Our Farewell to S.H.S.

In the first life that we came to know,
Everything was simple; from mud pies to Play-Dough.
All our problems were solved by Mom and Dad,
But there was something to our lives that we soon had to add.

About six years into this newfound life
Came something new; filled with fun but sometimes strife.
It was called school and it turned our simple world upside-down.
But we made friends like Tim, our class flirt and Ronald, our class clown.

After the first year we thought it might not be so bad.
We had teachers now to help solve problems instead of Mom and Dad.
In solving our problems, we made love from hate and laughter out of tears.
Together, we made it through twelve long years.

We met as strangers but pulled together as a class.
We had our struggles along the way but we made it at last.
We've grown well together as the Class of '85,
But now it's time to try our wings;
it's time for us to fly.

Our school days are over now as we step out on our own,
But the memories we've made here will go on and on.
The problem solver now is not Mom or Dad, Mr. Williams or Mrs. K;
It's the individual that has grown inside each one of us.

There's only one thing more we could possibly express
Before we bid our farewell to S.H.S.
"We'll do our best and forever strive,
Cause we're the Seniors of '85".

Kenise Mashburn
Leonard Van Hanzleden
