Dedication to Mr. Jim Kirby

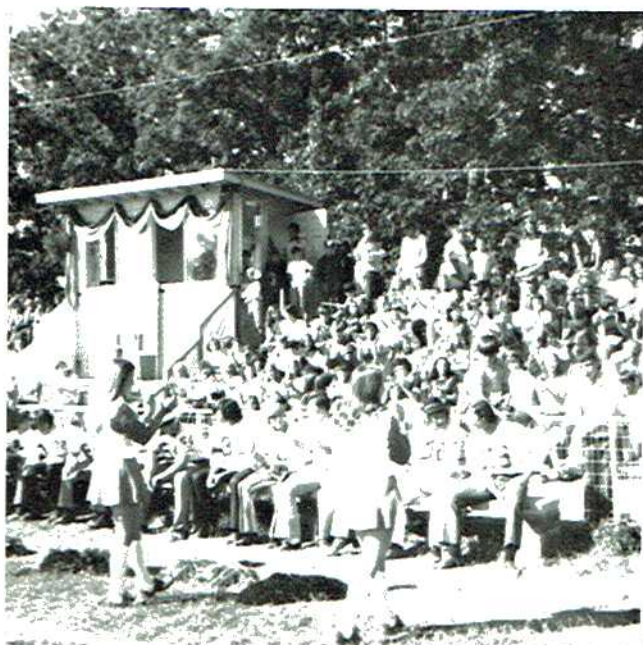

We proudly dedicate the 1974 CAMERONIAN to a gentleman who has inspired and encouraged us by his example as a teacher, coach, and friend — Mr. Jim Kirby

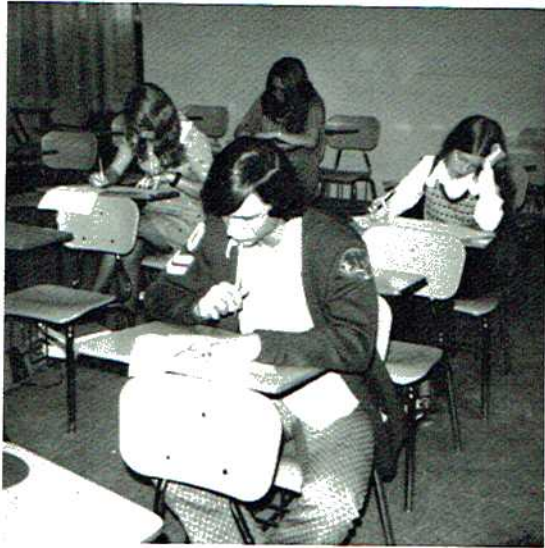

On these and the following pages, we have attempted to capture several different views of the year 1974 at North Sand Mountain: student activities and teacher involvement; people helping each other as well as helping themselves; the feeling of school spirit and togetherness along with the quiet times of lonely concentration and, above all, the lighter side of the happy days at N.S.M.

"All right, Dobbins, You've got two minutes to leave town."

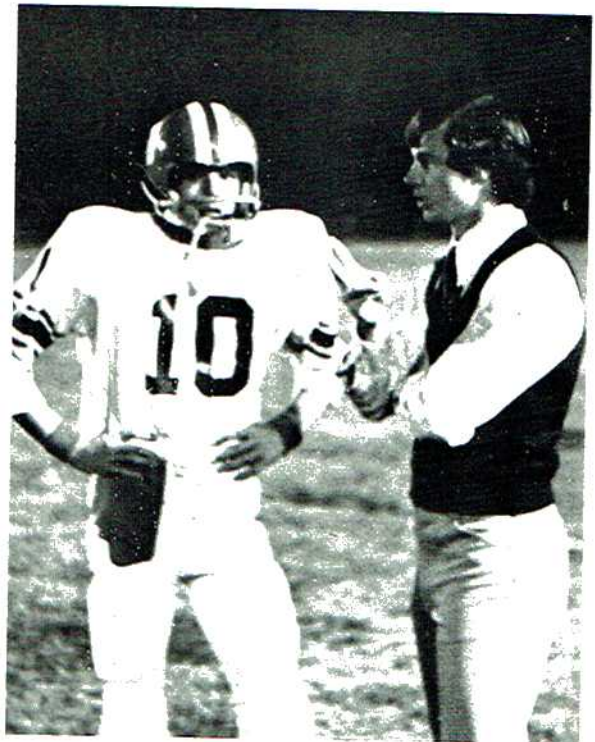

"It's working!"

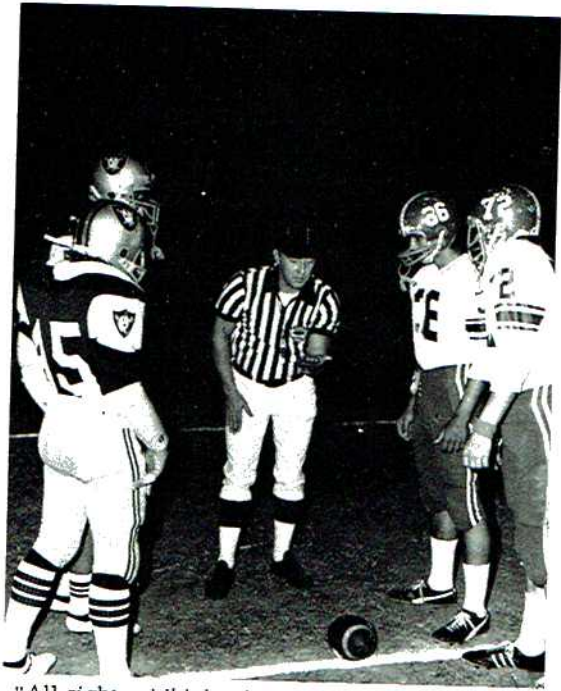

"You shove me in here and I'll scream!"

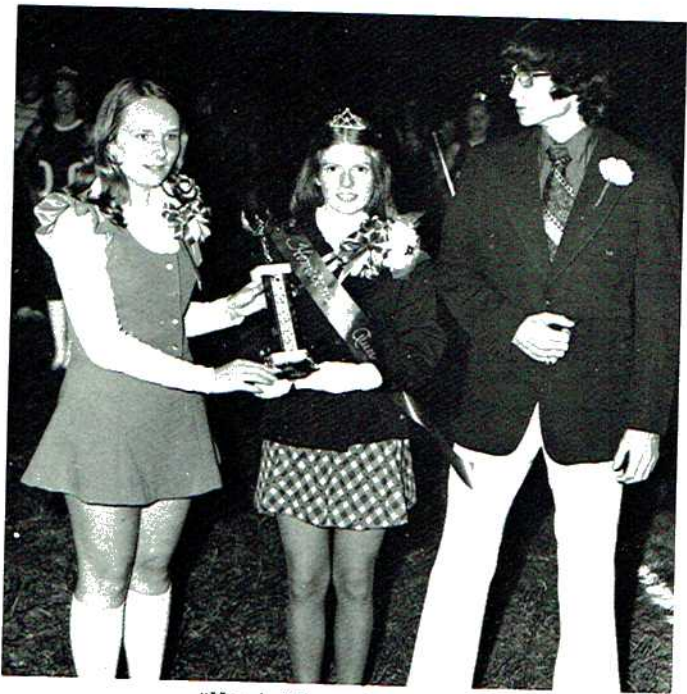

"Beep, beep! Here comes the Mop Bucket Express!"

Beware of girls with three hands!

"All right. Which wise guy stole the quarter?"

"Hey! Where is my trophy?"

"Do you think anyone will notice the difference in our ages?"

Only his hairdresser knows for sure.

Did you see the fight between Mike and Alan?

North Sand Mountain Is . . .

... a place to achieve your goals.

... a place to further your education.

... a place to serve others.

... a place to express yourself.

... a place to nourish thyself.

... a place to overcome your fears.

... a place for lovers.

... a place to make new friends.

... a place to improve student relations.

... a place to be yourself.

... a place where greater heights can be reached.

... a place to help others in their time of need.
