PANORAMA

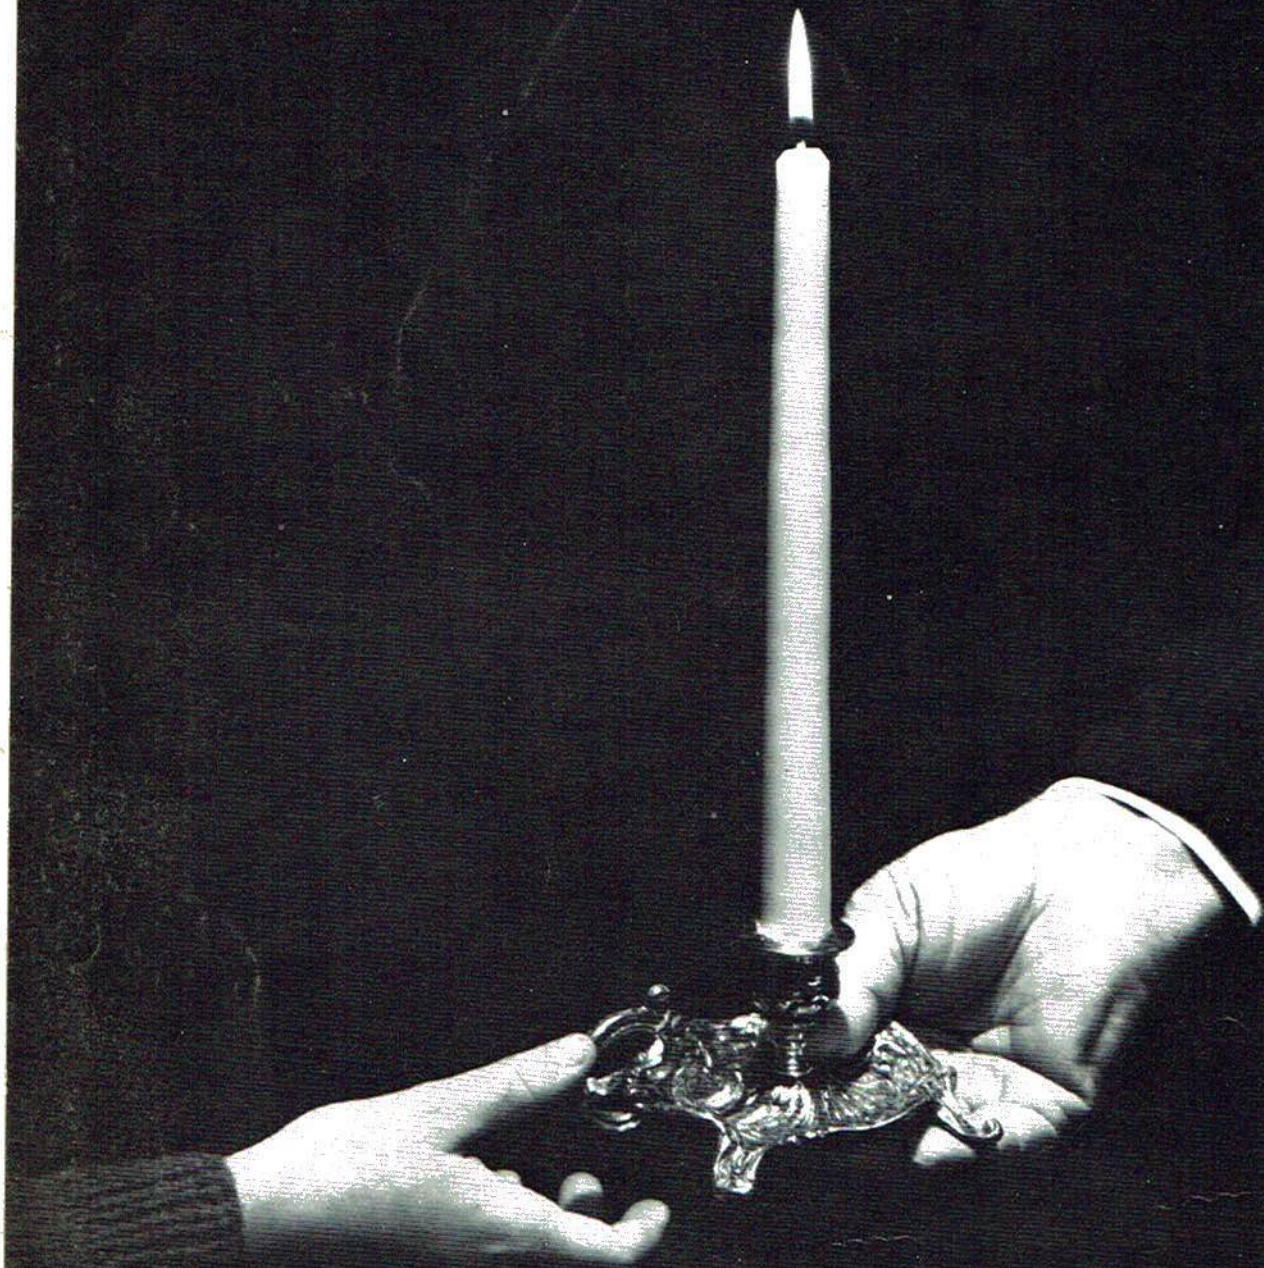

Dedication

The Senior Class of Paint Rock Valley High School, Princeton, Alabama, dedicates this 1962 volume of our school yearbook, THE PANORAMA, to our principal, Mr. V. C. Payne.

We appreciate Mr. Payne's work with us these last three years of high school. We appreciate his patience, guidance and helpful spirit and shall always strive to reach the high standards and goals he has challenged us with.

Chapter 3 THE BEGINNINGS OF THE UNITED STATES

The roots of American government reach deep into the past. One way of government did not suddenly appear after being set at the work of solving political situations, and Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegian, and other European methods of government were not foreign to the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest numbers. And it was the English who set the pattern for the thirteen colonies that stretched for 1,500 miles along the Atlantic board. These early pioneers who shared the wilderness and frontiers of the East and had to look out their own way for the future in the New World. But they came here in search of greater freedom and they brought with them the political and social ideas of the Old World. We shall see how the principles of these beginnings developed through time and space. We shall see how the principles of these beginnings developed through time and space. We shall see how the principles of these beginnings

SETTLERS AT WORK

Early Americans had to live together to survive, or they would not survive. This was called "government of men by men," the beginning of our government of today.

of which we are to be found today — courts, lawyers, juries, sheriffs, coroners. And all of these were well known in England long before the first English settlers arrived in America.

(1) The First Concepts of Limited Government and Civil Liberties. These concepts, which have been the basis of limited government and civil liberties, were first developed in England. That is, that government is limited in what it may do, and that the people have the right to that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215; the Petition of Right in 1628; and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

(2) The Concept of Representative Government. A third, equally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. First conceived there and later developed in England the

We thank each advertiser for your support of our yearbook! We urge the students, parents and faculty members to patronize our advertisers.

We thank Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas and all others who have in any way co-operated with us in helping to publish this book. We are grateful to you, our reader, and hope you will be reminded of happy days at Paint Rock Valley High school.

THANK GOODNESS WE ARE THROUGH WITH THE ANNUAL!
