You enter SHS full of plans for the days ahead ... anticipate the inspiring pep rally ... procrastinate studying for that test ... fight your way through the crowded halls only to be late for class again ... work goes hand in hand with the fun here, you profit from the work and long remember the fun.

We, the Senior Class and staff of 1972, dedicate this edition of the Panther Tales

To

Mr. Truman Maples

for his many years of devotion, patience, understanding, and guidance shown to the students of SHS.

This is just a small way of saying thank you to someone who has been "a guiding light unto our lives."

Co-editors, Marilyn Patterson and Joy Williams look over the layouts.

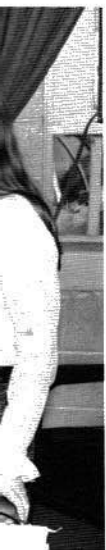

Feature editors, Debra P. Guess, Diane Stewart, Kathy Wooden, and Debra Guess discuss the feature articles.

Class editors, Ernestine Mitchell, Estella Hopkins, Lynn McMahan, and JoAnn Lankford discuss the class news.

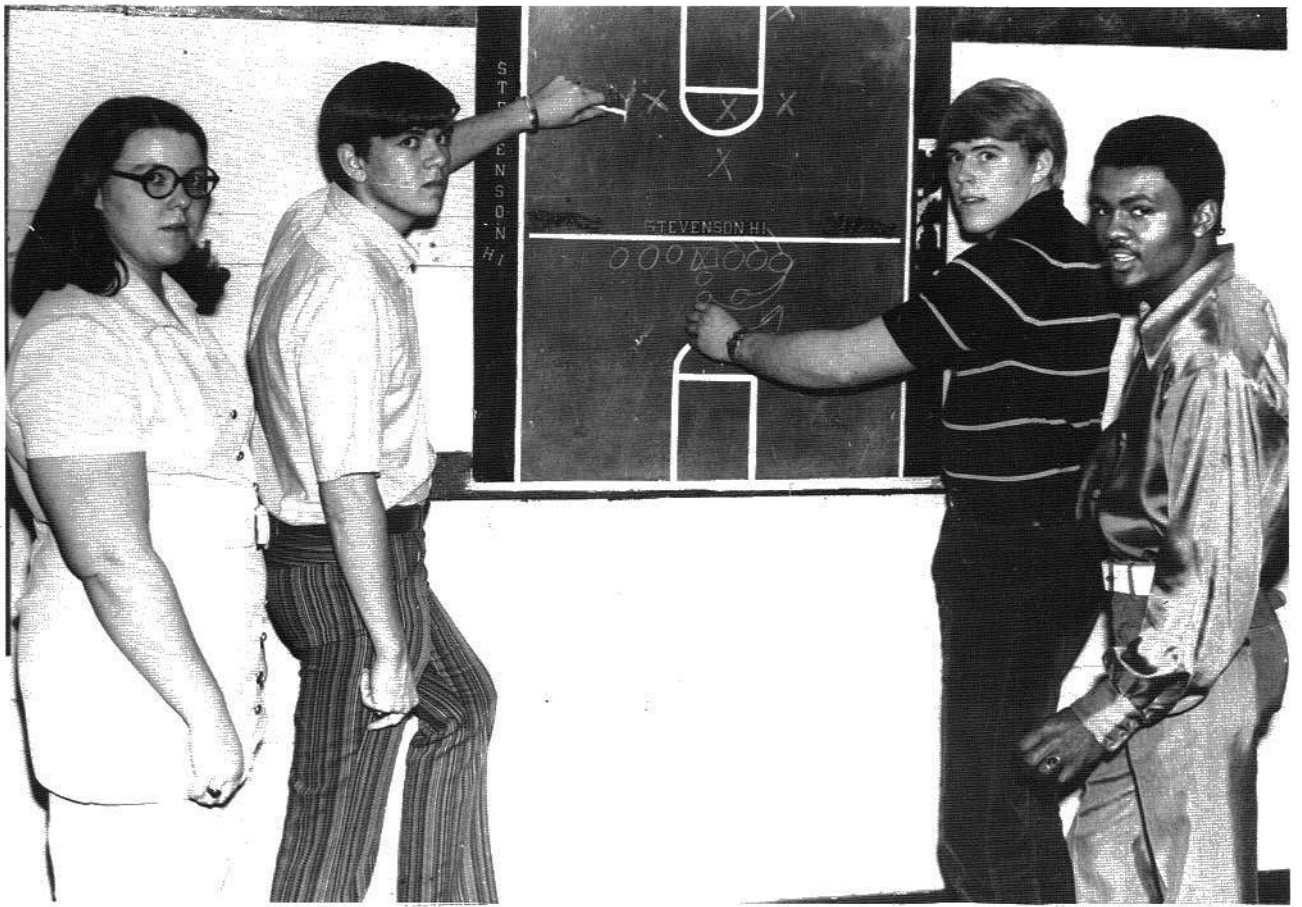

Phyllis Mason, typist, looks on as Sandy Goff types up an article.

Kathy
icles.

as Sandy

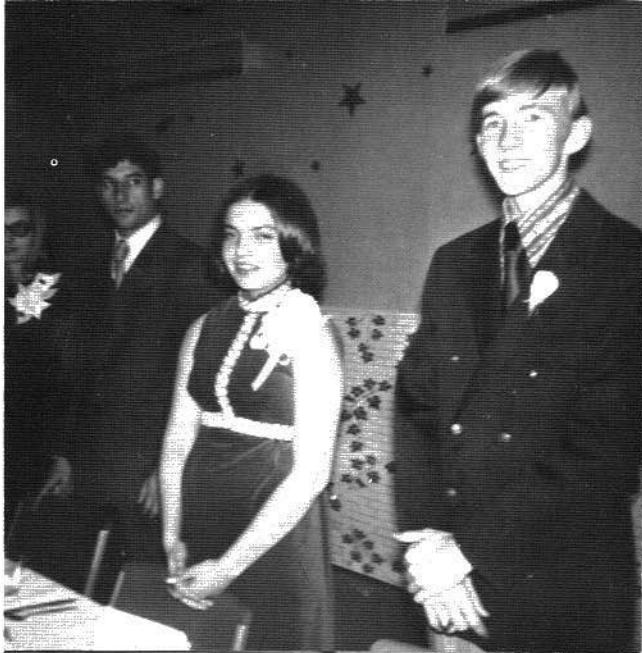

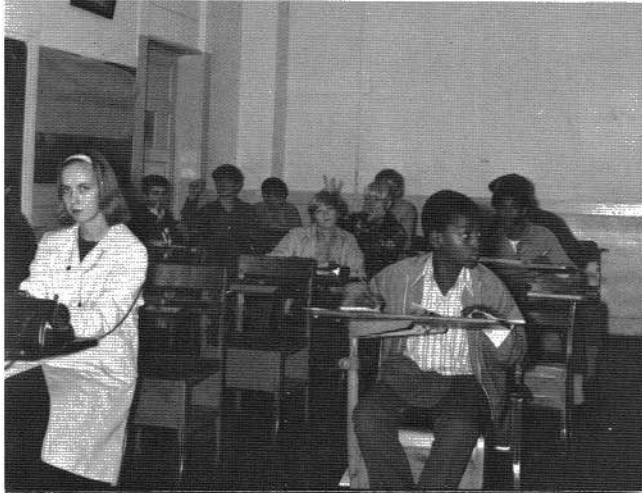

Sports editors, Paul Morris and Johnny Kelley seem to disagree on which sport should come first as assistants Carmalita Mason and Willard Scott look on.

Organization editors, Anthony Gambel, Bill Barnette, Larry Smith, and Joyce Gonce look over their pictures and material for the clubs.

S H S ALMA MATER

On the city's southern border
Reared against the sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Forward, ever, be our watchword
Conquer and prevail
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
S H S all hail.

Cherished by our sons and daughters
Sweet the memories strong,
Round our heart our Alma Mater
As we sing this song.
