Class Prophecy

On this day of May 16, 1962, I, Glenn Burkhalter, as editor of the "Pisgah Daily Blare" have made a special effort to bring to those interested a report of the graduates of '52.

If any of these reports are incorrect, lay the blame on my reporters or the source from which the information was received.

I shall proceed to read the latest edition of my paper which is as follows:

Ellen Adams has gone on board for life with Popeye (Leland) the Sailor.

Mabel Allen has won the title of "Mabel the Milk Maid."

Nelda Hollaway, Faye Goolesby, and Christine Beard have a success in the Metropolitan Opera.

Alton Dunn, because of his ability to argue, has become Pleasant View's most noted lawyer.

Maxine Fields has won her wings and is soaring after her fat little pilot.

Shirley Hicks is an old-maid school teacher at Lizard Lope, but is still trying to raise Cotton as a hobby.

John Woods, a traveling salesman, is still growing or at least, his head is coming through his hair.

The noted Missionary, Nelzene Edmonds, has just returned after a five-year stay in Africa.

Geneva Gamble is now employed at the Brown Laundry & Cleaners, Special Diaper Service available.

To those interested in books, the latest best seller entitled "How to get by the Teacher and Graduate" edited by Billy Griffith, Jr. Maynor, and Brenton Shavors, is now on sale at the Maynor Book Store owned by Harvey D. Maynor.

Nina Grace Character, with Christine Horton as her assistant, has taken over Pisgah's Kindergarten.

Wilma Carlton, Geneva Satterfield, Juanita Westmoreland, Beula Lee Moore, Jewel Dean Ott, and Joan Putman, whose hobby is "Hubby-Hunting," are now taking a course under the direction of Marie Tiffin.

Arlon Traylor and Ralph Wicks, professional basketball players, have had the honor of playing a game in Madison Square Garden.

Peggy Roach and Jeanene Bowman, stars of the recent Sadie Hawkins Day, caught the subjects (Creswell and Peek) they have been chasing since '52. Sadie Hawkins is now a National Holiday.

FLASH! Latest bulletin! Captains Ivan Hancock and Bobby Day have just returned from the first successful expedition to the moon in their space ship "Ajax 8."

Janice Cox is an old-maid school teacher at "Buzzard's Roost," because there is a law, it seems against having husbands by the GROSS.

Glenda Williams is writing a Lovelorn column for the Pisgah Daily Blare. Assisting her is the very competent Erma Jean Hancock.

Sad news was received by this paper of the burning of the home of the lovable old class-mate, Winnell Starkey.

Powell Marona, an every day flirt of the old school days is now making a study of the female species of the human race at the Erlanger Hospital at Mt. Olive. So far all he can say is "WOMEN, PHOOEY!"

The Ladies-Ready-to-Wear Shop, owned and operated by Joyce Gant and Dora Lee Tinker is now ready for business in Pisgah, two blocks from the famous "Change-Your-Looks Beauty Salon owned by Clara Roden.

Lucille Thornhill is head nurse at the County Hospital located at Rosalie.

Lois Kuykendall, recently bound in Holy Matrimony to Uncle Scrooge McDuck, character in the Donald Duck comic strip has just started her life-long mission of counting money by NICHOLS.

Carl Bain, after successfully leading our class of '52, has been sworn in as President and is leading America but is being driven by his wife, Bobby Satterfield.

A new name has been added to the Government's Payroll, that of Betty Jean Gray who is governess of the President's children. Her hobby is writing Mother Goose Rhymes for them.

Gay Nell Wright, youngest promoter of Women's Wrestling has just made a success of her newest wrestler, "LOPIN'-LIZ THE LADY!"

AH! Yes History does repeat itself. Here it is in the headlines of the latest paper, "Lois York, celebrated Heroine of the Atomic War, is to be given the title of the second 'Joan of Arc,' at a banquet given in her honor tonight."

This gives you a vivid account of my old classmates of '52 and may the future be as kind to them as the past has been.

Class Of '52's History

In the summer of '40 when the doors of Pisgah High swung open for the first time on the present class of '52, there were five of the members now in the present group. They were Brenton Shavers, Beulah Moore, Shirley Hicks, Junior and Harvey Maynor.

As we came through the years others joined us. Betty Jean Gray entered in the third grade, from Rome, Georgia. Clara Roden moved from the Sublett School to join us in the fourth grade, Marie Tiffin transferred from Scottsboro City School in the fifth grade, Dora Lee Tinker and Christine Horton came from the Sublett School in the sixth grade. Ellen Adams, Glenda Williams, Lois Kuykendall, Alton Dunn, Nelda Holloway, and Billy Griffith from the Pleasant View School became members in the seventh grade. Janice Cox transferred from Chattanooga, Tennessee in the eighth grade.

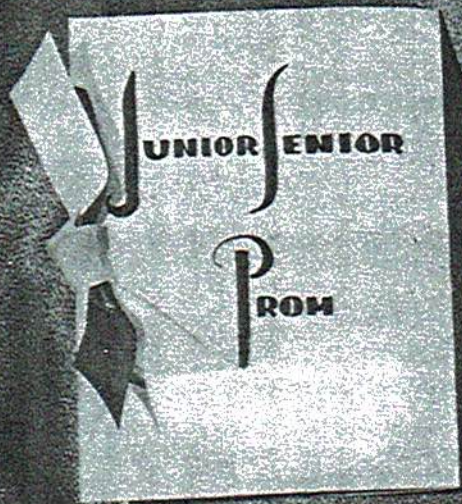

As we entered our sophomore year we were joined by several new members. Among these were Jeanene Bowman, Carl Bain, Joyce Gant, Faye Goolesby, Ralph Wicks, Peggy Roach, Bobby Day, Lucille Thornhill, Juanita Westmoreland, and Jewell Ott from Rosalie Junior High; Glenn Burkhalter, Wilma Carlton, Maxine Fields, and Geneva Gamble from Flat Rock Junior High; Lois York, Nelzene Edmonds and Arlon Traylor from Dutton Junior High; Gay Nell Wright, Bobbie and Geneva Satterfield from Chattanooga; Powell Marona from Bryant; Erma Jean and Ivan Hancock from Macadonia Junior High. We were very glad to have Miss Dema Veal and Mr. David Johnson as our class sponsors.

In our Junior year, with Mrs. Jewel Wheeler as our class sponsor, we presented the class play, "A Pair of Country Kids." The following spring the Junior-Senior Banquet was held in honor of the Seniors. Christine Beard was a new member to the class in the Junior year.

John Woods, our only veteran joined us in the Junior year. Mable Allen from Stevenson High School also joined us in our Junior year.

With our Senior year beginning on July 23, 1951 we were joined by Winnell Starkey. Joan Putman transferred from Gurley during the first semester. We have as our class sponsor, Mrs. Lillian Arnold, who has always been a favorite among the students of Pisgah High. The month of May, when we received our diplomas, will bring to a close three happy and profitable years for the Seniors of '52.
