"Class Poem"

"Yes, it's forward on!" our future says,
 "We can't linger no more, we must look ahead."
 But it's hard to go on and so often find
 We're leaving a wonderful part of our life behind.
 Now we hate to leave, but there's no regret
 Nor can we ever look back or ever forget
 Though the years are gone, our memories remain
 And through these we'll know we've profited and gained
 Now we're to venture on to a new kind of life
 The challenges are great, but our courage is strong
 Our determination is high, we can't go wrong!
 So look out world, because you are going to find
 You grew your best leaders in Sixty-Nine!

Class Prophecy

One Saturday afternoon with nothing else to do, we decided to build a Super-sonic car. Since we had no experience with this kind of work, we made the mistake of putting the wrong part in the wrong place at the wrong time, and the car blew up in our face. When the smoke cleared, we found ourselves in Higdon, Ala., in the year of 1969. Walking around we found members of our class doing strange things.

Linda Sue Brown was raising thoroughbred horses for the Kentucky Derby.

Gary Campbell as a coach for the Higdon Sunday League.

Danny Gass was President of the Tootsie Roll Factory specializing in "Tootsie Pops."

Nancy Green was Higdon's most popular Veterinarian specializing in Squirrels.

Sheila Higdon had her own comedy show on T.V.

Doyce Holman had just invented a new formula for plant food.

Calvin Holt was editor of Playboy Magazine.

Ivan Knight and Joe McGuire had just opened Higdon's new F.B.I. Agency.

Larry Laney, we were told, was on a Safari in Africa Lion hunting.

Peggy McGuire, after fourteen years of engagement, had just set the date for six years later.

Connie Moore was taking Kitty's place on Gunsmoke.

Mickey Moore had just been elected President of the Mickey Mouse fan club.

Shirley Nelson did the art work on Doyce's fertilize sacks.

Santina Spurgeon was writing the Love Lorn column for the Higdon Times.

Bobby Terrell was coach of the famous Globe Trotters.

Sally Walker had just gotten a law passed saying that Jackson was no longer a dry county.

Ricky West was Higdon's leading Dentist specializing in False Teeth.

Calvin Whitley and Lola Gass Marr are Higdon's only Marriage Counselors.

Stacy Whetzell, who always wanted to fly, now has his own Toy Airplane Factory.

And then we saw ourselves:

Teddy Thomas now a General in the army had just returned to the States to make a guest appearance on the Porky Pig Show.

Michael Culpepper is the starting water boy for the Green Bay Packers.

Joan Dobbins now a famous camel trainer, is working on a way to get them to fly.

Then everything went black. When we awoke, we were back in Higdon 69 with our car blown to pieces.
