Class Prophecy

This is the fall of 1987, and it is time for our class reunion. It really doesn't seem like it has been ten years, but as I, Sandra Cotten, board the Skyline Subway, I find my way to a vacant seat. I notice one of the famous rock stars sitting beside me. It is Tim Evans, leader of the hottest group "Dead Grass." We talk about the fun times we've had. I told Tim I now had a horse ranch and he could come over for a free ride. The subway made it's stop at Gizzard Point. Debbie Talkington and Sharon Harrison got on and took the seat in front of us. I recognized Sharon right away by her tan, and Debbie, by the way she laughed. We all got to talking and Sharon told us she was a beach bum on Miami beach and collected shells as her pastime. Debbie told us she was the Graphic Arts instructor at Jackson County Technical School, and that she was now working on the Fiddler's book. As we head toward the Joyce Kenamer Stadium we notice a huge crowd outside the gate trying to get the autograph of all the famous people attending our class reunion. There is Steve Saint, now General of the Army. He talks like he will have a good political future ahead of him. Then there's Wanda Parker, the famous artist who is now painting the picture of Billy Carter, the President of the U.S. As we walk through the stadium we notice someone bouncing a basketball. Of course it was Butch Clark, captain of the Cumberland Mountain Basketball Team, now the leading team in the N.B.A. We saw Karen Manning, the star who took over Farrah Faccett-Majors place on "Charlie's Ankles," surrounded by people who wanted her autograph. Wayne O'linger, who is now a policeman at Hytop, was trying to get the crowd away from Karen. He was wanting to get her autograph and ask her out for a date. We hear a squeeling of tires, (we run to the window) and see Tony Bailey, now a successful stock car driver, pulling up. Right behind him was James Morris, who was driving his own private semi. We found out later James owned the largest trucking company in the South. Benny Bohanon, now principal at Skyline High, comes over to greet us and to give us a program. We read the program and find some of our classmates will provide the entertainment for the reunion. Moe and Kelvin Hardin, who are now stars on the Grand Ole Opry, are going to sing a song written by Mo, "Tonight the Ex-lax let me Down." Steve Davis, a dancer who took Fred Astairs place, is going to do the Robot played by Terri West on the drums. And at the last minute Tim Decides to do his latest hit "Arrested While Driving Blind." Everybody wanted Ed Hill, who is now a carpenter to sing his song "My Ding-a-Ling." Mickey West, an electrician came up and told us his back was hurting. Vera McAllister who owns a massage parlor said she would give him a free massage and to drop by any time. Now its refreshment time, all the food was provided by Steve Avans, manager of Burger Chef. After everyone had eaten, Russell Smith, owner of Warehouse Grocery, provided the Alka Seltzer, but Russell made everyone pay for them. We saw Rickey West with a Myna Bird on his shoulder. He owns Lay's now and is giving Sam a good home. We all started looking around to see who we hadn't talked to yet. We see Kenny Johnson, Mayor of Skyline, who appeared to be talking to himself. We took a closer look and saw Kathy Wilkins, his faithful secretary right behind him taking notes. We saw Treva Avans, now owner of Avans Construction Company talking to Rhonda Bullock. Rhonda was trying to sell Treva some work clothes from her clothing store. We saw Debbie Owens, who now runs a charm school. She told us that Brenda Cornelius was one of her successful models. Danny Brewer, a refrigerator repairman, walked in and showed us his finger he just cut on a refrigerator. Carol Jones, a hospital administrator, comes running over and puts a band-aide on it. We then see Faye McBride with a lot of kids following her. She laughed and told us she ran a day nursery. The reunion was over and Steve Golden came over and tried to sell us a car. Steve owns a Ford car lot. He told us he would give us a special deal. We thanked him and told him no, that we had a ride on the subway. Jerry Saint overheard us and told us he owned the subway and he would let us ride free. As we all part we wonder how it will be ten years from now.

Nothing Gold Can Stay

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden Sank to grief
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.
