Principal's Message

To the Annual Staff:

You are to be commended for your fine work in preparing this annual. I, as many others, am waiting anxiously for your yearbook, as it will be a symbol of the days gone by here at Woodville High.

I know you have gone to great lengths to prepare this work, and I sincerely hope you have gained some valuable experience from it. This is only a small part of your education, and I would like to urge each of you to continue your education in each way you choose.

Sincerely,

Class Prophecy

Your Nose Knows

When your fortune phrenologists read,
They felt all the bumps on your head -
Which was tiresome and made you so weary,
That the happiest fortune seemed dreary.
By cards, by handwriting, or trances,
You may learn of your next circumstances.
But I have a new method astounding
That is every old system confounding.
Did you know that the shape of your noses
Your minds and your future discloses?
Just to prove that my powers are ample
I shall give you a wonderful sample.
I glance thus at your faces all glowing,
And straightway your future I'm knowing.

Allen Bellomy can't make it as a drummer,
So, he'll end up being a farmer.
He'll raise cows
And dream all day long while he plows.

Lanny Chambless, with the F.B.I.,
Makes a wonderful spy.
They can't get away from him.
He's a real gem.

Jerry Cooper's an airplane pilot.
You should see his eyes light up
When the plane starts to fall.
He's really having a ball.

Paul Derryberry keeps on the go.
Has to get everyone something to eat you know.
He doesn't have much to say.
To him, cooking is only play.

A wonderful carpenter he ain't.
But Lionel Hillard sure can paint.
The best artist ever born,
To him no one shows scorn.

Larry Holcomb hated driving a bull dozer,
So he became a famous composer.
Working all day long,
Sitting around writing a song.

No one will ever make him yield.
Marvin Lands will remain in the Music field.
Everyone at the Grand Old Opra is his friend.
His fame will never end.

Ladies, you'll never give anyone a scare
As long as Dorothy Keller fixes your hair.
She combs and curls, cuts or dyes,
Joyous delight will be all their cries.

Inez Kimbrough has a funny hanker
To be a successful banker.
Although it is no job for a girl,
She'll give it a whirl.

Meta Latham will really shine.
She'll never let the city get in a bind.
For the Mayor of Scottsboro she'll keep books,
And at the same time be the family cook.

Margie Miller will be the first to the moon.
From the looks of things very soon.
Its surface she'll explore
To adventure she'll open the door.

Gail Latham will be heard of in every port,
As the Justice of the Supreme Court.
With the help of a good jury,
She'll give everyone justice surely!

Janis Wells as a typist, will never be slow.
Her pay shall never be low.
Prefecting her hopes and dreams,
No matter how impossible it seems.

CLASS PROPHECY - Continued from preceding page

Carol Webb could be a ghostess.
But most likely an airline hostess.
Always flying through the air
Without ever a care.

Brenda Massengill will lead a life that's happy.
Although thought to be sappy,
She'll enjoy the simple life
Without any strife.

The cops will learn not to complain.
From racing Greg Poma can't refrain.
Racing will be his career.
He'll be doing it for many a year.

All the bells will ring.
Lois Artis will meet the king.
He'll kneel at her feet,
A stunning movie star to meet.

Joyce Helms will be saying "It's army life for me.
I've all the world to see."
She'll see every pebbled shore
Which no one has seen before.

Her boss she must obey.
As a secretary, she'll type, type all day.
Some this work would kill,
But faithful Brenda Flanagan labors still.

Many years after graduation day
In that merry month of May,
A teacher quite unknown,
Started out on her own.
Mary Jo Hill's heart will be all in a spin,
But the children's heart she'll win.

All the world Kathy Franks has tamed.
No riches to her are unnamed.
There can never be any blame,
For in riches there is no shame.

His work he will never neglect.
Donald Richie's the very best architect.
He can build a beautiful house,
That can not be entered by even a mouse.

John McAllister is not a foolish joker.
He's a famous Wall Street broker.
Whenever he makes a lot of money,
He will carry it straight home to his little honey

Either from the east, West, South or North,
Charles Thompson always brings the criminals forth.
He'll teach them it's no thrill
To do nothing but steal!!

Danny Waldran has great ambition.
He's a wily politician.
His talks are such a delight
People could listen all day or night.

Alfred West is known from coast to coast.
He doesn't have to boast.
The world's most famous coach
Makes all others look like a cock roach!

Everyone thought Edwin Wilburn would be a
hippie,
But that kind of life was too drippie.
He married a millionaire.
Now he has plenty of time to spare.

It might pay to have James Fowler as a relation.
He owns his own chain of service stations.

If this accountant you choose,
You'll never lose.
Arnold Patterson has the power
To keep books as neat as a flower.

It's not hard to see
What'll happen to me.
For these corney lines
Are the least of my crimes.

I'll probably flock with the jail birds
For abusing these words.
