Dedication

A school is only as strong as the strength of the support and co-operation accorded it by the communities which it serves. Because his is an outstanding example of such community support, both tangible and intangible, the annual staff, students, and faculty of Section School dedicate

the 1960 edition of THE MOUNTAINEER to

Mr. Marvin H. Campbell

He worked tirelessly for the establishment of Section Senior High School - has been ever generous with material gifts, including the site on which the new school stands - is interested in the continued growth and progress of the school - and supports all worthwhile efforts toward its improvement. A continuous booster of Sand Mountain and champion of its people, Mr. Campbell is dedicated to the educational, cultural, and economic advancement of his community.

Principal's Message

Throughout your school experiences I am sure you have been told time after time of the rewards that come from tasks well done.

Soon your high school days will become history; and in your reminiscing you will recall many experiences, among which will be that of publishing the 1960 MOUNTAINEER. As you reflect upon this experience, I am sure you will have a pleasant feeling of satisfaction for your success.

To you, the annual staff, Mrs. Webb, your faculty advisor, and the entire class, I offer my congratulations for doing what I expected you to do--an outstanding work.

Sincerely your friend,

Ray Buford

Alma Mater

Section High School, how we love you
And we hate to go;
But our duties call us onward
To another goal.

CHORUS

Faithful, loyal, firm, and true
In our heart you'll stay
Till in that great land up yonder
We will meet some day.

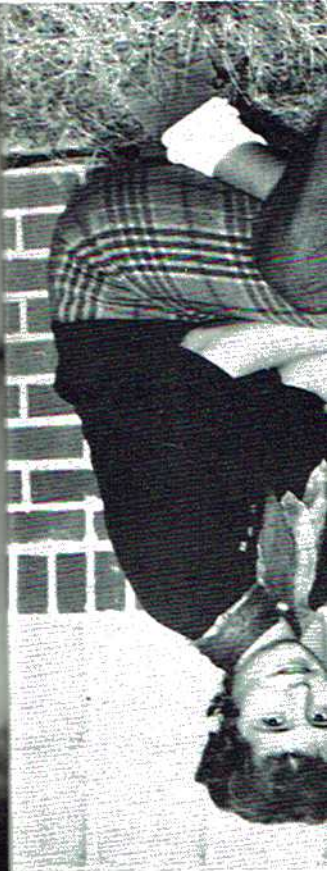

Memories of our high school days
Linger on and on,
Of our teachers and our classmates
While in life we roam.

So farewell, dear Alma Mater,
We give you the praise
For our fun and education
From our high school days.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of Section High School do leave this last will and testament to our followers. To the sophomores, juniors, and seniors TO BE, we leave all the joys, sorrows, and frustrations which accompany those "good ole' high school days." To the teachers and principal we leave our thanks and appreciation for being so kind, tolerant, and understanding while we wandered down the high school road, many times hitting ruts which almost knocked us off balance. We also leave our thanks to the lunchroom cooks for those many hot meals which we did eat.

- I, Roy Fred Durham, leave my ability to try very hard when only the smallest effort is needed to Curtis Sims and Wendell Roden.
- I, Ann Mewborn, leave my ability to get in favor with Mrs. Webb to Mary Whitaker.
- I, Virginia Johnson, will my long blond locks to Martha Myers.
- I, Linda Haynes, will my lovely blue eyes to Glenda Battles.
- I, Lilly Culpepper, will my easy-going personality to Joy Nix.
- I, Marjorie Patterson, leave my ability to work chemistry problems at the bat of an eye to Kathryn Galloway.
- I, Buddy Hicks, leave my ability to get around all the teachers to Mark Strickland and Jerry Taylor.
- I, Donna Wooten, leave my friendly smile to Sue Harper and Betty Lou Phillips.
- We, Lowell Barron and Charles Lands, leave our ability to score high in every game (basketball) to Robert Chaney.
- We, Jerry Myers and Kenneth Tanner, will our bashful attitude toward girls to Eddy Anderson.
- We, Patsy and Peggy Hamilton, leave our ability to make one think he is seeing double to Dorothy Moore and Mary Moore.
- We, Mattie Zell Clayton and Ann Gann, leave our interest in music to Myrvle Brown and Ann Harris.
- We, Linka Carter and Janice Outlaw, leave our neatness of appearance to Annie Ruth Eakin and Peggy Outlaw.
- We, Margie Swinford and Eddie Allen, leave our quiet ways to Lula Mae Clift and Glenn Carroll.
- We, Margie Couch and Helen Tigue, leave our interest in shorthand to Era Hosch and Thelma Zeigler.
- We, Dot Sparks and Gerald Vann, leave our position as teachers' helpers to Evelyn Long.
- We, Dennis Gray and Jerry Sparks, leave our flat-tops to Lonnie Hancock, Billy Taylor, and Donald Murphree.
- We, Ruby Goins, Mazette McCutchen, and Luthuania Puckett will our loud mouths to Faye Patterson and Dorothy Townsend.
- I, David Allen, leave my interest in the 4-H club and its activities to Ellen Thomas and David Rollins.
- I, Gail Martin, leave my position as "Most Beautiful Girl" to Lois McKee.
- I, Faye Dickerson, leave my glasses to Madelyn Nichols and Larry Holland.
- I, Morris Dean, leave my gallantry at all times to Jimmy Carson and Phillip Smith.
- I, Randy Bell, leave my very genuine smile to Carroll Campbell and Linda McGriff.
- I, Martha Lou Ball, leave my ability to become a concert pianist, should I choose to do so, to Carolyn Pass.
- I, Doris Germany, will my ability to make straight A's to Carolyn Johnson and Elizabeth Womack.
- I, Eloise Boozer, leave my dimples to Doris Baldwin and J. B. Smith.
- I, Phyllis Payne, leave my ear-rings to Juanita Wigley and Betty Sue Fossett.
- I, Jerry Pope, will my ability to pop gum in chemistry class and get by with it to Edward Thomas.
- I, Sandra Welborn, leave my "petted" attitude to Carroll Carter.
- I, Gwen Ball, leave my black, naturally curly hair to Audrey Dukes.
- I, Verna Wilborn, leave my dark complexion and long black eyelashes to Beatrice McIntire.
