Class Prophecy

As I gaze into the sky above, I see the future of those I love. Ten years have gone by and my dear old classmates are still striving toward higher goals.

Pisgah, our old home town, has now grown into quite a city. As I stroll down the street, I walk into the new grocery store. Glancing around, who should I see but Brewer Roberts and Charles Hall, the owners of the store!

Back in the street, I see none other than Henry Starkey, the ice cream man. It seems that his wife, Shelby Jean Roden, has deserted him and that she has eloped with Pat Millican.

My greatest surprise is yet to come. That is when I hear that my old friend, Martha Ann Lockamy, is now one of the biggest socialites of the city. It seems that she married a man of great wealth.

As I turn the corner, who should I bump into but Joyce Howse. She tells me she is private secretary to Milford White, who is Vice President of the Second National Bank.

On the next day, I decide to lunch in the La Plaza Cafeteria. Imagine my surprise when I see Faye Tiffin, Bonnie and Donnie Tallent working as waitresses. Faye tells me that John Shelton and Teddy Roden own the business. When I go to pay my bill, I see that Doris Womack is cashier.

For further traveling, I have to cash a check. I see Betty Ann Winters and Betty Jo Schruder serving as cashiers in the bank.

On the third day of my stay, I decide to visit the old school and see Mr. Bearden, Mrs. Arnold and the rest of my old teachers. But behold! The principal is none other than Marvin Chandler. He tells me that Bobbie Ann Claytor is Sr. III teacher. Also teaching in high school are Doris Hicks, Anna Lou Smith, Bernese Tiffin, and Dercal Webster.

Marvin asks me to visit the lunchroom, and guess what! Vivian McKay, Betty Sue Millican, and Gertrude Powell are operating it. We sure are having a delicious lunch.

On the fourth day of my visit, I decide to look up Shirley Hall and see if I can find out any more news. She tells me that Bobby Dunn and Barbara Shaw still are hesitating about taking that fatal leap. She also tells me that Bobby Gant and J.C. Evans own a new chain of supermarkets.

While visiting Shirley, who do you think should walk in? You guessed it. It is none other than Janell Traylor. She tells me that she just saw Ramona Tanner and Wanda Tinker walking in the park with their children.

As my visit comes to a close, the bell-hop comes up to get my bags, and who do you suppose it is? None other than Aubert Hall. He says that John A. Guffey and Hugo Stone own the service station down the street. I also understand that Riley Holland, Dale Perry, Lyndel Brooks and Delmar Pritchett are working as mechanics there.

I stop by the newsstand on the way to the bus, to get a paper. To my surprise, Ronald Adams is working there. In the society column of my paper, I read where Joe Chambless and Bill McGriff have gone back to their coaching positions in Florida.

On my way to the bus, I glance in the barber shop window. I see Robert Sewell shining shoes there.

When I step on the bus, I am surprised to be greeted by my first name. The driver is none other than Gene McBryar.

As we ride along the outskirts of town, I see Mary Nell Cooper in the yard hanging out clothes. She has five "brats," as she calls them.

The time was well spent but there must be an end to all good things, so back to my everyday drudgery as librarian at Dutton's City Library.

History of Class of '54

In 1941, a bright new world was opened to a group of eager boys and girls, when they entered school for the first time. There are only 4 of those students finishing school from Pisgah High School this year. They are Shelby Jean Roden, Mary Nell Hughes, Wanda Tinker and Henry Starkey.

When we were in the second grade, Bobbie Ann Claytor entered our class from Madison County. Robert Sewell came from Chattanooga when we were in the fourth grade.

In the seventh grade we were joined by Ramona Tanner, Dereal Webster, Ronald Adams, Lyndel Brooks, Riley Holland, Pat Millican, Dale Perry, and Delmar Pritchett from Pleasant View School and Brewer Roberts from Sublett School, also John Shelton from Rosalie. In the eighth grade, Wilda Scogin entered from Antioch.

As we were beginning to think we were in high school, in the ninth grade, Shirley Hall came from Rosalie and Bobby Dunn transferred from Birmingham.

In our sophomore year our class was still increasing. We were joined by Doris Hicks, Joyce Howse, Martha Lochamy, Bonnie and Donnie Tallent, Doris Womack, Aubert Hall, Teddy Roden, Marvin Chandler from Rosalie; Vivian McKay, Anna Lou Smith, Gertrude Powell, J.C. Evans from Mt. Olive; Joe Chambless and Barbara Shaw from Davis High.

Betty Sue Millican, Hugo Stone, John A. Guffey from Flat Rock; Betty Jo Schrudder, Betty Ann Winters from Bryant Jr. School; Bernese Tiffin from Tenbroock; Faye Tiffin from Bridgeport, Ala.; Janell Traylor, Bill McGriff, Milford White from Dutton Jr. School. Mrs. Maude Cooke and Mr. Homer Harper were our class sponsors.

In our Jr. year, we presented "A-Feudin' Over Yonder" as our class play. With Mrs. Pearl White and Miss Juanita Russell as class sponsors we, the Jr. class, went to Montgomery, Ala. on our trip. That year the Jr.-Sr. Banquet was given for the Seniors. Also, Charles Hall entered our class from Ider.

Our Senior year at last! We feel that we have good reason to be proud of our class. Several members belong to the Beta Club, Glee Club, FTA Club, Citizenship Club, Dramatics and Library Clubs. Also, some of our boys are very active in basketball. Bill McGriff was chosen as captain by the team. Chosen to represent the Senior Class "Pep" as cheerleaders were Wilda Scogin, Mary Hughes, Joyce Howse and Barbara Shaw. We are happy to say that Barbara was chosen as head cheerleader.

Let's not forget our Good Citizenship Girl, Doris Hicks. We are really proud of her as a representative of our class.

We are happy to have Bobby Gant join us from Chattanooga and Gene McBryar from Bryant, making a total of forty-seven.

Last but not least are our class sponsors, Mrs. Lillian Arnold and Mrs. Harold Parks. We wish to thank Mrs. Arnold for her help in our school days and Mrs. Parks, in our last year. Truly, sponsors we shall not forget.

Thus, in May, when we receive our diplomas, will bring to a close the class of '54. May we always be remembered by P.H.S. as we shall always remember our school days there.

BILLY YORK IS JACKSON COUNTY CHAMPION CORN GROWER

Billy York, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abner York of Pleasant View community, is Pisgah FFA Chapter's corn grower for 1953. Young York made 120.96 bushels of corn per acre on his project.

In announcing that young York was named County winner, Mr. H. R. Culver, district supervisor of vocational agriculture, Auburn, pointed out that the expected average yield for the state this year is 22 bushels per acre. Last year it was 11 bushels.

A pin and certificate was awarded York for his achievement. Ernest Pruett, vocational agriculture teacher, made the award.

Billy Baine not shown

Pisgah High School Squad

1. Billy Baine has proven to be an able varsity reserve. He possesses a deadly one-hand push shot and is elusive driving in.
2. Joe Chambless is big, fast, and aggressive. His cat-like actions and hard scrapping throughout the game has helped Pisgah maintain a fine record. He has an accurate push shot and can drive when approached by defense, also an excellent ball handler.
3. Marvin Chandler is a steady performer. He is known for his dribbling ability and good ball handling.
4. Kenneth Deerman is one of the fastest men on the squad. Deerman is an excellent defensive man and fast on the quick break down court. He is a steady scorer and is also a good ball handler.
5. Bobby Dunn is probably the fastest man on the squad. His pet shot is driving across spot. He is a good rebound and scraps hard all the way.
6. Jerry Haas is a bright prospect to fill the shoes of "Big Bill" McGriff next year. He is a rugged rebounder, hooks well and an excellent jump-up shot. Jerry is the youngest man on the squad.
7. Bobby Jenkins has shown to be a good fundamental ball player. Jenkins is an excellent ball handler, good defensive and drives for the basket well. He trains well, works hard and has developed into a fine ball player.

"B" Team

8. Bill McGriff, being elected captain, not enough can be said about "Big Bill's" value to the Pisgah Basketball Team. He has quite a phenomenal record in basketball here. His shot percentage this year, points and rebounds, are indicative of his ability. He can hook, jump, shoot, and defense with amazing accuracy and grace. Above all, he is an all "A" student.
9. Teddy Roden is fast on the frive. He is quick with his hands, justles, and is proving his worth in close ball games. Ted is a senior and is playing his third year on the varsity.
10. Dennis Shavers is rugged and aggressive on the boards and possesses a fine jump-up shot. He is a hard worker on defense and a good team man.
11. John Shelton is a team quarterback and "pepperpot" of his team. He is a fine competitor. His outstanding characteristics are: an excellent set-shooter, good ball handler and ball-hawking. He usually gets the toughest defensive assignments.
12. Teddy Traylor is one of the team's mainstays in rebounding and scoring. He is especially accurate driving across the spot, shooting, and is a very fine play-maker.
13. Wayne Webster can always be counted upon to score, rebound and defense with ruggedness. He gets the job done, is probably the best way to state it.
14. Charles Maynor, although a regular junior center, has been used on the "B" team and has shown to be an excellent prospect for Pisgah in years to come.
15. Bobby Wright is a fine little guard. He is a clever ball handler, drives well and above all has one of the highest shooting percentages on the team.
16. Bud Newberry is looking better as the season progresses. He is an accurate one-hand shot and a good rebounder.

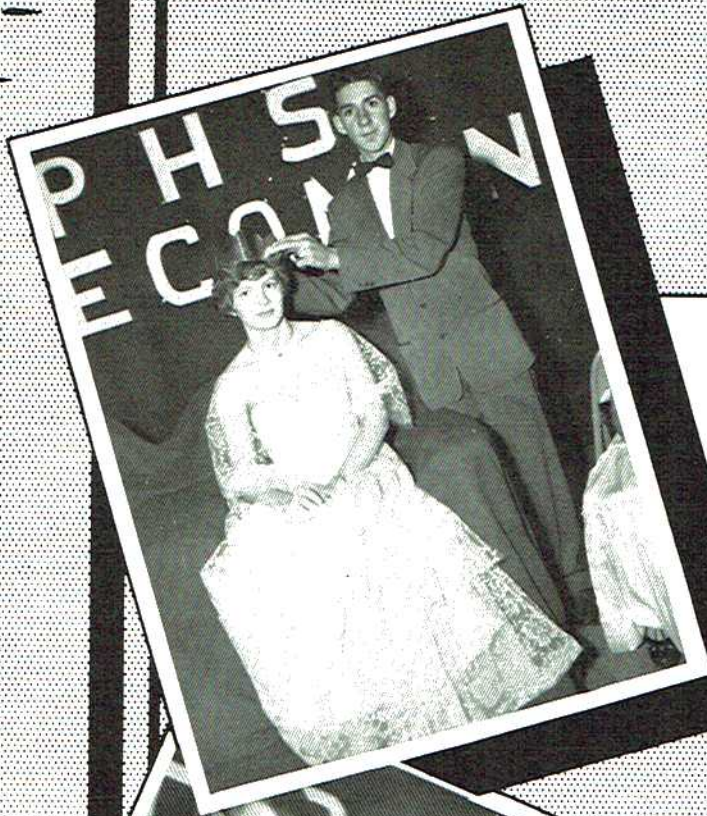

Cheerleaders
