The pages of this yearbook reflect the history of Pisgah High School for the year 1960-1961.

Shown here are the pupils, the faculty, the workers, the buildings; all of these comprise this school which has been graduating high school seniors for some thirty-six years.

This reflects the struggle of the younger generation to improve themselves, their communities, their way of life, to make a better world.

From this determination comes the spirit of Pisgah High. A quiet spirit, a spirit of loyalty, high aims and aspirations, dreams that can come true.

May you grasp this spirit as you turn these pages and may it abide with you always, although your life's work may carry you many miles away.

Cecil A. Bearden

It is with deep affection and admiration that the Senior Class dedicates its "'61 Eagle" to Mrs. Elizabeth Cooley. Throughout the past seven years that she has taught at Pisgah she has proved to be a teacher whom everyone respects.

Her ability to explain and dramatize both English and History makes her an excellent teacher of these subjects. Her willingness to join the activities of her physical education classes makes her outstanding as a physical education teacher. Because Mrs. Cooley has proven to be a teacher, counselor, and friend, we proudly dedicate the "'61 Eagle" to her.

It takes more than two to hold Larry down. "Move over boys I want that ball."

Big or Small Weldon plays them all, "Go ahead and cry, but you won't get this ball."

No one could top Richard. "Why are you jumping? I've already hit the ball."

Once more, Joel prepares to raise the Eagle score. "Betcha, you can't beat this."
