A Message From the Principal to the Senior Class of '58

As a class you have earned a reputation for doing things in a creditable way. The publishing of the Mountaineer for 1958 is no exception - through your enthusiastic effort and fine spirit of cooperation you have pieced together events of your senior year which will soon become fond memories to us, and I trust be an inspiration for classes which are to follow.

May you ever undertake your problems with as much enthusiasm and with the same spirit of cooperation.

Sincerely your friend,

Roy Buford

Last Will and Testament

We, the duly authorized attorneys, of the regular bar of Section, have hereby, upon behalf of our clients, the class of 1958, of the School of Section, State of Alabama, set our hands to this task of writing this last will and testament.

We further want it to be distinctly understood that if any one of the beneficiaries of this will shall attempt or dispute or in any way change the items of this document, he, or she, will be immediately cut off wholly and entirely from any and all of its provisions.

To the Juniors, to be disposed of as they see fit, we give and bequeath all the tears shed in exams and all the wrong answers set down in moments of weakness.

To the Sophomores, who are soon to become Juniors, we bequeath and devise all our stupidity and facility for blundering at the simplest tasks.

To the teachers, we bequeath all the patience, forbearance, long-suffering and self-sacrifice ever possessed by us.

- I, Brenda Kirby, leave my ability to type 30 minutes per word to Willa Dean Myers, and Joyce Burch.
- I, Jimmy Buff, leave what I've got to Ola Faye Patterson and Donald White. "But I ain't got nothing to leave."
- I, Junior Tigue, will my wise cracks to Newell Keel and Terry Davis.
- I, Clarence Bynum, will my long legs to John McGriff and David Rooks.
- I, Ralph Bryant, will my struggle for making the first team to Rayford Green and Donald Jordon.
- I, Lula Mae Outlaw, leave my chewing gum, which will be found under the third seat, second row, to Mary Edmonds and Buren Knopps.
- I, Martha Hicks, leave all my good suggestions to Henry Louis and Jerry Harris.
- I, Glenda Maynor, leave my flirty ways to Gwin Ballard and Brenda Phillips.
- I, Kenneth Griffith, leave my place on the sideline to Ardell Moss and Rabon Galloway.
- I, Tommy Mewborn, leave all the chemistry equipment I have broken, to Larry Blanton and Barnice Edmonds.
- I, Don Hutcheson, will my "red nose" to Gay Nell McCutchen and Donald Deerman.
- I, Woodson Deerman, leave my "jug" to Rabon Allen and Nina Jo Green.
- I, Lois Strickland, leave my class grumbling to Linda Ziegler and Marjorie Southerland.
- I, Billy Dean Griffin, leave my good looks to Armon Wright and Ted Weaver.
- I, Myra Harris, leave my long hair to Russell Sampson and Ann Smart.
- I, Gracie Mitchell, leave my ability to empty the class room in five minutes by singing, to Jewel Dean Thompson and Linda Wilson.
- I, Charlotte Johnson, leave my ability to tell a story and leave off the knob, to Burma Farmer and Monteen Smith.
- I, Remell Smith, will my excuses to Jep Harper and Charlotte Neeley.
- I, Kenneth Dawson, leave my front seat to Wayne Wynn and Cary Nell Thrasher.
- I, Howard Burch, leave my "dentyne" smile to Bonnie Hancock and Shirley Phillips.
- I, Larry Deerman, will my glasses to Billy Smalley and Leome Lester.
- I, Winnell Vance, leave my quiet ways to Gatha Dell Boozer and Roland Matthews.
- I, Shelby Wilson, leave my silly giggles to Pat Culpepper and Ola Mae Hosch.
- I, Lear Dell Robbins, will my "I don't know" to Harold Reynolds and Carolyn Ray.
- I, Evelyn Chaney, leave my beliefs in long engagements to Linda Sargent, Loeda Edmondson and Carolyn Whitehead.
- I, Winston Moore, will my second-hand Democracy book to Dennis Gray and Bessie Haynes.
- I, Bernice Bray, leave my sparkling eyes to Jo Outlaw and Juanita Holloway.
- I, Carolyn McKenzie, will my badminton racket to Willean Baugh and Peggy Shirey.
- I, Shirley Harper, will my ability to get to class on time to Jimmy Culpepper and Etheleen Dukes.
- We, Ted Ryan and Billie Jean Crawford, "leave," thank goodness.

Hereunto have we set our hand and seal with the understanding that this will and testament is to stand against all attacks of time or change.

Class Prophecy

The year is 1978. Before taking off in our modern passenger jet, we, Ralph Bryant and Evelyn Chaney, decided to go down to Yankee Stadium to see a baseball game. Just before settling down into our seats, we got some pop corn from our old classmate, Tommy Mewborn. After settling down comfortably, we looked around to see who was sitting near us. Up two seats behind us, with one of her fellow chefs, was Lois Strickland now head of one of the famous restaurants in New York City. We had no more time to look around, because the umpire yelled out, "Play Ball!" To our amazement, we saw that it was our 1957-58 class grumbler, Kenneth Griffith. The Yankees came streaming out onto the field. When they took their positions, we discovered that Kenneth Dawson had reached his life long ambition to be short stop for the Yanks.

We did not have time to see all the game, because our plane was to take off shortly.

At the airport one of the mechanics, Lear Dale Robbins, was giving the jet a final check up. There to see us off was an Alabama Senator, Myra Harris.

We climbed aboard into the seats of pilot and co-pilot. As we prepared to leave the ground, we heard the stewardess, Shelby Wilson, say, "Fasten your seat belts, please." After we were well on our way, we looked back to see who was among our passengers. Among the most distinguished passengers was the newly elected President of the United States, Jimmy C. Buff, who was beginning his good will tour. We noticed, slumped down in his seat so as to be unnoticeable, the new F. B. I. director, Winston Moore. He was keeping his eye on Junior Tigue, an international jewel thief.

When we were about half way out, we noticed that a business executive, Shirley Harper, and her book-keeper, Winnel Vance, were almost ready to settle down. And that the children of the former Bernice Bray were getting restless. Our entertainer, Billy Dean Griffith must have seen this too, because just now he made his first appearance of the trip.

Our first stop was in London, England. We only had a few minutes to stay so we went into a coffee shop where Remell Smith served us with a hot cup of coffee. On the television in the shop this news bulletin gained our attention: "Hobo Convention coming to an end. King and Queen with their Attendants Announced." We turned to see if it showed the pictures of the proud winners. It did and we were overcome with surprise to see that the Queen and King were Martha Hicks and Larry Deerman. Their attendants were Glenda Maynor and Woodson Deerman.

We had to rush on our way still baffled by this news cast. Our next stop was in Africa. We stayed on the ground only long enough for Clarence Bynum and Don Hutcheson to get off to begin their careers as missionaries.

The next time we stopped was in Saudi, Arabia. Some American had finally gotten control of part of the oil industry. Brenda Kirby now owns one of the largest and most profitable wells. The reason for our stop here was for the President to confer with Gracie Mitchell, ambassador to Arabia.

On we went to Australia. We stayed over night there in a hotel owned by Billy Jean Crawford and went out to see our old friend and now sheep ranch owner, Lula Mae Tally. We also paid a visit to two former classmates, Dr. Charlotte Johnson and her nurse, Carolyn McKenzie.

We left early next day for South America and stopped to see our former classmate, Ted Ryan, who is now the owner of a uranium mine.

Our final stop was in Alaska where we saw an impressive military parade put on for the benefit of Howard Burch, now a four-star general.

When we started home, we were naming over all the former classmates we had seen and discovered that we had seen them all, that is if we remembered correctly.
