MOUNTAINEER

PRESENTED BY
SECTION HIGH SCHOOL
SECTION, ALABAMA

We, the Seniors of 1970, have past through the last gate in our high school education and we are now ready for our flight to new horizons. But we shall never forget our past years at Section, especially our Senior year. The knowledge, experience, and achievements that we have gained and accomplished at Section will ever be present in our lives because the past is present in the future. We shall have the memories of these, too, because this, the 1970 MOUNTAINEER, will serve as our key to reminiscence.

As editor of the 1970 MOUNTAINEER, I would like to thank Mrs. McGriff, our advisor, for her patience, guidance, and time; the annual staff, whose hard work and assistance have been greatly appreciated; the Faculty, for their patience and co-operation; and our advertisers. Without these and many other supporters, the publication of this annual would not have been possible.

Because of the planning and long hours of hard work that is required to produce an annual, I only hope that our efforts will be rewarded by your enjoyment of this past year at Section that has been captured in pictures.

MRS. BESS M. SISK

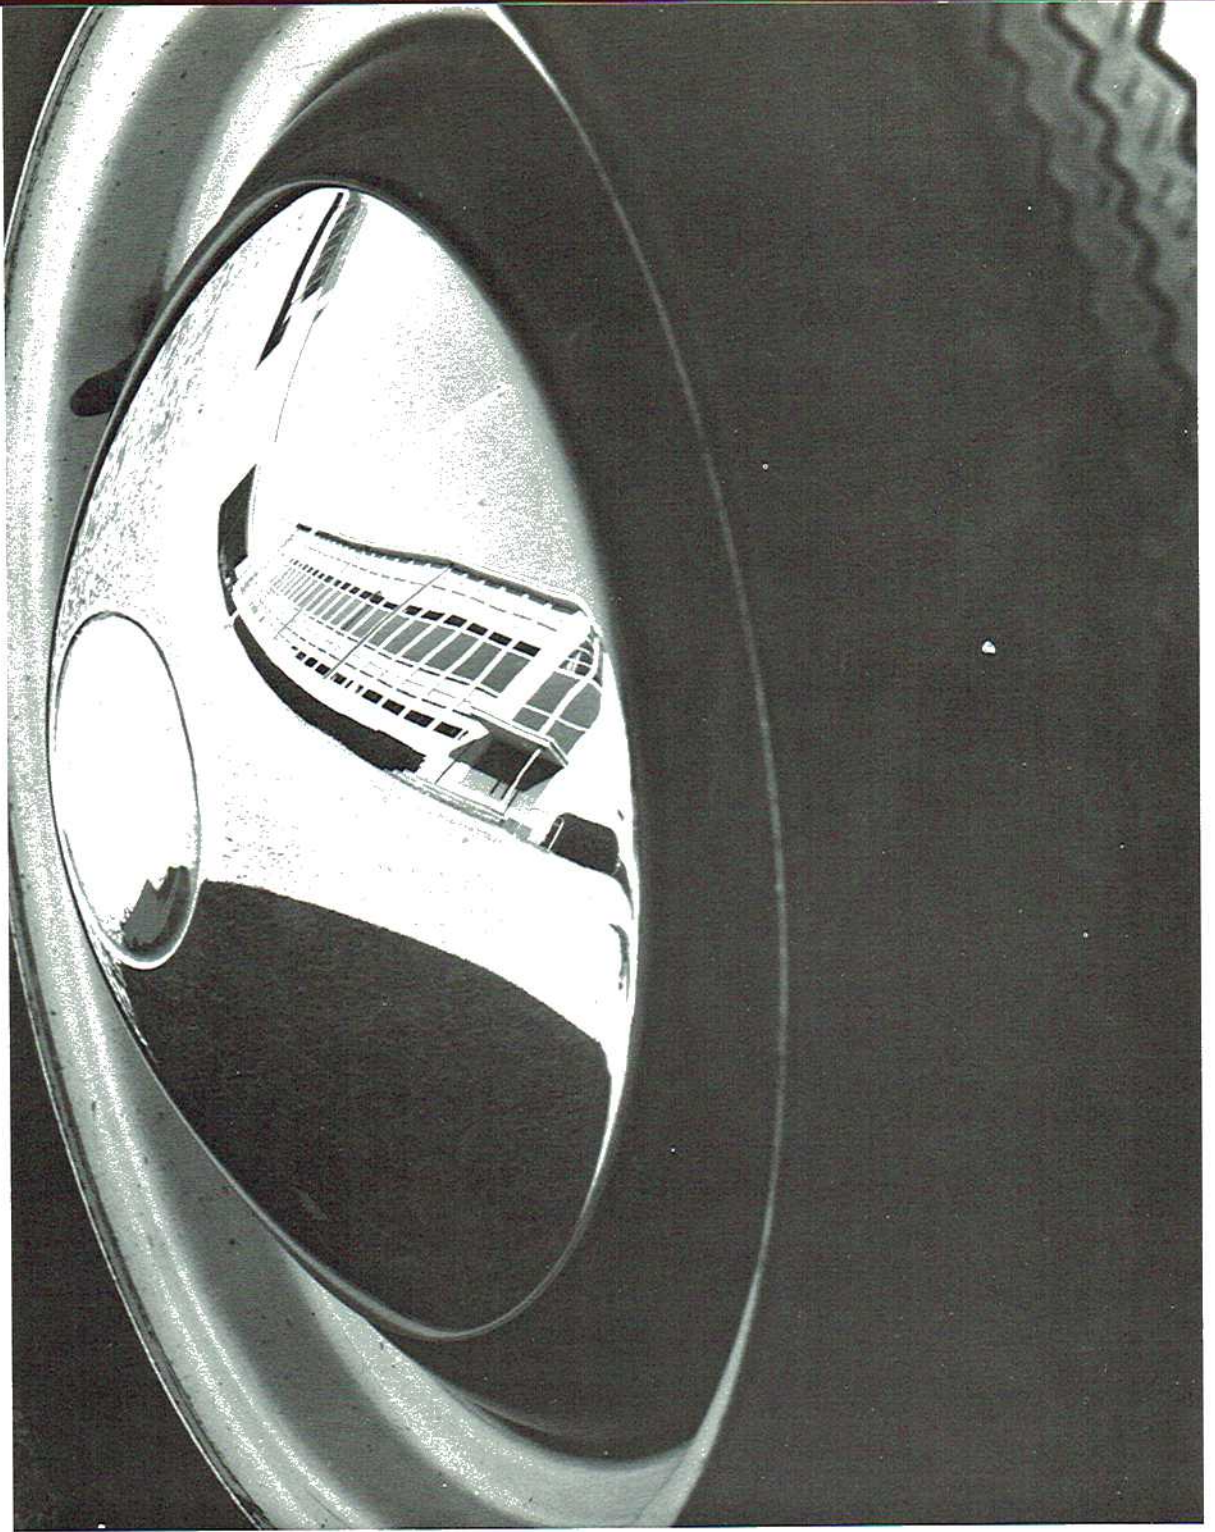

IN APPRECIATION — WE DEDICATE

Mrs. Bess Sisk will always be remembered by the students and faculty of 1969-70 because of her spontaneous personality and her active interest in the students and activities at Section High School. Mrs. Sisk shows her respect and concern for the students not only by sponsoring an active group of F.H.A. members, but also by her every day dealings with them. To one so deserving, we dedicate this, the 1970 MOUNTAINEER, to

CLASS PROPHECY

MOTTO: FLIGHT TO NEW HORIZONS

As Father Time unrolls his scroll in 1990, we prophesy that each member of this class will have made a name for himself in this big, wide world. On the basis of their knowledges inherited, education acquired and experiences obtained during their days at S.H.S., the class prophecy is as follows:

INDIANAPOLIS. Wendell Goff finally chalked up a win this year in the Memorial Day race at the Indianapolis Speedway beating Larry Duncan by one tenth of a second. Wendell has been practicing since his high school days on these speed runs, and this year it paid off in first place money. He has a special section of the grandstand reserved each time he races for seating his out-of-town girl friends, Sybil Sparks and Carolyn Jeffery, who come to watch him perform.

MOSCOW. Officials behind the Iron Curtain today received an ultimatum from the U. S. Ambassador, Steve Durham, for the prompt release of a U. S. citizen, our own Royce Jones, whom they have had in custody for several months. Royce invented a new type of wheat combine and met with such success in Russia that they have refused to let him leave. The ultimatum was issued however, on a plea from Barry Nichols that he be allowed to go back to the U. S. to finish his invention on a typewriter that will not make mistakes. He is sure he can make a million dollars on it if he can perfect it and get it installed in high school typing classes.

NEW SALEM. The City Publishing Company has just presented to Carolyn Puckett a gold bound copy of her latest book, "Friendship is a Golden Chain," which has sold over a million copies. Miss Puckett is the author of a long list of best sellers and tall tales. Her writings are a hobby she pursues in her spare time from her regular job of editing the magazines of Glamor and Mademoiselle.

HOLLYWOOD. Shelia Webb, who always had an answer for everything, got into the big money last night on the TV program, "Keep Talking." She has been a contestant for the past 18 weeks and, so far, has never run out of chatter, thereby raking up a grand total of $15.49. Sheila said she expected to use her earnings to take a trip to Texas where she hopes to make the acquaintance of a rich oil tycoon.

WASHINGTON, D.C. 1990. A special luncheon was given today by President Danny Hancock and his First Lady, the former Becky Varner, on Capitol Hill in honor of Financial Secretary, Steve Holcomb, after an associated press release gave the news that for the first time in the nation's history, the budget had been balanced and that prosperity was at an all-time high. Steve is a certified public accountant, and with his keen business judgment, has wiped out unemployment completely except for a small section in Alabama where we still hear rumors from Section High School that 99% are not working.

NEW YORK CITY, 1990. Madame Kathy Sampson, operatic singing star, has been singing to capacity crowds including old schoolmates, Darlene Strickland and Rickey Wynn, during her ten weeks contract at the Metropolitan Opera House. Her rapid rise to fame she credits to her agent, Mark Hart, and financial backer, Steve Presley. Musical critics James Moss and his associate, Jean Johnson, are lavish in their praise of Miss Sampson's performances and she is booked to sing with the London Symphonic Orchestra next month. She and her agent will travel by jet to England for this assignment.

HOMETOWN, 1990. Carolyn Gillispie, Teresa Edmonds, and Elaine Harper, friends of Donna Swinford, were surprised to see her on TV last night doing the commercial for new improved Geritol, the bone, blood, and body builder. She told of her own personal experience of learning how to gain weight without consuming more food, an experiment she has worked on since her high school days. New Geritol is the product of her efforts. Donna is also a teacher in the Hollywood High School History Department, but works on television to supplement her meager income.

OUTER SPACE, 1990. Jeff McKenzie and Mickey Patterson have staked out one of the first homesteads on the planet Mars. They got a lot of farming experience during high school days and when they heard that there were no women on Mars, they decided that was the place for shy, bashful fellows like themselves to live. So after disposing of their interest in the American Furniture Making Business, they went via space ship to their new homestead.

WASHINGTON, 1990. Jean Clemens, who has a Ph. D. from Columbia University in New York, has been appointed by President Hancock as foreign ambassador to Pakistan. Her knowledge of foreign affairs make her a perfect choice for the post, and the first hand information she gained during the five years she was a private secretary in the White House will be invaluable to her in her new job.

NEW YORK CITY, 1990. Judith Hilley was today awarded $10,000 as a grand prize in the Pillsbury Baking Contest. Judy always was a good cook, but never had the time to enter the contest until she recently lost her job at the National Library of Congress. Her supervisors, Vicky Phillips and Phyllis Hairston, said she was a very efficient librarian but they had to let her go because she spent too much time gazing out the window watching a little cement cart run back and forth on a nearby building project.

RADIO CITY, 1990. Joe Richards, who made his first million on a small farm in Richards County, Wyoming, raising brown-nosed Herefords, with the help of sidekick Rayburn White, now has made his second million on Broadway. Broadway Joe was a most successful farmer but not completely happy on the farm because he liked to be around a string of girls. He has now bought a share in Radio City where he is the producer in charge of the world famous Radio City Rockettes - a half hundred beautiful girls under his control and he says now he has found his fulfillment.

WASHINGTON D.C., 1990. Sue Hancock has been appointed to President Hancock's Cabinet as Secretary of the Treasury. Sue will take over the position as soon as she can get released from her duties as Inspector in the Internal Revenue Department by Cecil Romans, who is in charge of that department. Sue says she feels well qualified for the job for she relates that anyone who can keep a set of class treasurer books for seniors can tackle almost anything.

LOS ANGELES, 1990. The Dodgers today handed the K.C. Athletics a 7-0 defeat and won the World Series. Dewade Kennamer, who pitched the no-hit game also scored two homers to lead the Dodgers.

SAN FRANCISCO, 1990. The National Association of Secretaries today voted Priscilla Lloyd as most outstanding secretary of the year. Priscilla has been employed in the offices of Yakity-Yak TV Associates, a studio for producing TV commercials. She won the recommendation from her boss for this honor of secretary of the year for her contributions to quietness.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, 1990. At the Big Four meeting today, a new diplomat represented the Soviet Union. Likita Pendergrass, more popularly known as the Siberian Arab, explained how he has discovered a new method of heating Siberia. Each morning he gives a 5-minute speech. So much hot air escapes from his talking that it heats the entire continent. He wanted to make a career of the Navy, but his first enlistment was cut short because he roamed all over the ship and was especially aggravating in the cook's galley where he consumed all the goodies that had been prepared for the officer's mess by Ray Carlton.

Before we close this prophecy, we must take a peek at Section High School, 1990.

Down in the Home Economics Department we find Debbie Patterson explaining the proper method of placing a zipper to her confused first year Home Ec. girls.

At the weekly P.T.A. meeting, we find Mrs. Sandra Fossett, Mrs. Cathy Hamlin, and Mrs. Evelyn Swinford speaking to the third grade teacher, Brenda Jernigan, who has retained each of their children in the third grade for 9 years.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIORS OF '70

To our school, we leave our love and our loyalty. We also leave the echoes of our soothing voices, the privilege of looking at our class rings, and all the clever jokes in study hall.

To the Faculty, we leave our appreciation for their understanding and patience and our thanks for their guidance and interest. We also leave them our supply of good grades to give to kids next year and a dozen new red pencils to replace the ones they used up marking our papers this year.

To the Juniors, we bequeath that rare gift called Senior privilege, especially getting to cut line in the lunchroom. We also leave them the ability to raise money and a map to New York and Washington with the hope that they get to go there next year.

Individual members bequeath the following:

I, Faye Carlton, leave to Patricia Knopps, my cluttered up notebook.

We, Ray Carlton, Cecil Romans, and Wendell Goff, leave to Larry Moore, Randy Nichols, and Roger Moore, our ability to get caught while in mischief.

We, Jean Clemens and Mark Hart, leave our pocket book novels to the school library so the kids will have some spicy reading next year.

I, Steve Durham, leave my ability to be late for class to Jim Strickland, and my good looks to Keith Manning.

I, Larry Duncan, leave my ability to join the Navy to Dwight Phillips, and my paper route to Nathan Jones, because he'll need a good job when he gets married.

I, Teresa Edmonds, will my books to Inez McKee, if she will promise to pass them on in as good condition as she receives them.

I, Sandra Fossett, will to Janice Hicks, my dish-water hands and hope she will make good use of them in her role of a bride next year.

I, Carolyn Gillispie, leave my golden curls to Frances Wells, in the hope that she'll discover that blondes do have more fun.

I, Phyllis Hairston, leave my record player to Patricia Selby, and my mini skirts to Patricia Newman and Judy Fossett.

I, Danny Hancock, will my athletic ability to little Ronald Jones and little Charles Kay, if they will promise to throw their weight around in football as I did.

We, Cathy Hamlin, Priscilla Lloyd, and Evie Swinford, leave our ability to get married and still maintain our patience to all the Junior girls.

I, Sue Hancock, leave my position as flunky to the general flunky in the office to Kathy Downs, if she is fortunate enough to get it and crazy enough to take it.

I, Elaine Harper, will to Teresa Anderson, my gift of gab.

I, Judy Hilley, leave my crowded locker to Karen Lester.

I, Steve Holcomb, leave to Ricky Rush, my efficiency, intelligence, and common sense.

I, Carolyn Jeffrey, will all the candy wrappers left from 3rd period study hall snacks to Donna Headrick.

I, Brenda Jernigan, leave my ability to give up and quit to Annette Jackson.

I, Jean Johnson, will to Kathy Johnson, my giggles in the hope that she will do them justice.

I, Royce Jones, leave to Rickey Dunlap and Darrell Jackson, my ability to pass tests without studying as they need it from the looks of their report cards.

I, Dewade Kennamer, will my ability to control my temper to Sam Graden, and my football uniform to Timmy Myers.

I, Jeff McKenzie, will my ability to milk cows to Glenda Pope, as I head she will need it to fit into Gene Hill's future plans to settle down on the farm.

I, James Moss, will my ability to attend school only half a day at a time to Brenda Evans, as she has had a perfect attendance record so far.

I, Barry Nichols, leave my Romeo manners to Archie Baldwin and Joe Graden, and my position as F.F.A. President to Ned Holcomb.

I, Debbie Patterson, leave my vocabulary notebook to Andrea Griffith, and my geometry notebook to Loretta Townson.

I, Mickey Patterson, will all the towels, wool socks, and a pair of basketball shoes that I have lost in the Boys dressing room to Coy Holt and Noel Sargent, if they can find them.

I, Marlon Pendergrass, leave all my wrong answers in Democracy to Danny Anderson, for they tell us he never has anything right in other classes and we want Democracy to be no exception.

I, Vicky Phillips, leave my inability to cheat on tests to Jean Jones and Frances Wilborn.

I, Steve Presley, will my job as carry-out boy at Piggly Wiggly to Wayne Townson, who may need it to support his wife.

I, Carolyn Puckett, leave to Marilyn Bailey, my position of being the Best All Around girl in the Senior class.

I, Joe Richards, leave my front seat in English class to either Ellis Goff or Kenneth Justice, whichever one is lucky enough to get it.

I, Kathy Sampson, leave to Jane Boozer, my bottle of Sun-In.

I, Syble Sparks, leave to Kathy Pickett, my position on the basketball team when the Senior girls play the Faculty.

I, Darlene Strickland, will my ability to wear a big class ring all through high school to Kathy Hughes.

I, Rebecca Varner, leave my ability to goof-off and get away with it to Betty McKenzie and Martha McKenzie.

I, Rayburn White, leave to Phillip Puckett and Paul Yates, my ability to keep quiet.

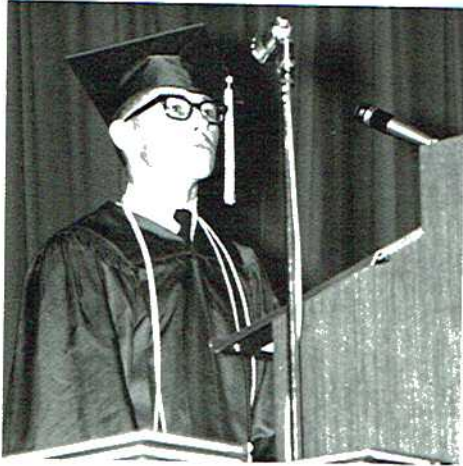

I, Shelia Webb, will to Dianne Gerbige, my typing ability and my bottle of pills go to Janice Baldwin to make her grow big and tall.

I, Rickey Wynn, leave my job at Van Heusen to Mitchell Black, since he loves to work there anyway.

We, the Senior Class, leave our old Economics tests, chicken bones left over from Sunday dinners, used Rook cards, and unsold car tags, to anyone who can use them.

We, the Senior Class, being of sound mind, have left the preceding, and now we just want to leave.
