CLASS PROPHECY

Aboard the plane, destined for Hawaii to join my husband who is in the Air Force and is stationed there, I Jean Maples, pick up an old photograph book that I haven't looked at in ages, but brought along to help pass the time.

What do you suppose is the first picture I come across? Yes, the smiling faces of the graduating class of 1955. As I look at these familiar faces, I start remembering all the good times we had back at P. R. V. H. S. Does it seem possible that ten years can pass so fast?

Johnny Carden, is owner of the largest drive-in theater in North Alabama, which is located at Trenton. He drives a green and red Cadillac with hinges on it in order to turn the curves in Paint Rock Valley.

David Prince, told me on his Christmas card, that he is playing outfield with the St. Louis Cardinals earning $80,000 a year.

There's Jean Humphrey, head astronomist at Mt. Palomar Observatory, preparing for the first flight into outer space to the moon.

Before I left home, I visited the famous Princeton Hospital which, incidentally, is owned by Odean Smith and her husband. And guess who was a patient there? None other than Loretta Hall. She was in an accident while en route to Montgomery, Alabama, where she and her husband make their home and she is secretary to Governor Steve Bishop.

The boy who was always interested in the study of the government, Harold Mullican, is president of the United States and has as his Secretary Virginia Brewer.

Oh, yes, Barbara Prince told me in one of her letters that she is head nurse at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, where her husband is a Doctor.

The girl who always had a smile for everyone, Evelyn Gifford, is married and living in Chicago where she is working for a big law firm.

Jimmie Henshaw who finally fulfilled her one desire is driving a trailer truck on the route from Old Mexico to Canada.

Jean Jones is owner of the largest flower nursery in the United States located on the Skyline Farms.

And that bashful, blackeyed, J. W. Swafford has certainly proved well for himself. He is president of the Goodyear Rubber Company and is on his way to being a millionaire.

It seems that Paul Henshaw didn't graduate from basketball when he left high school. He completed a four-year scholarship with the University of Kentucky. Paul is now coaching the Vanderbilt Commodores.

Oh, yes, Clyde Simmons, I saw when I was home, is making good money as owner of a large grocery-cafe in Gurley, Alabama.

Billy Joe Fowler, evidently, has surprised us all. He is Professor of Law at the famous Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut.

And last, but certainly not forgotten by me, is Pauline Fanning, who has become a second Florence Nightingale to the United States by her splendid work as a nurse at a large California Hospital.

As night draws close and my eyelids grow heavy, I feel an intense sadness in my heart and I feel a longing to return to Paint Rock Valley High School for a reunion with my classmates and live some of the old days over because they hold priceless memories. As I drop off to dreamland, the words of our Alma Mater echo in my mind truer and more meaningful than ever, "Faithful, loyal, firm and true, heart bound to heart will beat, year by year the ages through, until in Heaven we meet."

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIORS OF 55

The Last Will and Testament of The Seniors of '55:

Jimmie Henshaw wills her friendliness to Sue Hogue.

Virginia Brewer wills her hillbilly voice to Joyce Bishop.

Clyde Simmons wills his ability to "bench warm" to Amos Jackson.

Harold Mullican wills his ability to play basketball to Robert Henshaw.

Jean Jones wills her "sweet disposition" to Deanna Ellis.

Pauline Fanning wills her "quietness" to Lillian Simmons.

David Prince wills his ability to get blondes to Carlos Johnson.

J. W. Swafford wills his ability to get along with teachers to Claude Langston.

Barbara Prince wills her ability to get tall, handsome boyfriends to Geraldine Wade.

Odean Smith wills her ability to ride in Fords to Martha Hicks.

Paul Henshaw wills his "Lucky Strikes" to Mr. Hicks, who smokes "Phillip Morris."

Johnny Carden wills his height to Louise Cantrell so she can find a man who won't step on her.

Loretta Hall wills her ability to get a steady boyfriend to Joanna Ellis.

Jean Maples wills her ability to keep diamonds to Margaret Gifford.

Steve Bishop wills his title, "Romeo" to Wayne Sisk.

Billy Joe Fowler wills his three English Classes under Miss Skelton to Bogart Bufford.

Evelyn Gifford wills her "yankee voice" to her cousin, Curtis Humphrey, who gave her his "hillbilly voice."

Jean Humphrey wills her ability to talk fast to Betty Heatherington.

To the faculty we will the following:

To Mr. Hicks: An intercommunication system so he can always be found in the office.

To Miss Toney: A private secretary to help with all the work that is placed in her care.

To Mr. Otts: An alarm clock so he can get to the lunch room on time.

To Miss Mathews: A brand new Chevrolet.

To Mr. Deerman: His old teaching place when he gets out of the army.

To Mr. Goza: All the girls physical education equipment except basketball, volleyball, softball, badminton, ping pong, leaving paper dolls, erasers, paper wads, and empty coke bottles.

To Miss Skelton: A soap box to stand on so she can be clearly seen as well as heard.

To Mrs. Clarke: A soundproof typing room

To the classes we will the following:

To the Senior II's: Our "good looks."

To the Senior I's: Our "big mouths."

To the Junior III's: Our ability to study.

To the Junior II's: Our old school books.

To the Junior I's: Our ability to become Seniors.
