Woodville High School

Woodville, Alabama

Present

The Panther

We, the Senior Class of 1961, dedicate this 1961 edition of the PANTHER to the Senior Class of 1962, with the hope that they will always remember with some joy and not too much sorrow the class just one step ahead of them. May this book be a reminder of the many days we enjoyed together at Woodville High School.

Sponsor's Message

To you, the Senior Class of 1961, I wish the best in life. Go out from this school with great determination and zeal for becoming whatever you aspire to be. In the past the going has not always been easy; neither will it be in the future. Decisions are not always easy to make, but try to make your choices in life by thinking deeply and praying earnestly; always remembering that every good and perfect gift comes from God.

Sincerely,

Virginia Skelton

Principal's Message

To you, the graduating seniors of 1961, I offer my heartiest congratulations. As your travels bring you to the end of your high-school days, you will feel both joy and sadness - joy because you have reached a milestone in your life, one which you have looked forward to for many years - sadness because you will be separated from classmates you have been so close to for so long.

As you leave high school and go out into the world to make a place for yourself, you will be confronted with many problems. How well you meet these problems will depend a great deal on how well you have done in school and how well you have met your problems in the past.

It is my sincere desire that wherever you go, or whatever you do, you will always walk in an upright manner and be honest and trustworthy. Remember "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches and loving favor rather than silver and gold."

It has been a pleasure working with a group such as yours. I hope that by passing our way you have learned something that will make you a better man or woman and that you will remember us always.

Class Prophecy

As I gazed into the sky, it seemed as though I had gained an insight from some unknown power to read about the future of the Class of '61. I look and read about each and everyone of the class, and this is what I see.

First, I see Barbara Allen. She has received a gold record for her latest recording, "How I Would Like to Be in School Again."

Alva Sue Thomas is now married, living in Hollywood, California, and holding the position of secretary to Rock Hudson.

Linda Rose Butler is making a fine living as the head nurse in the Huntsville Hospital.

Delores Stewart is really climbing up in our fast growing world. She is now the First lady of the White House.

I see Martha Butler, Marie Kenamer, and Sandra Hill as "old maids."

Virginia Gwathney writes the daily gossip column of the NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

Betty Jean Clemons is now starring in a Broadway comedy.

I see Lawrence Little and Stanley Hammonds as the first men into space.

I see Jim Crawford, James Stewart and Paul Gentle running for Mayor of Limrock.

Next, I see Alta Rousseau, Jean Wells and Joan Stewart happily married.

I see Jane Manning and Linda Hodges planning an addition to their family.

I see that Jennie Ruth Ritchie has missed the marriage boat.

I see Martin Wright as a soldier in the Armed Services.

I see Hulett Selby as a professional "Bum".

I see Jimmy Kennedy as an outstanding farmer.

Lila Jean Farr is living in Memphis with her husband.

I see Dortha White and Sylvia Smith as professional "Talkers."

Jackie Duke has become an English teacher. She is teaching Skyline Jr. High School.

LaRue Bellomy is married and living in Chicago.

Barbara Guess is now the private secretary of the Governor of Alabama.

Peggy Gentle is now a cook in the Woodville High School lunchroom.

Betty Faye Shelton lives in California. Her husband, who is in the Navy, is stationed there.

Bonnie Guess is Senator John Sparkman's stenographer and typist.

Here comes a dust storm! No, it's Glenn Manning driving his super charged Volkswagen.

Who's this we see in Miss Skelton's English class? It's Tom Keel sitting on the front row, mean as ever.

In the presidential election of 1972, Miss Ilene Bellomy, a devoted Republican, is making a campaign speech.

Sherry Baswell is enrolled at McCall's in New York, planning to be a fashion designer.

Phyllis Fossett is now Dean of Women at Florence State Teachers College.

Jo Ann Cobb is now making a high salary writing poems for magazines.

Eunice Little is now working undercover in New York for the FBI.

Derrick Evett is now one of the most successful men of the class of '61; he has become president of the Campbell company. Their specialty is beans.

Jean Wells, once the quiet type, is now doing her own show, singing.

Now I see Bobby Summerford, the star of our class, digging ditches in Longhollow, Alabama.

Last, but not least, I see myself, Alton Maddux, now coaching the basketball team at W.H.S.

Last Will and Testament

I, Linda Rose Butler, will my hysterical giggles to Randy Patterson.

We, Jane Manning and Lila Jean Farr, will our ability to get married to Judy Livingston.

We, Lawrence Little and Stanley Hammonds, will our height to George Lusk.

I, Delores Stewart, will my ability to make straight A's to Macel Butler.

I, Barbara Guess, will my ability as a flirt to Wayne Hodges.

We, Tom Keel and Martin Wright, will our front seats in history to Carolyn Wilkins.

I, Ilene Bellomy, will my old boyfriends to Patsy Shepard.

I, Betty Jean Clemons, will my big loud mouth to Betty Hooper.

We, Bobby Joe Summerford and Glenn Manning, will our love for tenth grade girls to Jimmy Sharp.

I, Sandra Hill, will my place as head cheerleader to Paul Chambers.

I, Jo Ann Cobb, will all my size five shoes and dresses to Nell Hill.

We, LaRue Bellomy and Mrs. Betty Faye Shelton, will our places as last in the lunchroom to Walker Shelton.

I, Derrick Evett, will my curly hair to Jimmy Kennamer.

I, Eunice Little, will my singing ability to Louise Henderson.

I, Barbara Allen, will my dislike of school and grumbling to Charles Paradise.

I, Bonnie Guess, will my rocking chair, which I sit in on Saturday nights, to Grace Kennamer.

I, Jimmy Kennedy, will all of my basketball socks with holes in them to Loretta Thomas.

I, Jean Wells, will my winning ways and smile to Glenn Gentle.

I, Peggy Gentle, will my quietness and ability to concentrate to Erma Harbin.

I, Sue Thomas, will my three page diet, which I don't use anymore, to Belvie McAllister.

We, Martha Lou Butler and Marie Kennamer, will our ability to go steady to Mary Jane Hodges.

I, Jim Crawford, will my slow, hillbilly way of speaking to Jerry Manning.

I, Alton Maddux, will my place as captain of the basketball team to Dallas Peake.

We, Hulett Selby and James Stewart, will our ability to attract girls to Tim Miller.

I, Paul Gentle, will my ability to grin and blush to Rayford Justice.

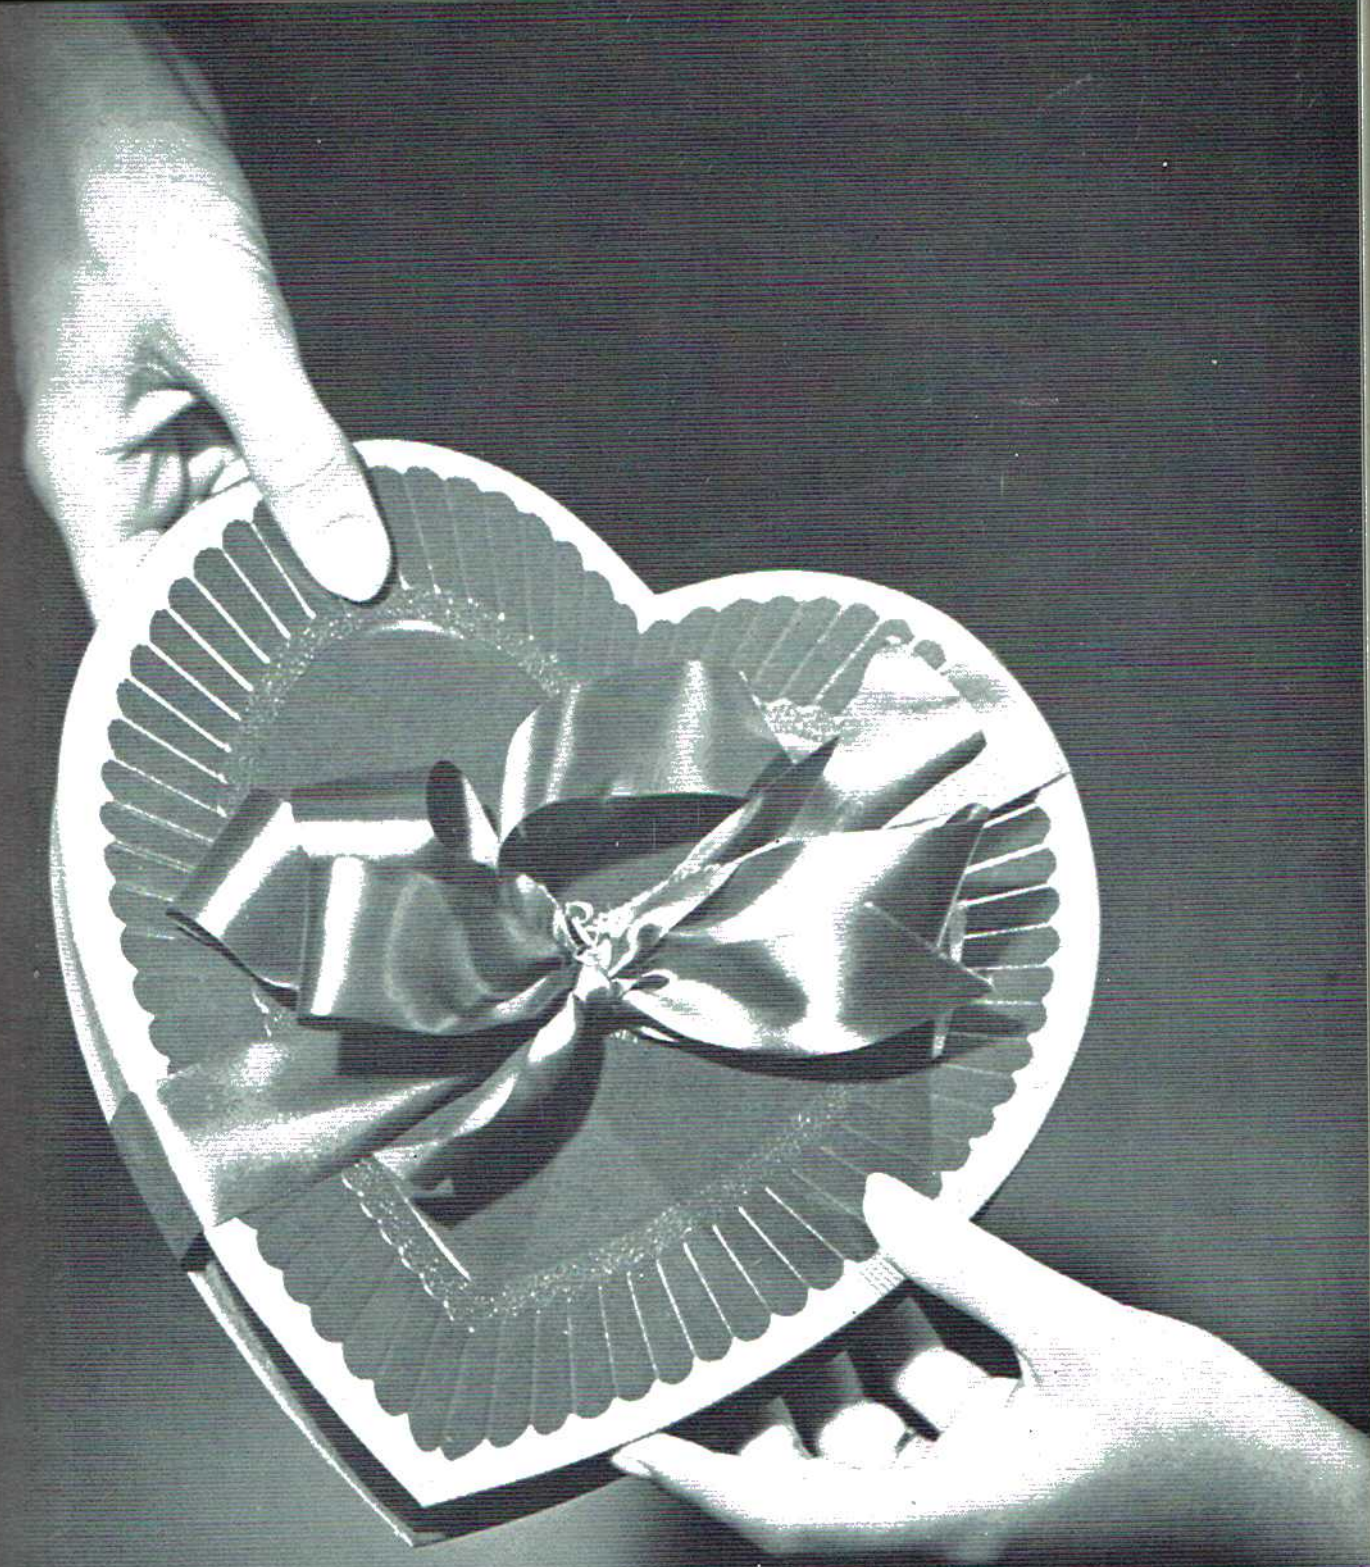

We, Sherry Baswell and Jackie Duke, will our ability to do any type of dance to James Hardin.

I, Joan Stewart, will my Southern brogue with a Northern accent to Jerry Miller.

We, Alta Rouseau and Jennie Ruth Ritchie, will our ability to sit in class and look pretty to Dwight Knight.

We, Sylvia Smith and Dortha White, will our dislike of shorthand and ability to read it to Buelah Lusk.

We, Phyllis Fossett and Virginia Gwathney, will our ability to play the piano like Mozart to Bradley Hall.
