PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO SENIORS OF 1963

One of the best measurements for an individual's real worth and true character is to observe him in his relation to others and his contribution to group effort. I want to commend you for your very fine spirit of cooperation and your willingness to work to accomplish the success you have thus far.

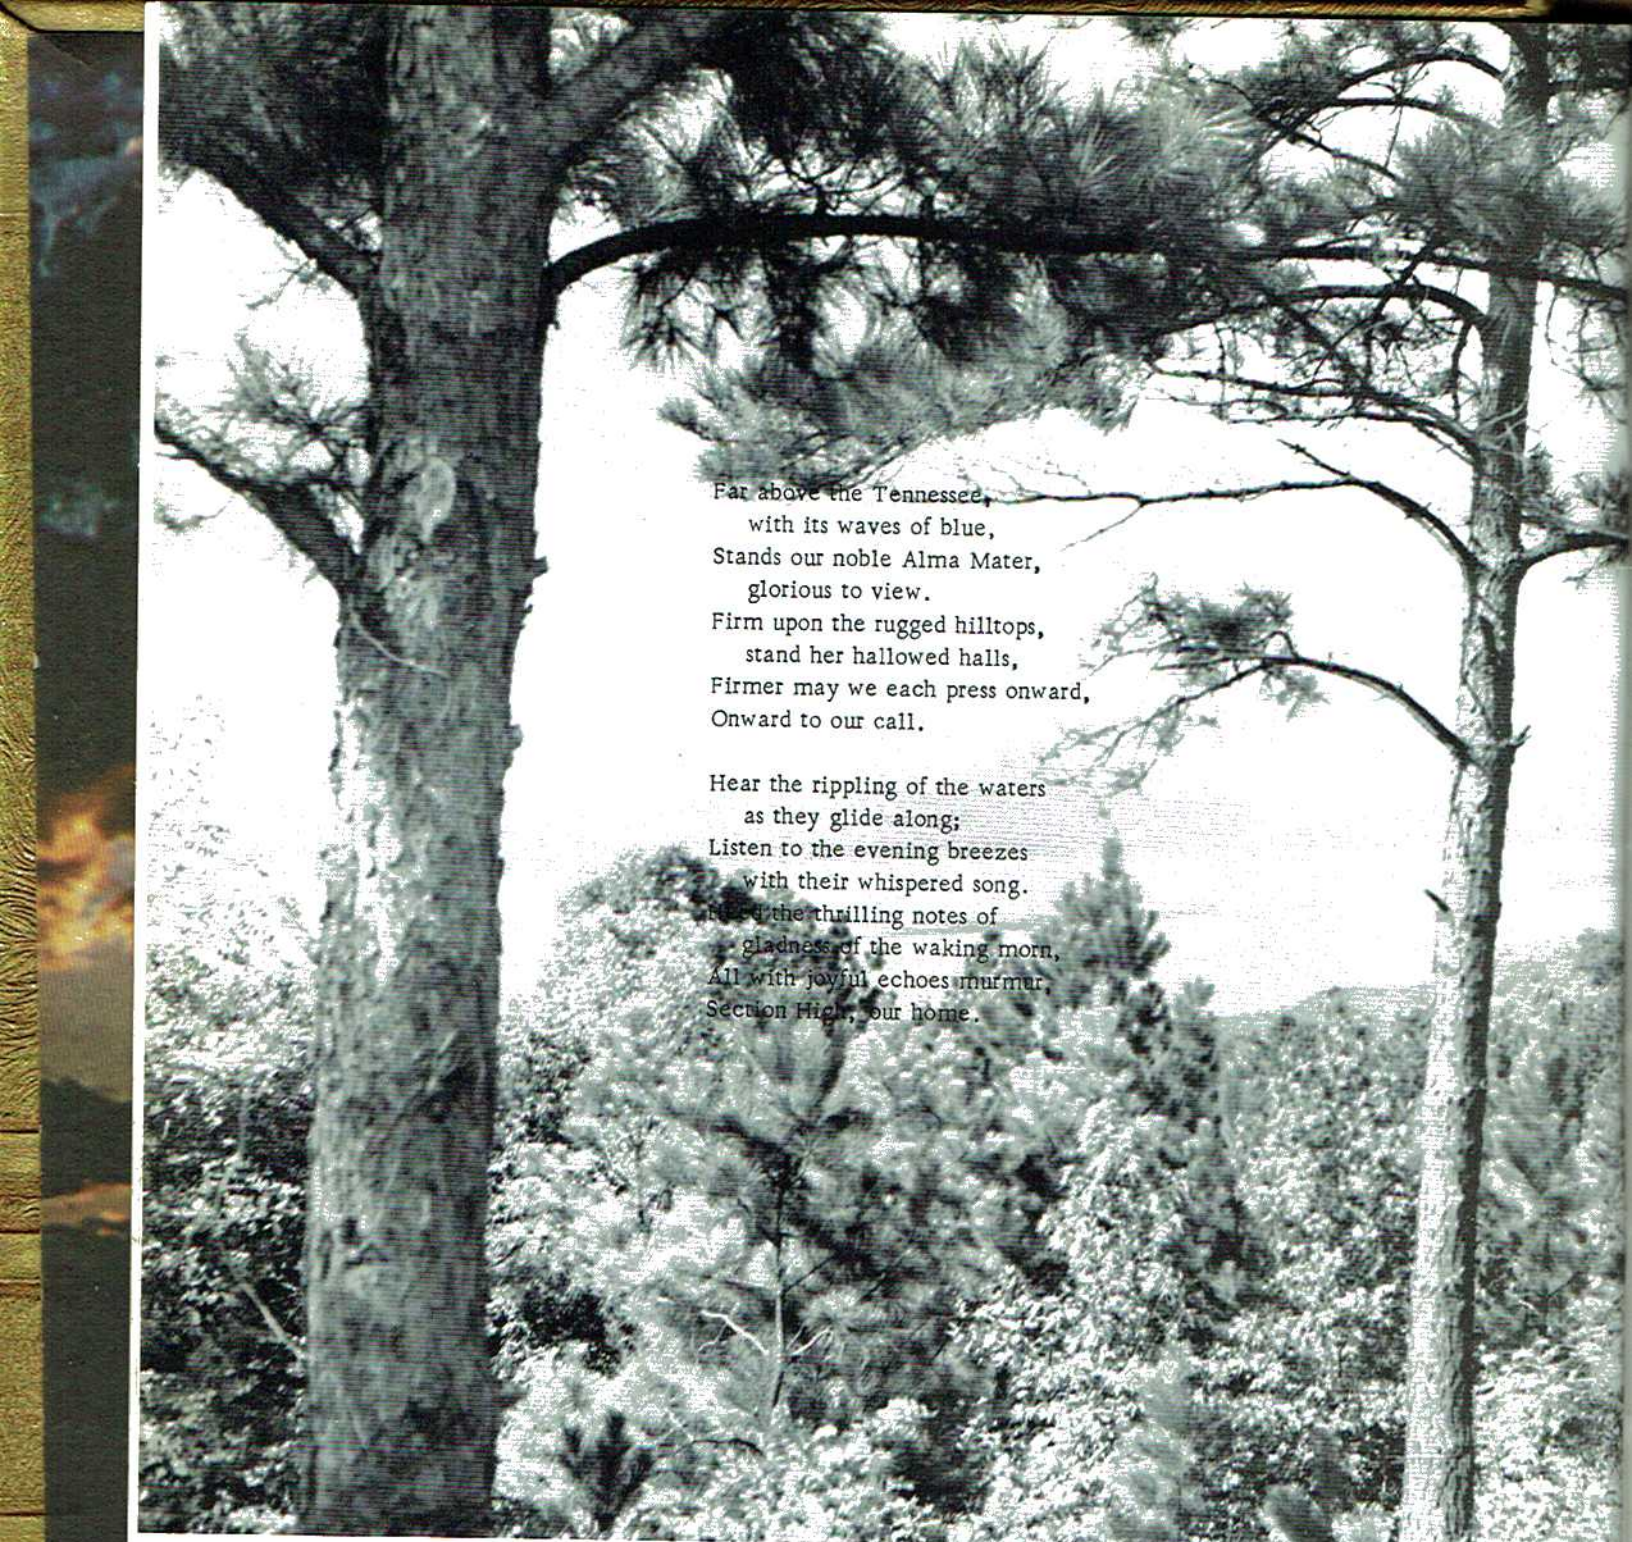

From casual observation, I know the entire annual staff, those responsible for the actual planning and layout, the business staff in charge of selling and financing along with Mrs. Snow, your faculty sponsor, has worked untiringly to give us this finished product - THE 1963 MOUNTAIN-EER. To this group, I feel we are all indebted and I am sure we all join in expressing our appreciation to them.

I trust that each of you will continue to be willing to work with those around you for the advancement of things which seem to be good and worthwhile.

Sincerely your friend,

Roy Buford

ROY BUFORD

Far above the Tennessee, with its waves of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater, glorious to view.
Firm upon the rugged hilltops,
stand her hallowed halls,
Firmer may we each press onward,
Onward to our call.

Hear the rippling of the waters
as they glide along;
Listen to the evening breezes
with their whispered song.
Hear the thrilling notes of the gladness of the waking morn,
All with joyful echoes murmur,
Section High, our home.

Dedication

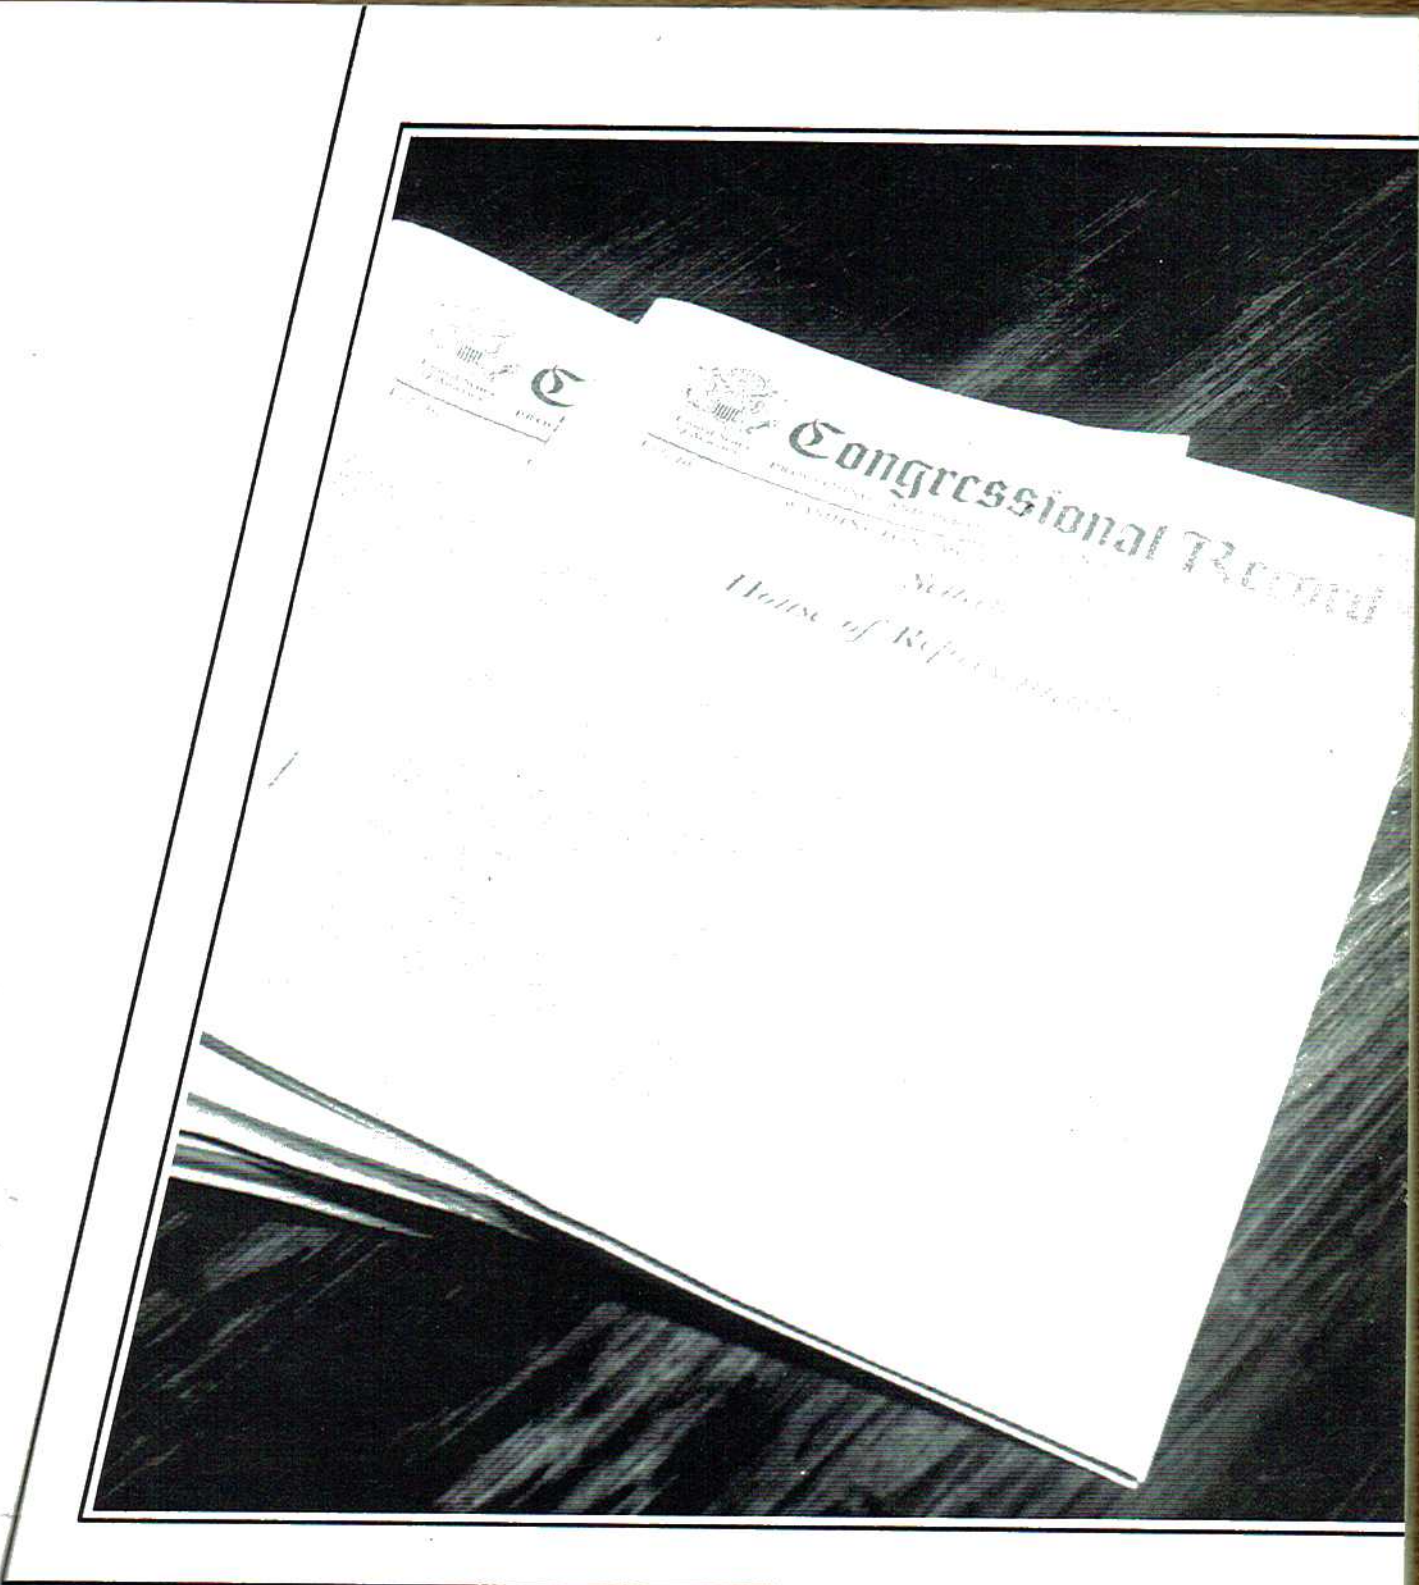

You'll find one in every school. He heads a team. He is praised when the team wins; scorned when it loses. He bears the blunt of its criticism, he holds it together; rejoices in its victories, is understanding in its defeats. He is the basketball coach.

What makes Section High's coach just a little extra special? Several qualities in his personality make him admired and respected, but one quality stands above the rest; he is an example for boys to follow. Whether piloting the team through a losing ball game, observing the team at practice, or giving pointers to a starting Pee Wee, he goes about his job with an air of sportsmanship and a desire to train the bodies and minds of his boys.

For this plus the many other qualities of leadership, character, and perseverance, which he possesses; we, the annual staff, dedicate the 1963 edition of the MOUNTAINEER to Coach C. B. Strickland, in gratitude and acknowledgement of a job well done.

Lions' Roar Staff

Editorial planning and layout for the school paper is carried out by Mrs. Snow, Advisor; Mary Ambrester, Editor; Christine Sparks, Assistant Editor; and Jimmy Nichols, Production Supervisor.

Our production and circulation staffs include Patsy Johnson, Linda Culpepper, Danice Holcomb, and Virginia Wells, Typists; Glenda Harper, Illustrator; Marcus Johnson, Production Manager; and Charles Dunlap, Circulation Manager. These people put the editorial planning to work to produce the finished product.

Our class, club, and special feature reporters provide the news for our editorial staff to work with.

Pep Club

Leading the Pep Club this year are Miss Frances Henson, Sponsor; Mickey Sizemore, President; and Christine Sparks, Vice President.

All 162 Pep Club members assemble in the Gymnasium for a pep rally before the night's big game.

Last Will and Testament

1963

We, the Seniors of Section High School, being of sound mind (?) and body do hereby declare this to be our last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all promises made by us before the present date.

We leave, to the Juniors, these articles of aggravation: 101 used spit balls, 14 rubber bands, 21 empty pen cartridges (suitable for passing notes in class), 4 bent bobby pins (suitable for music), 30 autographed typing boards, 12 broken pencils (lost by Grady Gentles), all bad grades (suitable for nothing), 3 pairs of roller skates (suitable for hurrying to democracy class), 1 box of cake crumbs (left over from Senior Bake sales), and all the wonderful teachers in high school (suitable for the gaining of knowledge).

- I, Toni Hughes, leave my ability to tell a joke and get a laugh and "Herman" to Nita Breland and Faye Benson.
 - I, Douglas Patterson, leave my long hair and "greasy kid stuff" to Dale Haynes and Edwin Golden.
 - I, Mary Ambrester, leave my "B's," which I didn't want in the first place, to Nancy Deerman.
 - I, Rickey Downey, leave my secret to anyone who can find out what it is.
 - I, Dianne Nichols, leave my engagement ring, which I don't need anymore, to Dianna Headrick.
 - I, Patsy Johnson, leave my crazy ways to Vera Zeigler and Bethel Cloud.
 - I, Don Presley, leave my polite, respectful manners to Marcellus Norwood and Jimmy Anderson.
 - I, Wanda Bowen, leave my ability to type 30 words per minute to Charlotte Tilly.
 - I, Brenda Patterson, leave my quiet, thoughtful moments, wherever they are, to Katie Johnson and Kenneth Lawman.
 - I, Linda Culpepper, leave my position as secretary of everything to Margaret Moore and Linda Dawson.
 - I, Patricia Boozer, leave my flirty ways to Joyce Vance and Joyce Loudermilk.
 - I, Danice Holcomb, leave my speed in shorthand to Virginia Stiefiel and Margaret McKee.
 - I, Faye Edwards, leave my secret notes on "How to Catch a Man" to Virginia Cabiness and Virginia Townson.
 - I, Bobby Clark, leave my tall, dark, and handsome features to Marcus Johnson.
 - I, Charles Dunlap, leave my orange socks to Edward Bell and Larry Johnson.
 - I, Burma Gray, leave my good grades to Susan Lassatter.
 - I, Glenda Harper, leave my artistic ability to Ruth Sparks.
 - I, Buford Baldwin, leave my used chewing gum to Glenn Ball and Robert Holloway.
 - I, James Hugh Robbins, leave my quick answers in democracy, even if they are wrong, to Dennis Whitton and James Smart.
 - I, Junior Whitaker, leave my ability to get away with everything, all the time, to V. N. Townson and J. R. Haynes.
 - I, Virginia McCutchen, leave my loud, rowdy ways to Elizabeth Fowler and Peggy Chaney.
 - I, Wendell Britt, leave what I've got, which ain't much, to Harold Yates and James Maness.
 - I, Jimmy Nichols, leave my talent as a well-known playwright to Gary Haymon and Layne Griffith.
 - I, Shirley Benefield, leave my "Good Citizenship Award" to Jo Anne Tigue.
 - I, Jim Stringer, leave my "Beans" to Jerry Cooley and Larry Massey.
 - I, Hugo Walden, leave my proficiency on the trampoline to James Hairston and Edward Goins.
 - I, Charles Burton, leave my endless questions to Jerry Haynes and Glen Wilborn.
 - I, Grady Gentles, leave my ability to never have a pencil or paper in any class on any day to Don Allen and Billy Scoggins.
 - I, Edward Ray Kibble, leave my long legs to Larry Wilson.
- WE, the annual staff leave, THANK GOODNESS!

Marlon Farmer and his monkey, "Cheta" pose for the cameraman.

Keeping the gym floor clean presents quite a problem each day.
