Seniors

Senior Class Officers

Senior Class Officers, along with their sponsors Ms. Wright and Ms. Berkemeier, have many responsibilities. Planning the Senior float for the homecoming parade, picking out graduation invitations, organizing the class trip, and seeing to the senior t-shirts are just a few of the duties.

The officers responsibilities do not end at graduation. These responsibilities continue into the future. The officers will make plans for the class reunions for the Senior Class of 1985.

"Who's Who in '85?"

MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT

DeLana Roberts and Steve Allison

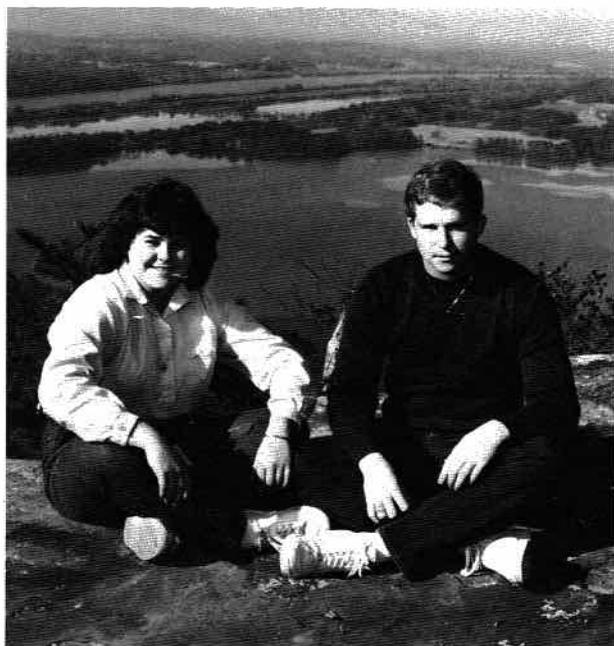

DeLana is head cheerleader and Steve acts a lot like Gastineau.

MOST INTELLECTUAL

Kiwana Evans and Greg Millican

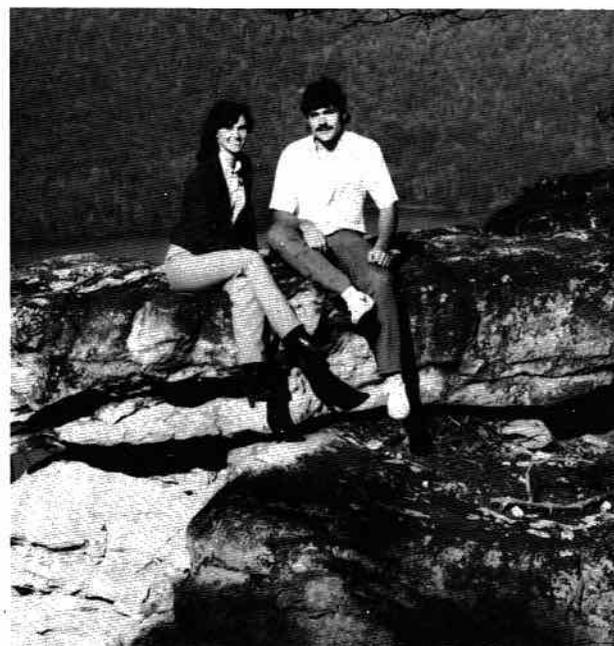

They make the best grades and have the best luck with brownie points.

CLASS GRUMBLERS

Adrienne Farmer and Scottie Shannon

They enjoy a good argument.

BEST LOOKING

Pam Boyd and Michael Ball

Pam has a great personality to go with her good looks. Michael has a cute mustache and gorgeous brown eyes.

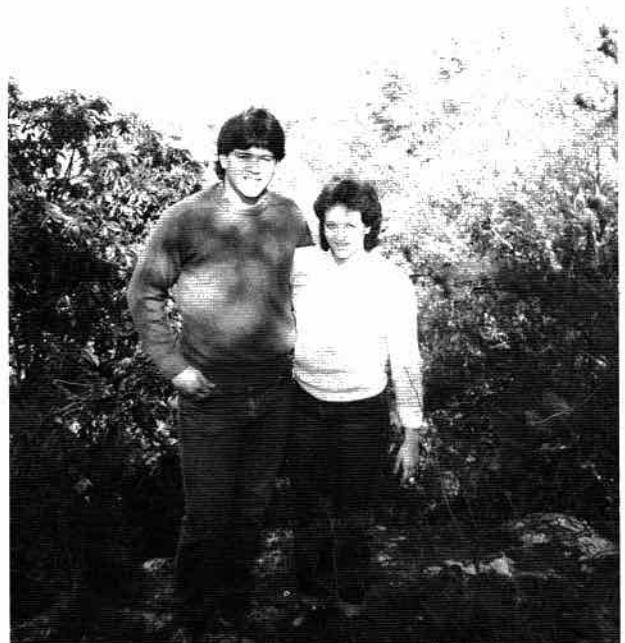

"Who's Who in '85?"

QUIETEST

Terry Sanders and Aletha Phillips

Terry never says anything. Aletha's voice is so soft that you can't hear her.

MOST ATHLETIC

Dennis Mays and Tana Cox

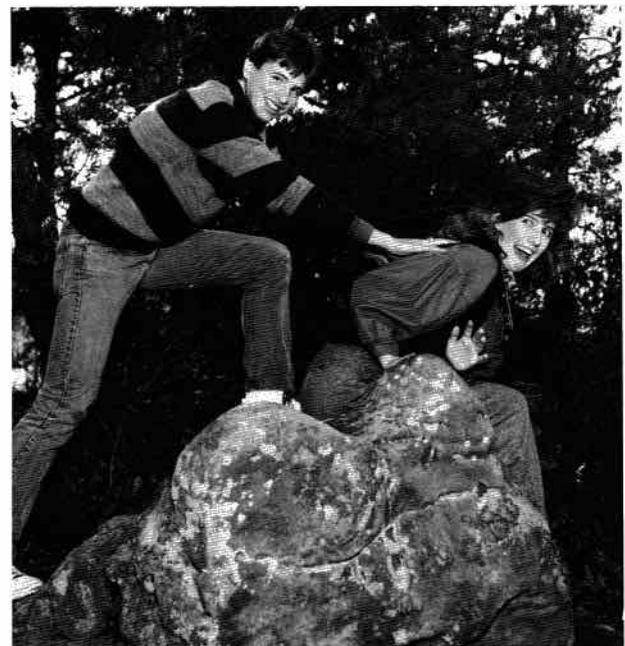

Dennis had rather be playing football than doing anything else. Tana plays basketball, softball, and just enjoys sports.

CLUMSIEST

David Sloan and Karen Brock

David is an expert handball player at P.E. Karen has been known to trip over her own shoestrings.

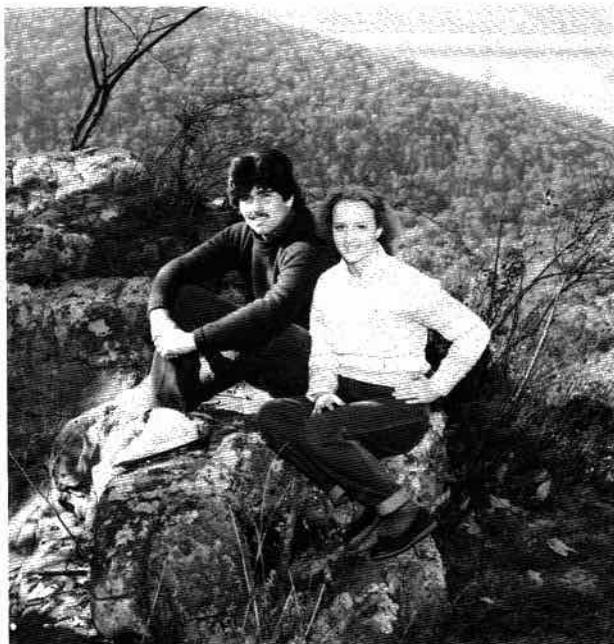

WITTIEST

Jeff Kenimer and Tab Brooks

Jeff enjoys telling jokes and is good at it. Tab's laugh makes everyone crack up.

"Who's Who in '85?"

MOST DEPENDABLE

Mike Tinker and Kiwana Evans

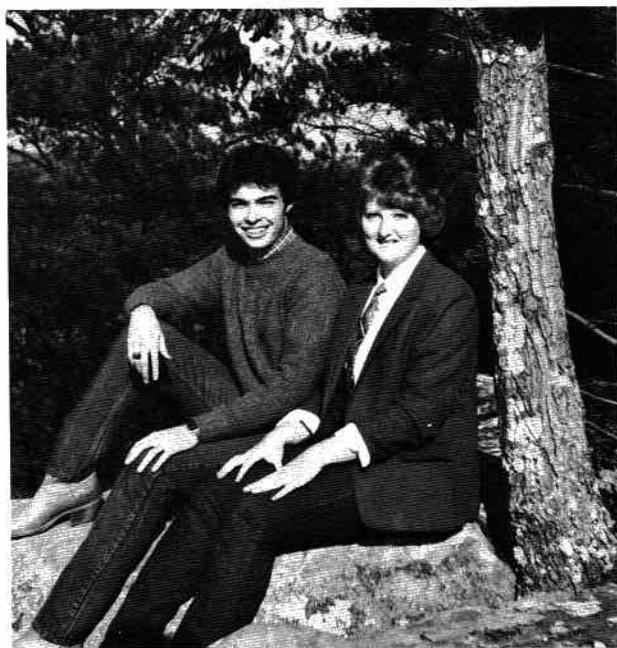

Kiwana has a lot of responsibilities as the secretary of most clubs. Mike will let you borrow anything he has.

FRIENDLIEST

Ravonda Varner and Steve Allison

Ravonda speaks to everyone and Steve is always joking around.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Greg Millican and Peggy Gray

Both Peggy and Greg work extremely hard in school.

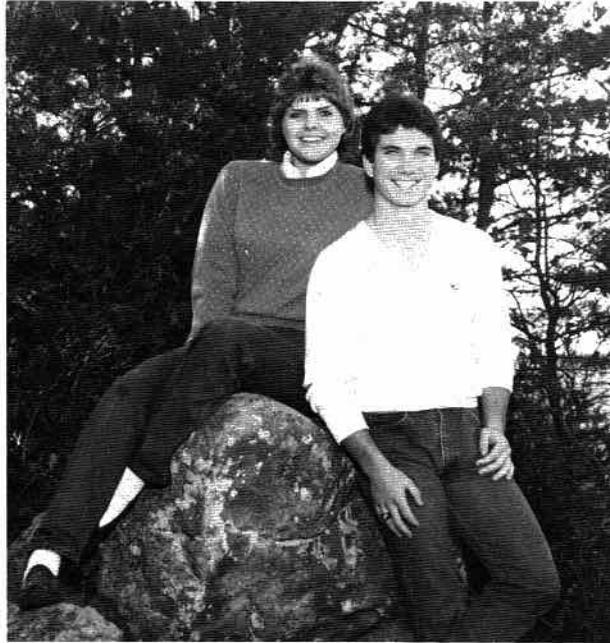

BEST DRESSED

Micheal Biddle and Renee Skinner

Renee wears many different styles of clothes. Micheal irons his sweatshirts.

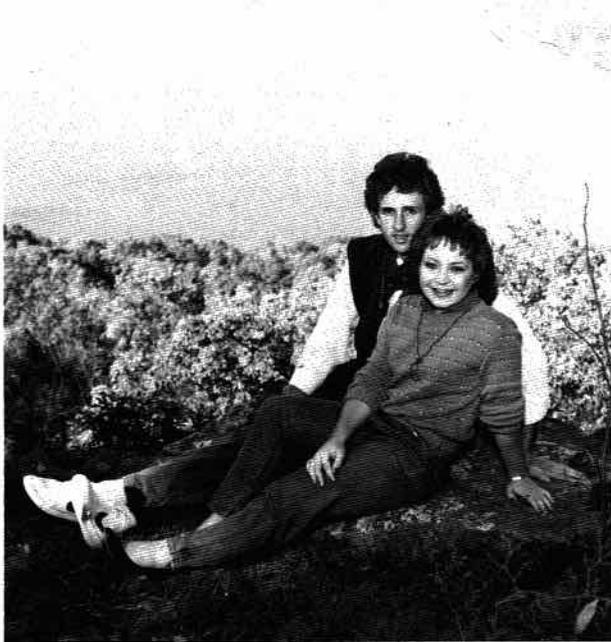

"Who's Who in '85?"

NEATEST

Sonia Garren and Joe Moore

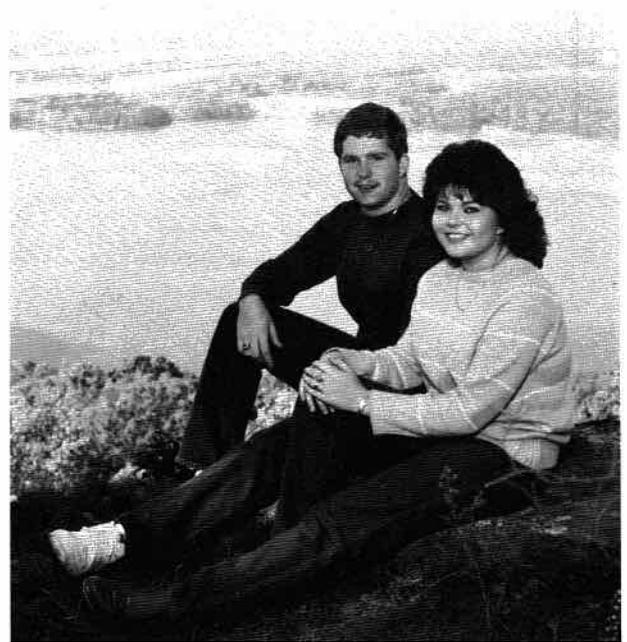

Sonia polishes her shoes every night and Joe primps for an hour before taking a shower.

FLIRTIEST

Tony Shrader and DeLana Roberts

Most people know that DeLana is flirty from personal experience. All Tony does at school is flirt.

LOUDEST

Scottie Shannon and Darlene Roberts

It shouts for itself!

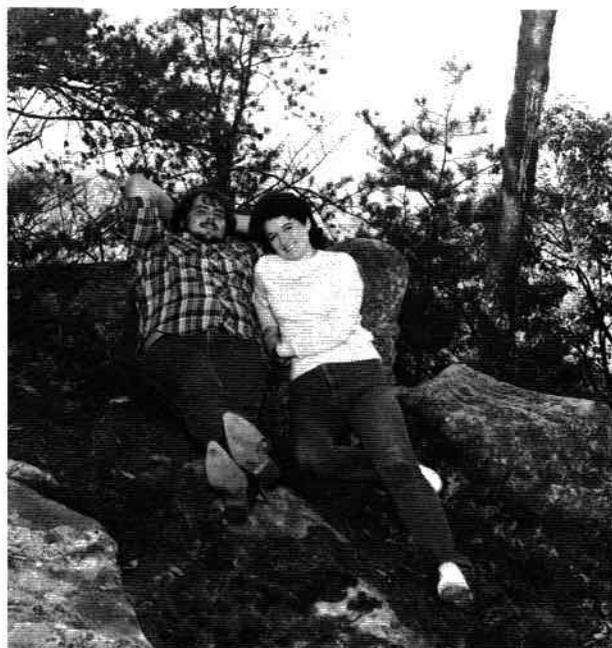

"Who's Who in '85?"

MOST TALENTED

Angela Padgett and Tony Womack

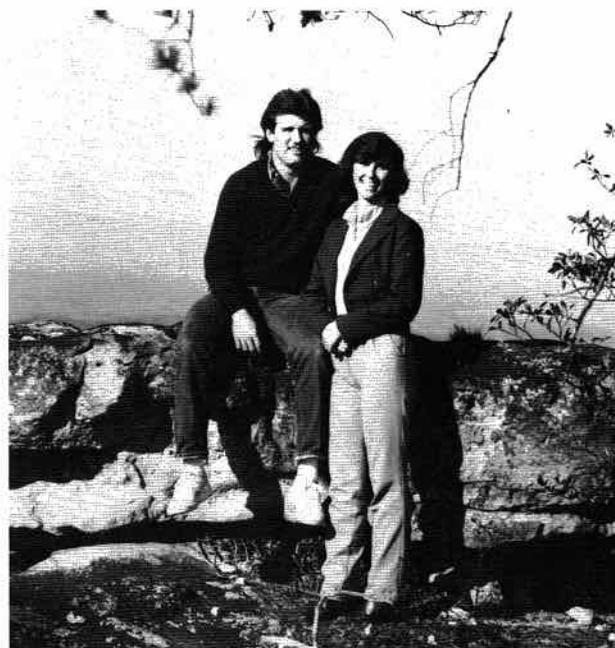

They both draw and play the piano.

LAZIEST

Scottie Leonard and Angie Headrick

They must have some type of chemical imbalance.

THRILLER

... at P.H.S.!

Brightness falls across the land. The school hour is close at hand. Creatures crawl in search of A's to terrorize teacher's days and whosoever shall be found without the soul for staying in bounds must stand and face the hand of Sam and rock inside his forbidden land.

The restlessness is in the air. The boredom of 6 hours and grizzly ghouls from every room are closing in to seal teachers' doom and though you fight to stay alive your body starts to shiver for no immortal can resist the evil of the thriller. Ha! Ha!

EAGLE BASKETBALL

The 1984-85 year of Eagle Basketball was considered one of excitement. Having only three seniors, the Eagles were young, yet none could tell it by the way they performed. The seniors were James Smith, Anthony Hicks, and Tony Shrader. Each played well throughout the year. They contributed greatly to the success the team experienced.

The juniors also displayed impressive play throughout the year. They were Lamar Hendricks, Robbie Lassetter, Patrick Wilson, and Blue Smith. These four young men usually were on the floor at the tipoff and played until the clock ran out at the end of the game. With this much experience and determination, we can expect big things from these young men in the 1985-86 campaign.

The only sophomore to play varsity was Joey Shelton. He did a fine job throughout the year. During the Jackson County Tournament against North Sand Mountain he had a yearly high by scoring 29 points.

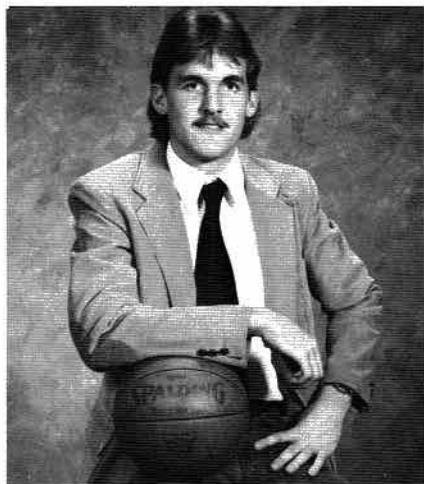

We congratulate the team on their record of 15 wins and 13 losses, second place in the Sand Mountain Tournament, and also for making the sub-state playoffs, only to lose to Plainview in a heartbreaking loss.

On behalf of Coaches' Shelton, Tidmore and McFall, we thank each person that supported the team's effort during the 1984-85 season. GOOD LUCK SENIORS! WE WILL MISS YOU!

1985 Prom King & Queen
Jeff Kenimer and Tammy Hilley

In The Air Tonight

*Saturday evening * April twentieth * Nineteen hundred and eighty-five*

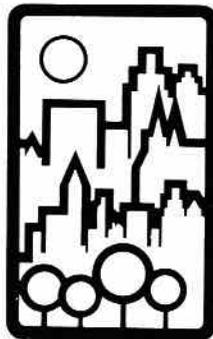

The Junior-Senior Prom was one of the most enjoyable events of the 1984-85 school year. The prom committee considered various schemes with which to decorate the gymnasium before a decision was made. Finally, the Junior Class and their sponsors began the long but enjoyable process of transforming the gymnasium into a grand ballroom.

Around seven o'clock the Juniors and Seniors and their dates began filing into the gymnasium. A glowing, candlelit walkway greeted those in attendance while prom tickets were assigned at the door. The narrow hallway in the lobby transported the guests into an elegant city scene. Large "glass"-paneled buildings were illuminated in various locations while green, flashing neon lights enhanced the stage. Black walls with glittering, silver stars gave the interior a sense of exterior. The silver and black balloons lining the dance floor and the dimly lit candles on each table added an extra touch of romance to the city scene.

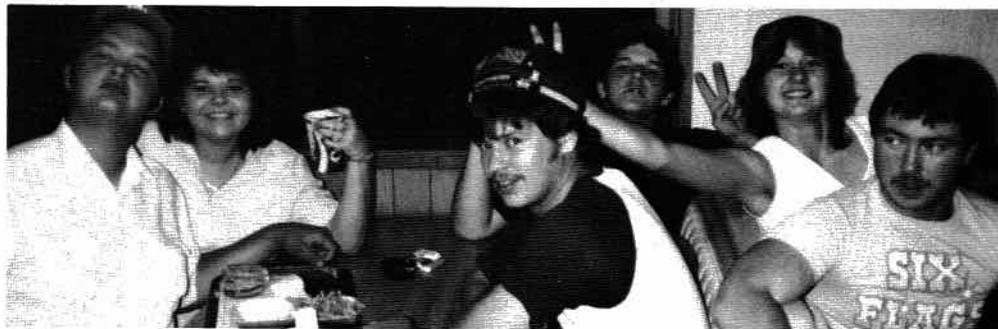

Speeches were given by the Junior and Senior Class Presidents and by Ms. Abercrombie, who introduced the Junior and Senior Class Officers and their escorts. "Dance, dance, dance" was the theme for the remainder of the evening as the exquisitely dressed couples swayed to the lonesome strains of "HELLO" and "STUCK ON YOU" by Lionel Richie, "CARELESS WHISPER" by Wham!, "ONE MORE NIGHT" by Phil Collins, "YOU'RE THE INSPIRATION" by Chicago, and "TIME AFTER TIME" by Cyndi Lauper. Ties were taken off as the sounds of "THIS IS MY NIGHT" by Chaka Khan, "THE HEART OF ROCK AND ROLL" by Huey Lewis and the News, "ONE NIGHT IN BANKOK" by Murray Head, and "RHYTHM OF THE NIGHT" by DeBarge filled the midnight air. Everyone enjoyed the music provided by KZ-106.

All good things come to an end, but memories always endure. The 1985 Junior-Senior Prom will remain a special part of those who attended.

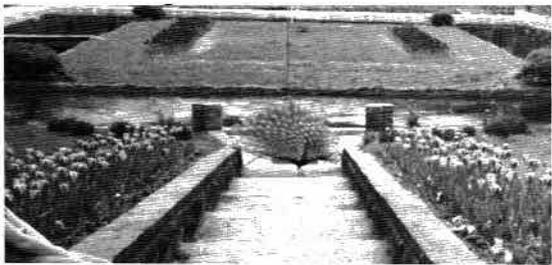

P.H.S. Seniors Terrorize Six Flags

Police still searching for culprits

ATLANTA, GA.—Police are reportedly searching for 35 seniors believed to have kidnapped Bugs Bunny in the Six Flags amusement park in Atlanta. The brains behind the operation are Loretta Wright and Jean Berkemeier, alias "Miss B." Two culprits escaped on horseback while many left on a hijacked yellow school bus heading north. Six of the mobsters were seen in McDonalds while two of the gangsters were temporarily dazed while being photographed on the bus with the rabbit in question disguised as a teddy bear. In an exclusive interview with Daffy Duck, the press learned that all 35 seniors are "despicable." Suspects are unarmed but extremely dangerous.

After years of giving herself to her students, Mrs. CLYDA R. EDMONDS has retired to spend time with her family and to enjoy her numerous hobbies.

Called to be a teacher,
she served that calling well.

Little children learning how to count,
read, write, and spell.

Yielding to gentle pressure to always do their best,
to fill their heads with knowledge,
not to let it rust or rest.

Doing things for others was just a part of her life
by being teacher, friend, mother, and a Christian wife.

Always we will remember the life this lady led by always helping others to do their very best.
Enjoy your retirement—you have done your best.

Seniors At Last

Leadership Awards: PEGGY GRAY—DAR Good Citizen Award: MIKE TINKER—Ray Kroc Americanism Award

May is a very hectic but exciting month for seniors. It is then that they realize that they are really SENIORS! It really seemed official when name cards and invitations came. Seniors could hardly wait to mail those invitations.

Another milestone was the Senior Trip to Six Flags. It seemed that Seniors wanted one more fling as a "kid".

One week before graduation the Seniors began the real count down. Awards day, May 24th, was a prerequisite for graduation. The Awards Day activities included the formal presentation of awards, honors, scholarships, and, on the lighter side, the presentation of "gag" gifts. The "gag" gifts were often an inside joke with the faculty and parents completely left out.

AWARDS DAY 1985

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE: Valedictorian—Greg Millican; Salutatorian—Kiwana Evans.

TOP TEN SENIORS: Shawn Peek, Peggy Gray, Tena Golden, Angela Padgett, Lisa Turner, Sonia Garren, Sandra Maynor, Mike Tinker, Melissa Morgan, and Mark Barrentine.

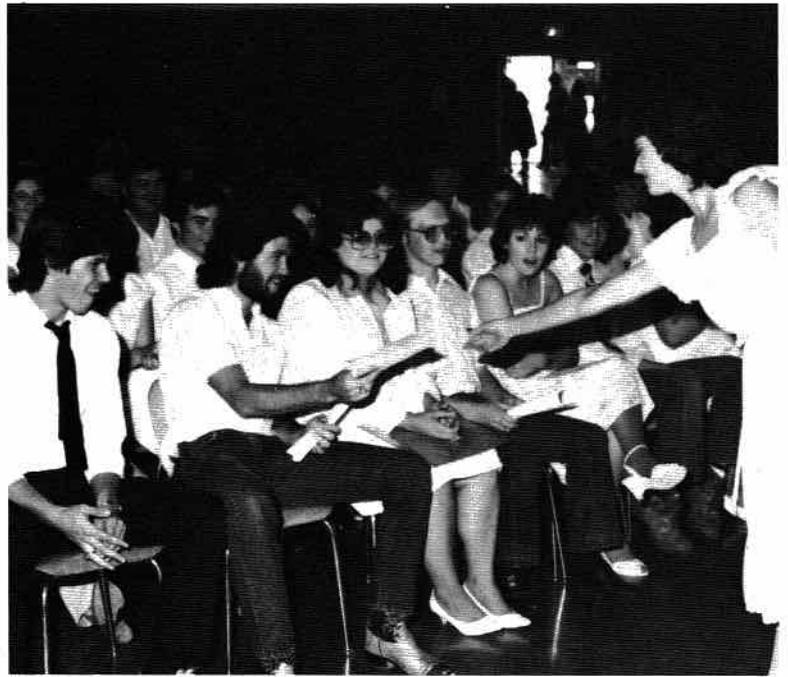

DEPARTMENTAL AWARDS: James Smith—Agribusiness; Shawn Peek—DeKalb Ag. Accomplishment & Award; Aletha Phillips—Band; Tony Womack—Business Education; Kiwana Evans—English; Lisa Turner—Home Economics and Science; Greg Millican—Mathematics and Social Studies.

AWARDS DAY 1985

Tammy Hilley thinks that it's fun giving out gag gifts.

2. KIWANA EVANS is presented an Academic Scholarship to Northeast.
3. Ralph Edmonds presents the Satterfield Memorial Scholarship to MIKE TINKER.
4. Recipients of Visual Arts Scholarships to Northeast are ANGELA PADGETT and TONY WOMACK. TAB BROOKS received a Performing Arts Scholarship to Northeast.
5. ALETHA PHILLIPS receives the Band Boosters Scholarship.

Recipients

6. Mr. Bud Daniels presents JEFF KENIMER the Dover Mills/Civitan Scholarship.

7. PEGGY GRAY receives a district award from Civitan J.E. Edmonds. PEGGY also was the recipient of a two year scholarship to Northeast from Dover Mills.

8. Mrs. Wright presents PHELISHA WILBANKS a scholarship to Drake Technical School.

9. SHAWN PEEK receives the Junior Class Scholarship from Mrs. Clemens, Jr. Sponsor.

The Big Moment Arrives

Graduation

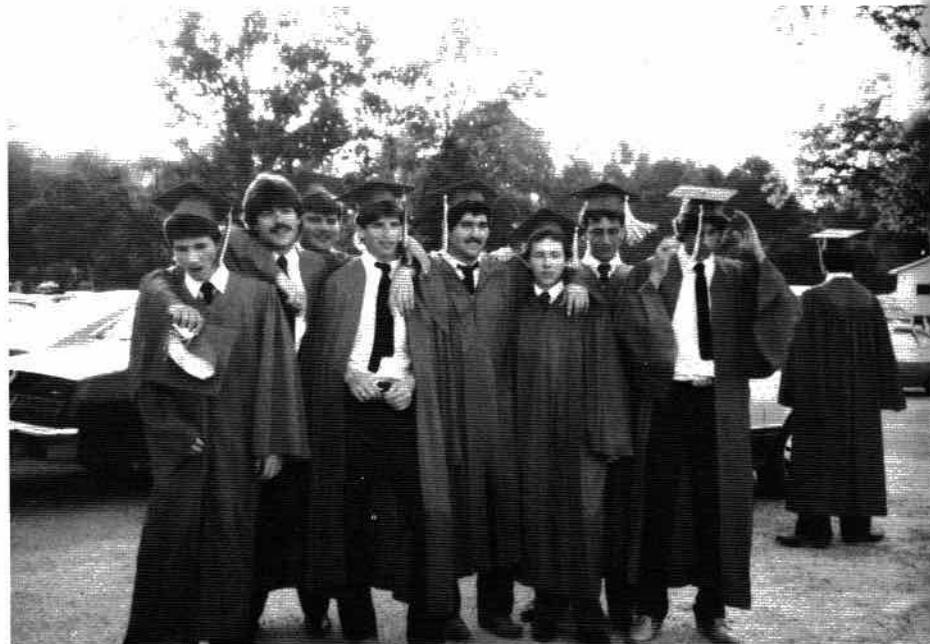

You've been in school for most of your life
Going through the battles, the good times
and strife,
And now it's time to walk down the aisle
To show everyone your welcoming smile

You've seen so many walk this line
As you have watched them from behind,
But now its your turn and so it seems
That finally you've accomplished a dream.

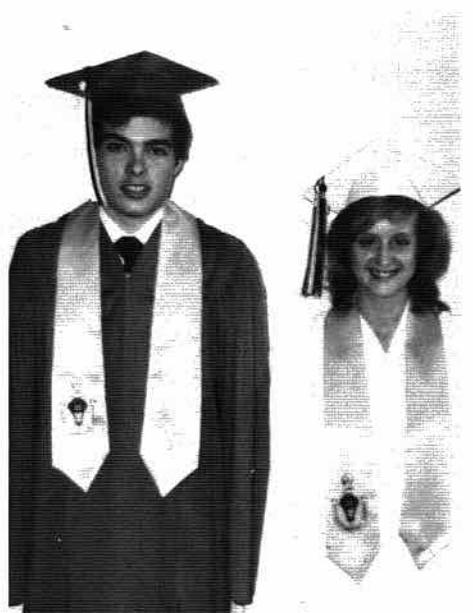

As you look back through the years
It causes you to let go of the tears,
But what was then has gone away
Although the memories will always stay.

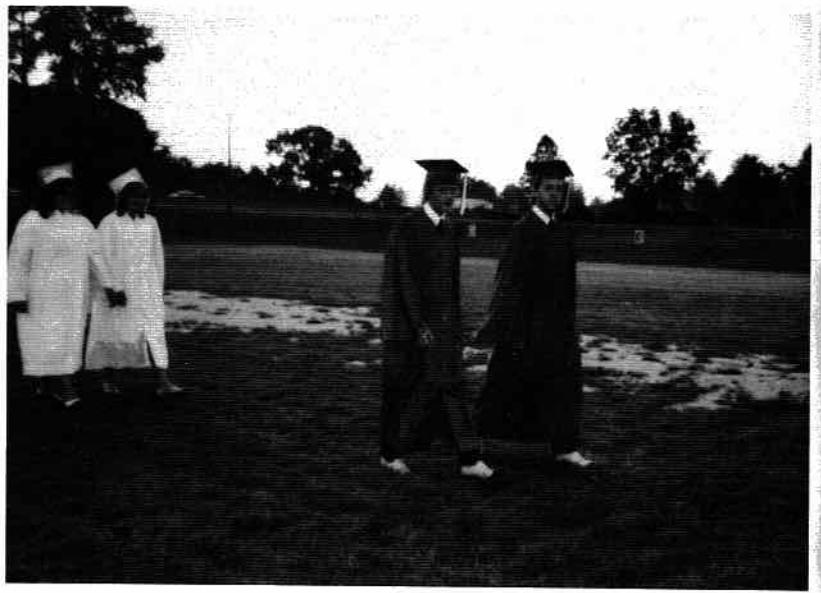

Looking across the room you see
Friends who became big family.
Thinking about the moments you've shared
Showing each other how much you cared.

You've done well and its time for your pay
As you walk up the aisle on your graduation day.
