

The 1975 Senior Class of Paint Rock Valley High School, Princeton, Alabama, dedicates this 1975 edition of our yearbook, the Panorama, in memory of Miss Mary Sue Toney, a lady who gave over 40 years of her life to the students of Paint Rock Valley High School.

We feel that the poem below best describes Miss Toney as we knew her. This poem was written by a fellow co-worker and a former student of hers.

As Miss Mary Sue Toney lived through the years
She treated others kindly and caused few tears,
She did much good along the way.
She helped someone every day.

She was not one to waste precious time,
Nor did she grumble or whine,
As far as earth is from the skies,
Miss Mary Sue Toney above all pettiness did rise.

Sometimes her discipline we did not understand,
For when she corrected us we would just as soon have ran,
From behind those icy eyes and dreaded stares,
Dwelted a genuine concern and a heart full of cares.

She was concerned for the hardship of others,
Be them friend or foe, they were sisters and brothers,
At mistake or trouble she never sneered,
But anyone's ethical accomplishment she always cheered,

In her life she let not the good be marred,
And she let no duty seem to hard,
In all her responsibility she bravely did her best,
And then to God she left the rest.

Now I ask you, as I think she would,
Are you doing with your life what she thought you should,
For as her earthly life has ended, and rest beneath the flowers,
I'm sure she's still concerned with what we do with this life of ours.

A minimalist line drawing of a tree with a large circular sun or moon behind it. The tree is composed of several thin, overlapping lines that form its trunk and branches, extending from the bottom left towards the top right. The sun or moon is a simple circle positioned in the upper left quadrant, partially overlapping the tree's branches. The overall style is clean and graphic.

The Senior Class of Paint Rock Valley High School 1975, wish to take this opportunity to thank all who have contributed in any way to make it possible for us to publish this volume of the Panorama. Without your help and contributions we could not have completed this project. We wish for each of you a very successful and prosperous year.

To our teachers and fellow classmates and friends, we say thanks for your patience and understanding. You have made this year a pleasant and happy one for all of us.
