Miss Katie Precise

We, the Senior Class of Woodville High School, would like to dedicate "The 1972 Panther" to Miss Katie Precise who has been our home economics teacher for several years. She has demonstrated her patience and understanding in many trying times. She has been a friend to all students when they have needed her. She is a very quiet person but a diligent worker for the students, the entire school, and community. We salute you, Miss Katie Precise, with the dedication of "The 1972 Panther"!

Principal's Message

Mr. Willard Townson

We all know experience is the best teacher. With this thought, you must realize some valuable experience you have gained in your annual staff endeavors. Working cooperatively with others will most certainly be a valuable experience to remember. I know you must feel a sense of accomplishment, and you should, for the time and effort you have put forth.

Please accept my congratulations on behalf of Woodville's student body for allowing us to remember 1972 as one of the better years at our school. I would like to express my appreciation to your sponsors, Mrs. Smith and Miss Skelton, for their time and patience with you.

Sincerely yours,

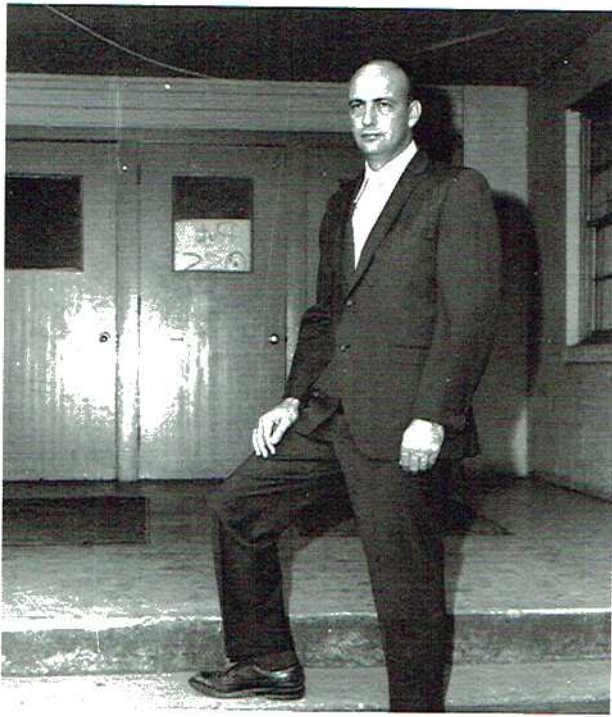

Willard Townson

THE WOODVILLE TIMES

January 25, 1982

WOODVILLE, Ala. - As you all know, the tenth annual alumni banquet was held last night. As our special program, each person from the class of 1972 got up and told their life profession. We discovered that they all are doing very well out in the world.

Keith Dulaney, who always was weird, is a body painter in Greenwich Village. Charles Burgess is now a well - known actor. He owes his success to his blue eyes.

Moving over to the big city of Skyline, we find that Donna Kennedy runs the largest pepper farm this side of the Mississippi. Susan Allen lives on the Skyline reservation with her ten boys and a ranch full of horses.

At the Skyline University, there are three new faculty members. Janet Cain is the Home Economics teacher, Terry McGill is the head supervisor, and Jerry Black is a history teacher and coach under Terry's supervision.

Freida Guinn is happily married with six children and a secretarial job in Chicago. Also in Chicago is Gail Smith. Gail is married and is an exotic dancer at a nightclub.

Across the big wide ocean lives Carol Poland. After traveling around the world, she has settled down and opened a ski resort in the Swiss Alps. Kathy and Johnny Burgess are living on a huge ranch out west with their five children.

As the lady in Washington, we have Carolyn Hambrick. She is a housewife and is knitting a mile long red carpet for the White House.

In the sports field, we have Mike West, who has taken over the heavyweight boxing championship. He defeated Joe Frazier in the first round. Lester Pace has taken Johnny Musso's place on the Alabama Crimson Tide. Dennis Little is now the star player for the Los Angeles Lakers. He always was good at basketball.

Sharalynn Warren now owns the largest slip factory in the country. She furnishes all the airline stewardess with their slips. One of her best customers is Barbara Rousseau. Barbara flies for the friendly skies of United.

Mike Kennamer is a Cassanova in his trade. His picture was in THE LAS VEGAS TIMES last week; he has been named the playboy of the year. Brenda Kindred is collecting pin-up pictures of Mike and articles of his success as playboy of the year.

In the music scene, we have Hulen West and Elaine Higdon. Hulen has three gold records already and is working on his fourth. Elaine is the best pianist and soloist that has ever been on THE GLEN CAMPBELL SHOW.

Margie Elliot is a beautician in Guntersville. Another girl in the hair dressing business is Kay West. She runs a pet shop and specializes in trimming French poodles.

Lynn Frost owns a chain of Frosty's Foody Grocery Stores. He supplies all of Kathy Chambless' groceries for her restaurant. Kathy has opened a large restaurant at Limrock called "Limrock Haven." Lynn also supplies whatever Brenda Hughes might need in her business. Brenda owns and operates Woodville's only gambling casino. When she is not writing some new book, she works as an entertainer in her club.

Betty Hambrick finally got married and has several children. She also owns the Burger Chef Chain. Pat Justice has a degree in baby sitting and she is the only one with whom Betty will trust her children.

PATRICIA O'linger has taken over the bus route, now that her father has retired. Last week she had a head-on collision with a fence. Also from Woodville, we hear that Wayne Short has taken over Mr. Townson's job and has hired Sharon Pockrus as his secretary. At the Woodville 500 race, Lonnie Fowler won with a car that he bought from Garvis Moore. Garvis owns a used car lot in Chattanooga.

Denny Hicks is making plans for a big wedding and as a wedding present to his bride, he is giving her a brick mansion. Since Donnie Caves is a professional brick mason, he is doing the job of bricking it.

From Africa, we hear that Mike Wells is on a safari after the big game. The last we hear, Joan Womack is lost in the jungle looking for a lost tribe of pygmies.

As for me, Connie Franks, I am a bookkeeper for the Cooper Construction Company in Kennamer's Cove. In my spare time I write news articles like this one for the WOODVILLE TIMES.

Last Will and Testament

We the members of the 1972 Senior Class, being of reasonably sound mind and body, do hereby will our following possessions to the Senior Class of 1973:
