

The Eagle '55

THE Eagle

Presented by THE SENIOR CLASS
PISGAH HIGH SCHOOL
1955

DELBERT HICKS, Superintendent

CECIL A. BEARDEN, Principal

TO THE STUDENTS OF PISGAH SCHOOL:

Permit me to commend you for the excellence of this issue of your yearbook. Your editorial staff has done a very good job of gathering, editing, arranging, and recording pictures and materials for your present and future enjoyment. What is enjoyed today by you will become more precious with the passing of the years. One of my most valued personal possessions is my copy of the MOUNTAIN REFLECTOR, 1931, the first yearbook published by this school, a project of my graduating class.

This school is provided by the people of this state that you may equip yourselves with knowledge, skill, and attitudes necessary for living today and tomorrow.

May I admonish each of you to put your very best into your school work today so that you will be able to deal effectively with the many problems of the troubled world in which you will live. To the extent that you live as a successful adult citizen can, your parents, teachers, principals, and superintendents measure the success of their efforts with you.

BEST WISHES TO EACH OF YOU!

DELBERT HICKS, Superintendent
Jackson County Schools

TO THE STUDENTS OF PISGAH SCHOOL:

As you turn the pages of this edition of the "Eagle" with its pictorial history of this memorable year in your life, you should be grateful to your fellow students and their advisors who have made this yearbook a reality. I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the loyalty, cooperation, and hard work of each person who has made this edition possible.

As the years go by you will find increasing pleasure in your ability to leaf through this book and recall old friends and the many happy moments. Some may even recall experiences which at the moment of happening were not so pleasant, but as we view those experiences with retrospect they bring smiles and warm feeling to the heart as we realize they were all a part of the process of growing up.

At present you are spending the formative years of your life in association with your classmates and under the supervision of the staff of this school. Our fondest dream is that you may succeed in finding here inspiration and guidance that will lead you to happy, useful and successful futures.

MY EVERY WISH IS FOR YOUR SUCCESS.

Class History

In July 1943 a new future opened its doors to a group of eager boys and girls when they entered school for their first day. Only eight of those students are finishing school from Pisgah High this year. They are Polly Matthews, Bobby Maynor, Billy Baine, Kathryn Roden, Bobby Jenkins, Paul Johnson, Sanford Liles and Stakely Moses.

Pauline Tiffin from Scottsboro joined the class in the second grade. As the class moved forward to the third grade Tommie Sue White of Deans Chapel and Brent Peek of Roaslie joined the group.

In the fourth grade came Shelby Davis from Chattanooga, Paul Roach from Sublets and Nancy Roberts of Roaslie.

From Sublets came Guiendell King in the fifth grade. Peggy Travis transferred from Macedonia in the sixth grade.

As the class entered Junior High School, Overia Tinker, Albert Tinker and Dennis Shavers came from Subletts. Willo Dean Wheeler of Scottsboro, Dearl Hughes of Deans Chapel and Wayne Webster of Pleasant View joined the class. Mary McCamy of Scottsboro came in the eighth grade.

As we moved into our sophomore year, Mary Francis Adams, Barbara Goforth, Jo Ann Moore, Jimmy Cordell, Eugene Gamble, Hugh Lyda and James Millican entered from Flat Rock; Betty Barton and Charles Bell from Bryant; Clo Dean Brown, Glenn Dobbins, and Gene Wade of Mount Olive. Janice Weaver, Kenneth Deerman, Teddy Traylor and Billy York of Dutton. Barbara Campbell, Iris Everett, Emma Richey, Jo Ann Thornhill, Covie Hendricks, Bobby Wright of Rosalie. Laurie Lee Coady and Maxell Sims of Henagar and Louise Brewton of Stevenson entered the class. Betty Jo Cookson of Jasper, Tennessee joined us in our junior year.

In our Senior year, Shirley Frazier of Sylvania, Patsy Miller of Pepperell, Tennessee, Esmond Shelton, Wilson Wilbourn and Donnie Walden of Scottsboro joined the class.

Class Prophecy

Returning one night from a late visit to a friend, I was passing a supposedly deserted house when the sound of happy voices reached my ears. When I turned to investigate I found that the house had vanished and I stood before my old Alma Mater, Pisgah High School. The year is 1965.

The doors swing open invitingly and I entered. I heard an angry voice berating the janitor for sweeping dirt into the corners. As I suspected, the voice belongs to Dearl Hughes, the principal. Paul Johnson is the janitor.

Dearl takes me on a tour of the school. In the new home economics department, I find Bobbie Maynor supervising the preparation of a delicious luncheon.

Our next stop is the cafeteria. Emma Richey is in charge. Her assistants are Nancy Roberts, Mary Adams and Gwindell King.

As we leave the Cafeteria, we are surrounded by a group of shrieking children. Kathryn Roden, their teacher, hastily apologizes for their conduct.

I am greeted in the typing room by my old friend, Mary McCamy. It seems that she divides her time between the commercial and domestic worlds.

Dearl tells me that Sanford Liles, a former future farmer, is now head of the Department of Agriculture at A. P. I.

I bid Dearl farewell and go uptown, only to pause before a store bearing the sign, "Gamble, Lyda, Millican, Genuine Imitation Furs." Bobby Wright emerges from the store and tells me that he bought a coat for his wife instead of a car because he couldn't find anyone selling imitation automobiles.

At a news stand I buy a daily paper (Glen Dobbins, Editor). I see that Teddy Traylor is to lecture on the Importance of Good Sportsmanship.

I also learn that Brent Peek is the new owner of the Bama Theater. The current movie is a musical starring Patsy Miller.

Next to the news stand is the office of Gene Wade, Attorney at Law. Well!

It is past lunch time and I decided to eat in the City Cafe. Paul Roach is the owner. Overa Tinker and Betty Jo Cookson are waitresses. Barbara Campbell is the cashier. She tells me that Virginia Moore is now a successful model.

As I pass a dentist's office I hear a roar of rage and pain. Polly Matthews, the nurse, tells me that Covie Hendrix just bit Doctor Albert Tinker's finger.

Pisgah now has a National Guard Unit. As I pass the armory I see Donnie Walden drilling his men.

A bright array of flowers in the window of Cordell's Florist Shop catches my eye. Joann Thornhill, the saleslady, tells me that Jimmy grows the flowers and Barbara arranges them.

I decided to remain in Pisgah overnight, so I go to the City library to get a book to read. I am not greatly surprised to find Louise Brewton giving orders to the assistant librarian, Willow Dean Wheeler.

On my way to the hotel I stop at the First National Bank to cash a check. Tommie Sue White, the cashier, tells me that Bobby Jenkins is the President, and Dennis Shavers is the Vice President. Clo Dean Brown and Betty Barton are their secretaries,

As I leave the bank I see a blue uniformed figure directing traffic. Kenneth Deerman is busily preserving the human race.

Upon arrival at the hotel, I learn that Truman Roberts and Bobby Moore are the owners. When I order supper sent up, I received greetings from Jo Ann Moore, the hotel switch-board operator.

Next morning I stop at a Clinic to see Wayne Webster, a doctor. I also see Shelby Davis and Shirley Frazier, who are nurses.

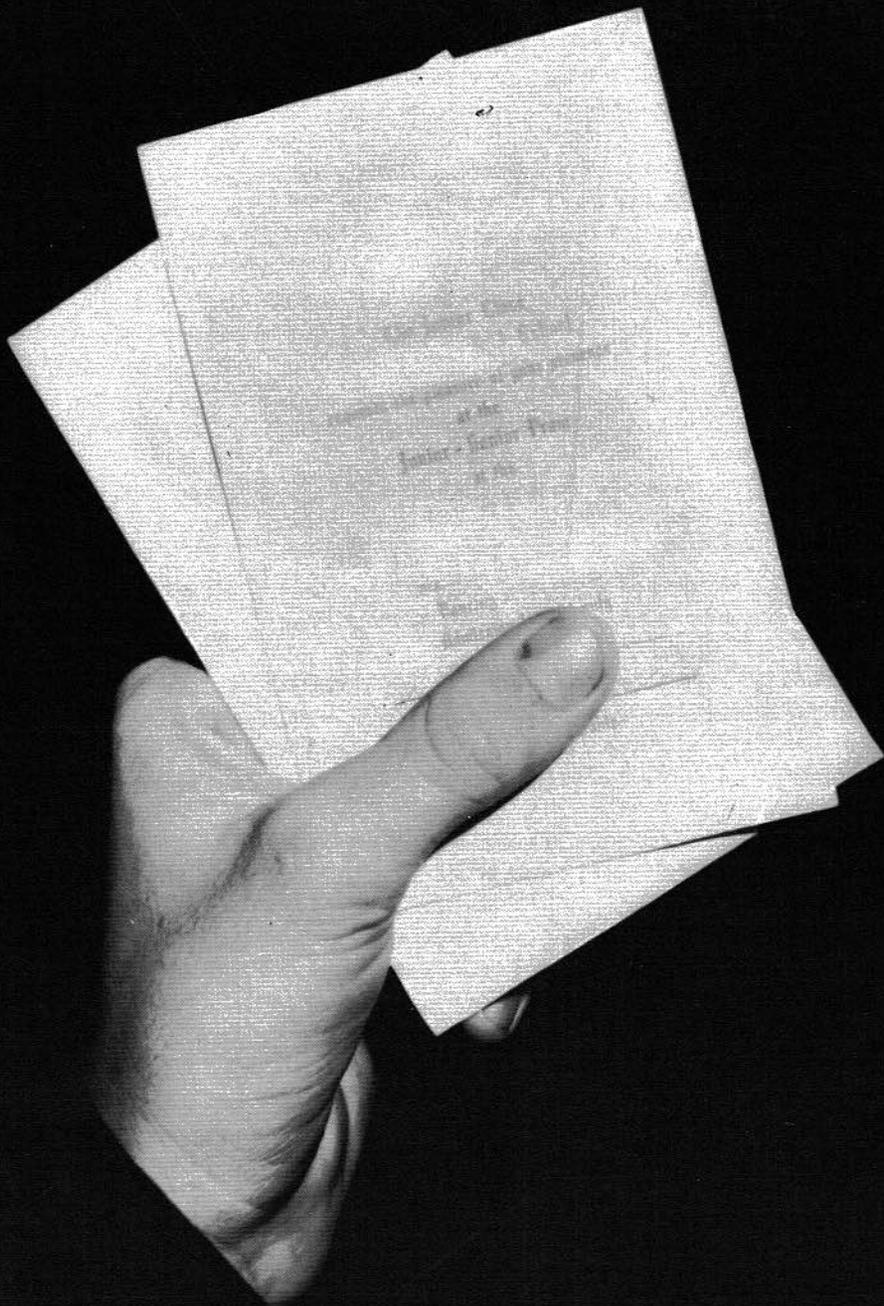

At a garage I am greeted by Esmond Shelton and Wilson Wilborn. They tell me that they own the garage.

Billy York is the next person I meet. He is pastor of the First Methodist Church. He tells me that Billy Baine has just been elected mayor of Pisgah.

I am passing through the suburbs when I see two frame houses, identically alike, and hear a baby crying in each one. My unvoiced question is answered when I find Maxell Sims and Janice Weaver leaning over their back fence gossiping. They tell me that Peggy Travis, Iris Everett, and Pauline Tiffin are also married and live nearby.

As I leave my two friends, a truck loaded with farm produce rambles by. I recognize its occupants, Stakely Moses and Charles Bell.

A mist falls suddenly and when it rises, I find myself standing again before the old house. The sun is just rising as I sneak into my little cottage and I hope and pray that the Citizens of Central will never learn that their respected music teacher stayed out all night.

ATHLETICS

Billy Baine, a reserve last year, is shaping into a very capable guard. He is very accurate from outside and can drive very effectively.

Gene Wade is very aggressive, good on defense and also a very fine team man.

Bobby Jenkins, a starter last season, is very fast, has great hustle and can drive well and hits with a nice push shot from outside. He is also co-captain.

Jerry Haas, a talented pivot man with a good jump shot and a very accurate hook shot. Jerry is very aggressive on the boards. Only a Junior, he is the youngest man on the squad.

Dennis Shavers is a rough rebounder and shoots good jump shot. He is fast and alert and does a good job any time he is in there.

Teddy Traylor, an all-state on the runner-up in the state last year, is a very agile and potent center on this year's five. He hooks well and also has an accurate one-hand push shot. He is also one of our co-captains.

Jimmy Roden, a new-comer to the team is coming along nicely. He is a very rugged rebounder and shoots a good jump shot. He is a very hard worker. Much is expected from Jimmy before he finishes.

Albert Tinker is developing into a very dependable ball player. He is alert, defenses well, and has a nice push shot. He also is a good ball handler.

Bud Newberry is an all-round fine ball player. He shoots a nice shot from outside, drives well and has a very good head for basketball. Much is expected from Bud next year.

Jimmy Cordell was side-lined by a broken arm, but before the accident he was looking very good offensively and defensively.

Our fine managers are J. T. Keys and Royce Dunn.

Varsity Basketball

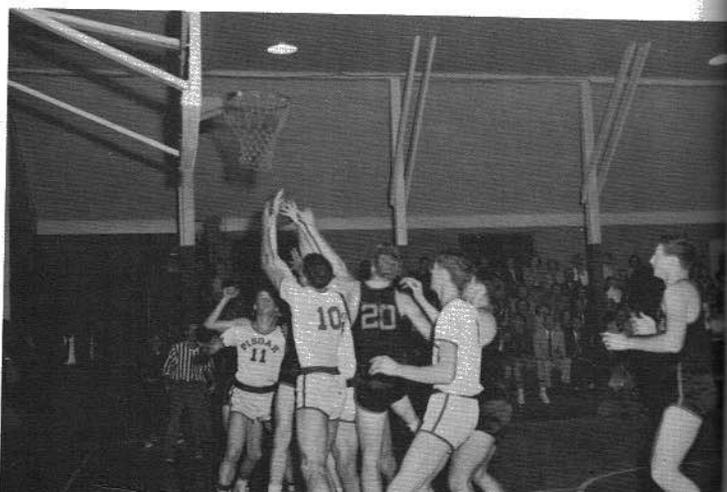

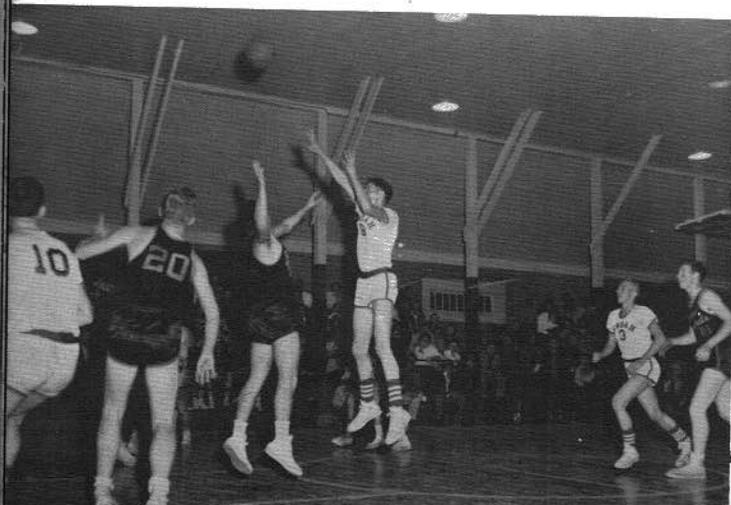

The Pisgah Eagles have won 9, lost 4 thus far this season. They have lost by no more than five points in each of those four losses. The team has not looked as impressive as they are capable but it is believed they will develop into one of the best teams in this area. With a little improvement they can prove to be equal to any previous Pisgah team.

"B" Team

The Pisgah "B" team is composed of all Senior I's and is one of the finest groups of basketball players this school has had in many years. The localities involved in these outstanding prospects are Henegar, Rosalie, Section and Pisgah. These boys are rangy, young and aggressive and, most of all, have a burning desire to play basketball and to play it well. Another characteristic of this group is that they train well. Pisgah is proud to have such a fine group representing the school in athletic contests.

Mr. Paul Cooley deserves much credit for the good showing of the "B" team. He is a very capable man. He is a good leader, possesses a thorough knowledge of basketball, and is also a good disciplinarian.
