PANTHER TALES

1965

Presented by
THE CLASS OF 1965
Stevenson High School
Stevenson, Alabama

From the Editors' Pen . . .

We, the graduating class of 1965, hope that as you leaf through the following pages you will share with us some of our fondest memories and past experiences.

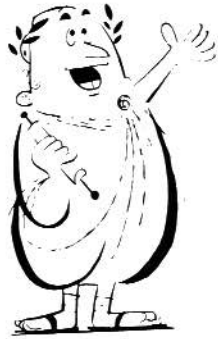

Look closely at our past then go with us into the future, realizing as we do that "gone are the yesterdays but the sun dawns on a new tomorrow."

Because he is our friend . . . encouraging, advising, and contributing his warm understanding whenever we need him . . .

Because he has guided us enthusiastically and often lent us the strength for success . . .

Because he is a teacher who arouses in his students a new faith in their ability, who instills a love of truth and honor, and who, by the sincere dedication of his abilities, has inspired those about him . . .

We are exceedingly proud to dedicate this yearbook to . . .

Mr. Jack Cornelius

FACULTY

Serving his first year as principal of Stevenson High School is Mr. Truman Maples. Mr. Maples received his BS degree from Jacksonville State College and his M.Ed. degree from the University of Chattanooga.

We are indeed fortunate to have such a capable person as Mr. Maples with us as principal.

The PANTHER TALES Staff joins with the entire Student Body in saying Welcome to you, Mr. Maples.

ACTIVITIES

Class Prophecy

In December, 1985, L. C. Moore may be seen sweeping up after the reindeer in the annual Birmingham Christmas Parade.

In June, 2008, Billy Dixon will finally have a PANTHER TALES dedicated to him after serving SHS 38 years.

In January, 1985, President Reagan Steele will suffer stage fright while delivering his "State of the Union Address." Things won't be too bad though, until Vice-President Tim McCoy starts taking pot-shots at the Yankee senators.

In May, 1978, Frankie Allen, while serving in Hawaii with the Navy, will break the world's record for the hundred-yard-dash as he chases hula girls across Wakiki Beach.

In March, 1975, Kenny Blevins will begin his career as a ghost writer for a famous poet.

On December 29, 2038, Linda Rudder and her husband will celebrate their Diamond Anniversary after being happily married for 75 years.

In August, 1970, Jean Meeker and Martha Peters will buy an old PT boat and spend their time rescuing lost sailors.

In November, 1976, Betty Carter and Becky Long will take charge of a dairy dip called "B & B."

In September, 1989, James Williams will use his skill as a veterinarian on Pat Russell who will break his leg while coon hunting.

In June, 1970, Marines Susan Searcy and Pat Hicks will prove once and for all that the Marine Corps does not necessarily "build men."

In August, 1972, Loretta Roberts will talk to a boy for one solid hour without blushing once.

In March, 1969, Nolan Peters will become president of the Amalgamated Bull-shooters Association.

In February, 1990, Lavenia Graham and Elizabeth Guess will be dealing blackjack in Linda Elliot's gambling hall, the "Paradise Lost."

In July, 1983, Donald Kirk and Dwain Roberts will be selling rain hats to Arabian nomads.

In November, 1987, Janice Whitaker will be teaching interior decorating at Oxblood University.

In August, 1975, Sarah Stewart and Katherine Higdon will play against each other in the United States Billiards Championship Game in New Orleans.

In May, 1968, Robert Curtis and Jerry Rich will become typewriter repairmen.

In October, 1973, Carolyn Powell will be modeling bikinis in a Miami Fashion Show.

In June, 1984, Johnny Matthews and James R. Williams will resume their job of hauling hay for Loyd's Dairy after a week-end of high spirits.

In May, 1974, Harold King will begin his career writing corny jokes for "The Philip Samples Show" which will replace Les Crane on ABC.

In April, 1987, Carolyn Arnold, (I beg your pardon, Carolyn Lindsey) will take over Lindsey's Coal Company.

In January, 1970, Jo Meyers, Laura Timberlake and Ann Wilkerson will all go out and buy brand-new rolling pins to keep their husbands in line through the following year.

In July, 2040, J. C. Pearson and Edward Wooden will be in the guardhouse for drag-racing in their wheelchairs in front of the old soldier's home.

In November, 1986, Shelia Roberts will become Stevenson's first female police chief with Marie Stubblefield as her #1 deputy.

In June, 1977, Betty Davis, making a desperate bid to "get her man", will join the Royal Canadian Mounties.

In September, 1971, Johnny Barnes will get the Rookie of the Year Award while playing shortstop for the Atlanta Crackers.

In October, 1982, Jean Batey, Beverly Rich, and Gladys Davis, while serving as missionaries in the Fiji Islands, will be invited to supper by a group of friendly cannibals.

In January, 1972, Janice Bradford will peroxide her hair, become a lady wrestler, and call herself "The White Tornado."

In December, 1971, Sonny McCrary and James Lee Purdy will run the Beatles out of business with their own swinging group, "The Cockroaches."

In April, 1968, Mary Lou Hallman and Linda Summers will join the USO just so they can entertain all those lonely G.I.'s overseas.
