CLASS PROPHECY

The night was dark and stormy. The air was filled with a feeling of tenseness. Suddenly there was a loud crash. As we rushed to the door we saw emerging from an interplanetary ship, an erect, arresting figure. Imagine our surprise when we were greeted by our first names. Looking closer, we make out the figure to be Lee Don White, a former classmate of ours who has explored the moon for a real estate firm headed by Joe Donald Wright. As we talked on far into the night, we learned a lot of things about what had happened to the rest of our ex-classmates.

Janice Campbell, Roxie Roberts and Doris Bain, the three tallest girls in our class are working for the Bell Telephone Company--putting up wires without climbing the poles.

We were given a vivid picture of Jackie Roberts and J. W. Wheeler sitting on the creek bank, drowning worms.

Orison Henderson, having been inspired by his course in Science, is now trying to cross the honeybee with a lightning bug. So the bee can see to do his work at night.

Dean Griffith, Winifred Rice and Idola Newberry are now very famous after a life's long struggle. They have invented B. B. T. (Bed Bug Terrifier).

Jean Brown and Ruth Carroll are now famous singers in the new night club at Mount Olive, Alabama.

Kenneth Higgins, interested only in bus driving in large cities, is now running a new bus line from Pleasant View to Dutton.

Bruce Thornhill and Reginald Miles, having been interested in engineering for several years, are now well known for their magnificent engineering of doll houses.

Allie Mae Clark makes beautiful dresses for the department store owned by Lillis Wheeler and Barbara McDaniel.

Ruth Williams is very busy these days keeping up with the little "Balls" Bouncing around.

Fred Slater and Jack Nix are exploring the unknown. Jack looking over mountains and Fred under molehills.

Doyce Gunter is now a most successful missionary.

We were not surprised to learn that C. W. Parkus owns Pisgah's most thriving enterprise. Making oversize doors so he can walk in instead of crawl in.

During our conversation we learned that Jo Ann Scott still has her mind in the "Wright" channel.

Betty Bates, Helen Robinson and Thelma McKay are still the beauticians of Blow Gourd.

Glenn Atkins has at long last found his life's desire. But of course he hasn't figured out what it is yet.

Billy Wright and Billy Blancett just couldn't see a nagging wife. So they are living alone, experimenting with bullfrogs and birds.

Shirley Knight and Mary Faye Medlock are still setting bear traps at night. I wonder if their intentions are to catch bears???

Arlon Reece and Ray Wade have combined two great minds and are now making money selling portable shade trees.

We could hardly believe our ears when we were told that Edna Moore and Betty Jean Dobbins are now teachers in the new Pisgah College.

Hazel Edmonds, Ella Jane Hoge and Josephine Matthews, our career girls have secured positions at the Second National Bank, Pisgah, Alabama.

Madge Winters and Ruth Wheeler are still following a most exciting profession. Housekeeping.

And weren't we surprised to hear that Bobbie Hughes and Billy Smith have replaced Wayne Rainy and Lonnie Glossen on the Grand Ole' Opry.

Robert Bowen, Gleason McBryer, Lloyd Dobbins, Mack Wicks and Jim Ed Vaughn are Sand Mountains prize farmers.

Out of all the fish in the pond, Betty Thornhill caught a "Bass."

Jewel Young is now a basketball coach at a famous girls' school.

Shirley Campbell is still holding down the fort at Rosalie.

Some people play golf, some checkers but as for me, I prefer Rook.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of '53 of Pisgah High School, being of sound (?) mind and body do hereby will and bequeath our most treasured possessions to those who will follow in our footsteps:

Lillis Wheeler and Jean Brown will their red hair to the entire school to brighten the halls after they have left them.

Billy Blancett wills his "ain't" to the next English class. He hopes they will make use of it as frequent as he has.

Winifred Rice wills her muscular frame to Inez Ferguson.

Shirley Campbell, our class flirt, wills her "eye rolling" to some faithful follower.

Barbara McDaniel wills her ability to talk anywhere and get by with it to Barbara Jean Shaw.

Jackie Roberts wills his ability to roll a cigarette with one hand to Wonly Hendricks.

Glenn Atkins wills his ability to make a book report without reading the book, to anyone who can get by with it.

Idola Newberry, Dean Griffith, Doyce Gunter and Hazel Edmonds will their ability to get out of class to sell ads for the annual to the next Annual Staff. They hope you will learn the country-side as well as they did.

Betty Thornhill wills her witty remarks to Shirley Hall.

Ruth Carroll leaves her place in the soprano section of a Cappella Choir to anyone who can soar that high.

Mary F. Medlock and Shirley Knight will their ability to flirt to anyone who can do as well as they can.

Jo Ann Scott and Joe Donald Wright hope that Mary Nell Cooper and Billy McGriff will be able to get along as well as they have.

Bruce Thornhill wills his popularity and ability to make the girls swoon, to Milford White.

Edna Moore leaves her art of dancing to Betty Ann Winters.

Josephine Matthews wills her office as President of the Library Club to Janell Traylor.

Robert Bowen and Lee Don White hope that James Findley and Aubert Hall will learn to argue as well as they do.

Mack Wicks wills his curly hair to Mervyn Stanford.

Allie Mae Clark wills her happiness of graduating to everyone.

Arlon Reece wills his slim physique to Robert Sewell who needs it.

Reginald Miles wills his insane and expert driving to John Shelton, with the hope that a Highway Patrol doesn't catch him.

Bill Wheeler wills his ability to "pop-a" question to anyone who has the nerve.
Madge Winters, Hilda Jo Rooks and Ruth Wheeler will their good luck in marriage to the Pisgah High School Girls.

Gene McBryer recommends the Toni to all of the Sr. II boys.

Gleason McBryer wills his good looks to Hugo Stone.

C. W. Parcus wills his expert ball playing to Bobby Dunn.

Betty Bates wills her giggler to anyone who is capable of producing them.

Ella Jane Hoge wills her quiet ways and good grades to all the Sr. II girls.

Jack Nix wills his absentees and chewing "baccar" to those who stay out of school to chew.

Thelma McKay wills her blond curls to Wilda Rae Scogin.

Helen Robinson wills her winning ways to Ann Brazelton.

Roxie Roberts, Doris Baine and Janice Campbell will their extra height to Beatrice Barton, Joyce House and Doris Smith.

Bobby Hughes and Lloyd Dobbins will their ability to blush to Teddy Roden and Pat Millican.

Betty J. Dobbins wills her Physical Education period to Ramona Tanner.

Jewel Young wills her typewriter to Gertrude Powell.

All discarded love notes, used chewing gum, and unused paper we leave to whoever can get them first.

To our teachers we leave all the test questions we could not answer and hope they can find someone next year in the Junior Class who can answer them clearly.

To PISGAH HIGH SCHOOL we leave our school spirit and hope the succeeding classes will pick it up where we left off.
