KENNETH HODGES

Dedication

To those who have inspired us
in our undertakings;

To those who have aided us in our school activities;

To those for whom we pledge
our everlasting loyalty, love,
and devotion;

To the parents of the students
of the Senior Class;

We, the Seniors, dedicate this volume of the Panther.

Principal's Message

Congratulations to the graduating seniors as you leave us and head out into the world. I wish you every success possible. As you go along life's pathway, always keep these few thoughts close to you. We can never do anything better than to develop within ourselves good character, health, joy, friendship, and respect toward others, happiness, peace within, and especially the ability to adjust to changing situations.

As each of you go your individual way, I hope you find the love and happiness that you so richly deserve in life. If ever you should fail to do this, always remember there is one to whom you can turn.

As you are dealing with your fellowman, remember that kindness and courtesy will always pay big dividends.

Billy H. Raines

Senior Class Prophecy

As I am sitting here thinking about the twelve years of our school life, the changes that have taken place in the last twelve years, I wonder what more changes will take place within the next twelve years. As I am thinking of these things, I seem to view the future through a crystal ball.

As I bring the crystal ball into focus, the first person I see is Jane Thomas. She is a happily married housewife with three children.

The next person I see is Rabon McCormack. He works at the Arsenal with his brother, and together, they are going places.

Well, well! If it isn't J. O. Wallace. He has finished a course in electronics, and is a television repairman. He makes good money.

Now don't that beat all! I see Doyle Knight. He is happily married and works for a large construction firm in Birmingham. He also has two fine boys.

Next, I see Edwin Page. He owns a 200-acre plantation in South Carolina. It seems that he is getting rich.

Now Ray Blankenship comes into view. He is general manager of Murphy's, Inc., and is a rapidly advancing young executive.

There's Faye Elkins. She has become a nurse and is working in one of New York's largest hospitals.

Next is David Crawford. He is a sergeant in the United States Air Force, and he really enjoys making life hard for his recruits.

Hi there, Nina. Nina is happily married, and she also has a fine career ahead of her as a dress designer. Good luck, Nina.

Well, there's Wanda. She is now world-renowned as a great singer, and has a glamorous future ahead of her in Hollywood.

I see that Joe Frazier is having a fine time. He, like Ray, is also a rising young executive, and is head manager of A and P's Alabama branches.

Now I see Mark Latham. Mark has overcome his laziness, and is a nationally famous basketball player. He plays with the Boston Celtics.

Next is old George Privett. Besides being happily married, he is employed in an insurance agency, and is fast becoming a top salesman.

Well, there's Jane Evans. She is also happily married and she has four children.

Next, I see Katie Faye Manning. She is a stenographer in one of New York's most famous law offices. Congratulations, Katie.

Well, there's Evelyn Mount up above the clouds. She is an airline stewardess for Pan-American Airlines.

Hi, James Loyd. He has a large farm in the Paint Rock River Valley. He is very happy and raises the best crops in the state.

Now I see Howard Cain. He finally has achieved his ambition. He is the center-fielder for the Los Angeles Dodgers and a good one, too.

Next is Isaac Bellomy. He works as chief of the state docks at Mobile. He is one of the best that they have ever had.

Well, well. Hi, Wayne. Wayne is happily married, the father of two boys and a girl, and has a brilliant future as a lawyer. Who knows, he might even make state attorney.

Now I see Wilma Shepard. She is one of the June Taylor Dancers, and a good one, too. Congratulations, Wilma.

The next person is Opal Short. She is top secretary to one of the richest firms in the United States. A job like that has a future.

Next is Jean Paradise. She is teaching English at Woodville, and she is well-liked by her students, because she is firm yet lenient.

Now I see Jewell Guess. She is very happy as a housewife and manager of Dunnavants, in Huntsville.

Well, well. Hi, Bettye Pockrus. Bettye is a hostess on the S.S. United States, one of the largest passenger ocean liners. Congratulations, Bettye.

Next is Edgar Pritchett. Edgar is the captain of his own cargo ship. He ships between the United States and all other countries of the world. He is getting rich.

There's Lester Manning. He is working for a large construction firm in Chicago, but he still plays ball in his spare time.

Last, I see myself, Larry Johnson. I have graduated from the United States Air Force Academy, and, boy, can I fly those jets!

Now the vision within the crystal ball is becoming dimmer. Soon it will no longer be seen. Will this vision ever become a reality? I wonder.

Last Will and Testament

- I, Wanda Latham, will my ability to tell jokes to Elizabeth Miller.
- I, Wilma Shepard, will my flirty ways to Joan Reed.
- I, Nina Harrison, will my ability to go steady to June Bellomy.
- I, Joe Frazier, will my witty ways to Floyd Keller.
- I, Isaac Bellomy, will my "technique" to Paul Keith.
- I, Wayne Thomas, will my ability to be true to Milton Buckner.
- I, Katie Faye Manning, will my ability to catch a man to Juanita Latham.
- I, Jane Thomas, will my desk in the outer office to Faye Hulsey.
- I, Faye Elkins, will my studious ways to Betty McGehee.
- I, Larry Johnson, will my quiet ways to Glenn Miller.
- I, James L. Johnson, will my roving eyes to Cranford Smith.
- I, Jean Paradise, will my friendly ways to Doyle Wilkins.
- I, Evelyn Mount, will my athletic ways to Christine Gwathney.
- I, Bettye Sue Pockrus, will my cute figure to Judy Gentle.
- I, Opal Short, will my love for pretty clothes to Marie Gentle.
- I, David Crawford, will my ability to slip up on parkers to Benjamin Frazier.
- I, Edgar Prichett, will my love for late dates to Paul McAllister.
- I, Rabon McCormick, will my handsome features to Boyd Washburn.
- I, Howard Cain, will my ability to play centerfield to Harry Talkington.
- I, Jewell Guess, will my easygoing ways to Betty Arnold.
- I, Jane Evans, will my ability to become engaged to Eulene Frazier.
- I, Mark Latham, will my love for "purty women" to Marvin Helms.
- I, George Privett, will my seat in economics to Harry Gerbage.
- I, Edwin Page, will my ability to sing like "Little Richard" to Billy Jack Shelton.
- I, Doyle Knight, will my ability to slip out of class and smoke to Earnest White.
- I, Ray Blankenship, will my unfaithful ways to Roy White.
- I, Lester Manning, will my love for redheads to Robert Powell.
- I, J. O. Wallace, will my love for younger girls to any junior who has the ability to catch one.
