Class Prophecy

As we, Mary Brooks and Wyvonie Hughes, sit in our beauty salon at Skyline we begin to think back over the years at P. R. V. H. S. and wonder what has happened to all our old classmates. Connie Langston, now, Connie Tankersley, walked in and set us up to date on everyone.

Vivian Sims, who has at last changed her name to Mrs. Bill Morris, is now living in Harvey, Illinois.

Johnny Houston has taken Elvis Presley's place.

Donnie Roberts is private secretary for Acme Steel.

Ardonia Hall is enjoying her work in Huntsville. She is now head-scientist of the Redstone Arsenal.

Jimmy Paradise is driving the fastest car in the United States. He is racing on the Indianapolis Speedway.

Donald Fairbanks has the fastest horse in the Kentucky Derby.

John Bishop is playing basketball with the Globe Trotters. They have the best team in the world.

Wayne Satterfield is enjoying success as a mechanic.

Jewell Jackson is secretary of Perfection Gear.

Dorothy and Ralph Sisk have four children. They are owners of a gold mine in Alaska.

Charles Brewer, now owner of the only cotton gin in Princeton.

Ray Davis is happily married to Marilyn Monroe.

Roger Jones has taken John Hall's job working with the State cleaning out the ditches with his hot-'55 Ford.

After ten years training Benton Sisk has finally become a preacher. He is Pastor of Bostic Hill Church.

Una Faye Shafer will soon join her husband in Germany where they will live for the next thirty years.

Reece Money followed his brother's footsteps and married a girl from Huntland. They live happily at Princeton.

Margaret Henshaw is living in Hawaii where Paul has been stationed for the last five years.

Betty and Donnie Miller are living in Chattanooga where they spent their honeymoon.

Carolyn Cagle has decided to make her home in Huntland with her husband Ray Farmer.

Wilma Smith is happily married to J. A. Parton, whom she dated during her last years at Princeton.

Billie Worthen is now modeling for a Chicago Fashion Show.

Linda Miller is now secretary at Miller's Grocery Store at Princeton.

Luther Tankersley has finally reached the top of his comedian work. He appears on channel 9 every Tuesday night at 12:30.
