THOSE WERE THE DAYS OF BOOKS AND BELLS

There's something special about being a student at SKYLINE HIGH. It's like living on a big sphere in the middle of space where you can see, hear, run, walk, sit, stand, stretch, and take advantage of all the experiences that surround you.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS OF SPIRIT — STRATEGY — VICTORY

With common goals, and common longings, we laughed, we loved, we played, we won. Those were our school days, our happy days. They were real because we made them real. They were alive because we existed.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS OF HAPPINESS

Once upon a time, we lived with hearts that raced and minds that dreamed and clocks that had no hour hands.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS OF SORROW

And then, as suddenly as they had dawned, they faded into the less carefree days of being a SENIOR. And eventually they are gone, those happy days in school.

Did I utilize the days and the months to form lasting friendships with others, or will the experiences we shared be lost forever with the closing of a book, never to be of benefit to me in a more serious later life?

THOSE WERE THE DAYS OF TOGETHERNESS

Happy, we unite. For the year brings with it many examples of friendship. Though fun, through it all runs a ribbon of sturdy silence. Togetherness can't be explained by noises or words. It's best considered in the quietness of our afterthoughts.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS OF ENTHUSIASTIC FACULTY

Around the corner are the unknown days of tomorrow. Who knows the future that they will bring?

THOSE WERE THE DAYS OF CELEBRATION AND FUN

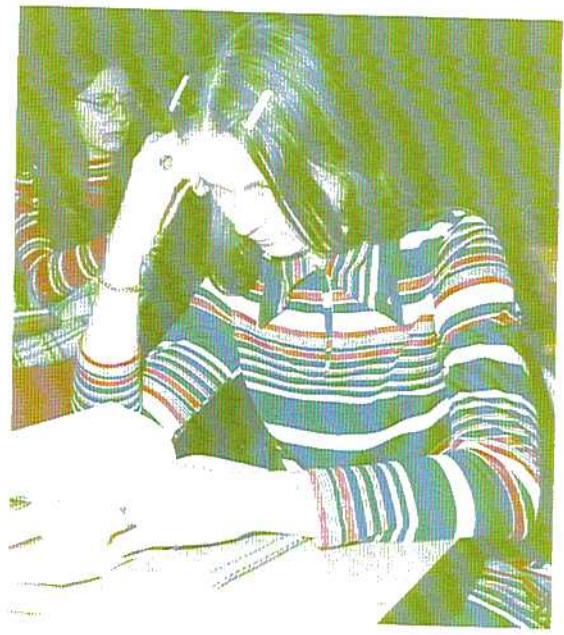

It's enough simply to be alive at SHS . . . to feel the excitement and pride . . . to hear the ring of laughter in the air . . . and of course, to be a

Brenda aims, but I don't think she hits.

There isn't enough for four. Shelia sneaks up for a closer look while Debra avoids looking at the food.

Coach Hamilton swigs a little milk while his audience awaits the ending.

We have so much to talk about.

Happiness Can Be Regained

As We Remember Darnell's

Spirit and His Interest

In Skyline School

1974 1975

This is about a group of boys
Who ran and jumped like rag toys.

People stayed behind and supported the team
Until they came to the end of the line.

It was something special to watch them play,
Or at least that's what I heard everyone say.

But now that the suits are all turned in,
There won't be anymore games to win.

This bunch of boys who were once a good team
Will all fade away or so it will seem.

Basketball is over for this year,
And the sound of the crowd we will no longer hear.

It might all be over for now,
But it will be back someday, somehow.

First Graduating Class of Skyline High School
Class of "75"

We are all proud to be a part of the first graduating class of Skyline High School. It is a great honor, but it is also a sad occasion for all of us, leaving the best thing that ever happened to us. We are really proud of all the parents, friends, and teachers that worked so hard to get an accredited high school, so that we don't have to change schools and risk our lives going off the mountain on a loaded bus. We're just trying to show our appreciation to all of you for your hard work and achievement.

THANK YOU

Class of 1975
singing their Alma Mater
on graduation night

ALMA MATER

On the mountain's lofty summit
Reared against the sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Cherished by our friends and neighbors
Sweet the memories grow
Round our hearts our Alma Mater
Guards from every foe.

Forward ever be our watch word
Conquer and prevail
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Skyline High all hail.
