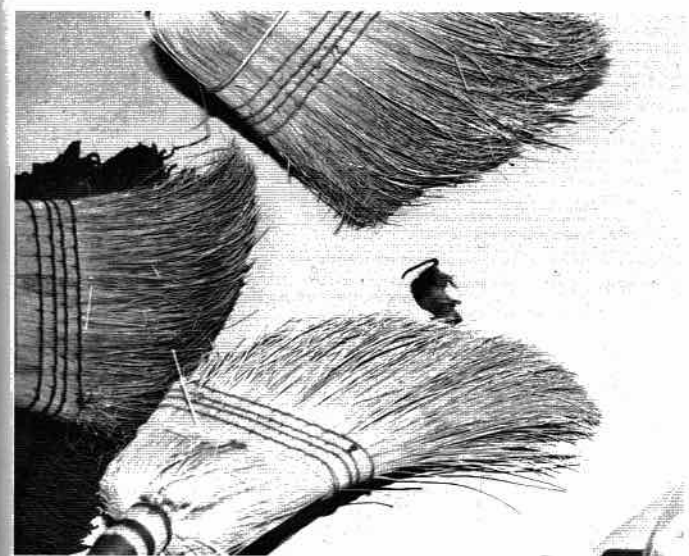

While being somewhat warm in the gym, many of us found time to sit, looking cool and collected, for snapshots. (Of course, Jacob just has to be different.) And to top it all off, Alan Mantooth was named the Prom King.

Friends and fellow classmates,

In the years to come, as you look back through this yearbook; hopefully, pleasant memories will be brought to mind. This school year will always be remembered as the year that a great North Jackson High School slogan was born — PRIDE IN NORTH JACKSON.

It has been our pleasure to serve as co-editors for the second volume of the TOMAHAWK. It is the wish of the TOMAHAWK staff that all of your years will be filled with joy, happiness, and peace; and that you will always REMEMBER YESTERDAY.

With PRIDE IN NORTH JACKSON HIGH SCHOOL we will always say GO CHIEFS GO!

Sincerely,

Mark McCrary
