

THE PANTHER

JUNIOR SPONSORS

Dedication

The Senior Class of Woodville High School wish to dedicate this 1973 Panther to their Junior Sponsors, Mrs. Faye Whitaker and Mrs. Joyce Kennamer, two ladies who have shown great patience and understanding in many trying times.

As we look back upon the junior year, we recall times that they tried to steer us in the right direction and guide us into making good decisions, decisions that we just didn't "dig" at that time.

In the last year that has passed we have come to realize more and more how we failed in showing our appreciation for the many things they did for us in making the junior play, the Junior-Senior Prom, and many other activities memorable events in our school life.

These two gracious ladies have shown an interest and understanding in our successes as well as our failures. So it is with great gratitude that we salute you, Mrs. Whitaker and Mrs. Kennamer, by presenting this book in your honor.

Sincerely,
The Senior Class of 1973

Principal's Message

Mr. James Pratt Principal

To the Annual Staff:

This yearbook will be something that each student can keep and enjoy for many years to come. It takes much hard work and many long hours to prepare a publication such as the '72-'73 Panther; however, from the standpoint of enjoyment received, it is well worthwhile.

It is always a pleasure to look back on a completed job and see that it has been well done. I believe that Miss Skelton, Mrs. Smith, and the entire annual staff can look back on this endeavor with much satisfaction and pride in what has been accomplished here.

Congratulations and thanks from myself and the entire faculty and student body!

CLASS PROPHECY

It seems only yesterday I was at Woodville High School with all my friends. The class of "73" has changed greatly over the past ten years. Upon returning to my hometown, I decided to write one of my old friends, Donna Kennamer, and tell her of these changes.

May 21, 1983

Dear Donna,

It's probably crossed your mind that it has been a decade since our graduation from WHS. As I passed through our hometown, the memories of the class of "73" stirred my curiosity about our classmates. I decided to share my findings with you.

It seems a little competition is going on among a few of our classmates. In the business world I find that Rita Lankford is the manager of Gibson's Discount Center and that Phyllis Sharp is manager of Woolworth's. These stores are both located in Scottsboro, creating a friendly rivalry.

In the entertainment field we find Ralph Hall and Stevie Saint professional rodeo riders. They often compete against each other. They both claim to be the world champion rodeo rider.

After leaving Scottsboro, I stopped at the "Long Hollow Pit Barbecue" and found it was owned by Pete Bates and his wife. It seems to be largest barbecue place in Alabama. From Pete I learned that David Hall is now mayor of Aspel and enjoying every minute of it.

It's not surprising to find that Wayne Stewart is a world famous horse trainer. He always did have a way with horses. He does a lot of his advertising on radio "KORN" owned and operated by Steve Stewart.

Donna, wouldn't fresh fruit from the Helm's Fruit Farm taste good? I guess you know Randy Helms is the owner now. Diane Kimbrough and Debbie Saint buy all their fruit there. Although they are both housewives, they find time to be leaders in the new movement called "Save the Family."

I'm sure you've heard of "Jones and Jones Car Incorporated," since it is now the largest car company in the U.S. I was surprised to find that it was run by Melvin and Ray Jones. They were always two of our most persuasive classmates.

Remember those fishing trips on the lake? As I passed Mark Kennamer's trout farm today, it brought back fond memories. Another farmer of a different source is Gary Sims. He is the largest soy bean farmer in Alabama.

I found Woodville's night spot to be the "Weasel Den," owned by Steve Kennamer. Theresa Frost and Sandra Walden draw a large crowd with their acts. They tell me Patty Cooper is doing well as a men's hair stylist.

Jane Dickerson is now a business teacher at Northeast. Peggy Dulaney is the new graphic art's teacher at Jackson County Technical School. Debbie Evans is now principal at our own dear old Woodville High School. Janice Wilbourn is counselor at W.H.S. and working on her book, Criticism Where Needed.

Those in show business are Karen Williams, a gospel singer, now working on her 99th record; and Pat Helton, an actress, hard at work for an Oscar. Closely associated with them is Randy Bullock, a professional photographer.

I stopped by to visit the Woodville Health Spa run by Janet Treece and Helen Pace. They told me about the two world travelers of our class, Bruce Hill and Nelda Jenkins. Bruce is traveling on his motorcycle while Nelda is traveling with her husband who is in the Army.

Two other happily married members of our class are Gail Littles and Yvonne Wells. Gail's invention of a new kind of diaper has made her famous. Yvonne is working hard with her husband to make their fishing business an even greater success.

Paul Phillips is now a great car body and fender repair man. Tom West gives him a lot of business due to all the cars he smashes up still running from the girls.

Not lacking in the sports field, our class of "73" has made a contribution to Major League Baseball. Mark Hooper is now pitcher for the Atlanta Braves. Those practice sessions in the Aspel cow pastures really seemed to help him make it big.

Donna, I was happy to hear that you and your husband are living in Tuscaloosa with your five children. I'm also proud to hear you returned to the University of Alabama for your degree.

As for me, I'm very happy with my position as basketball coach for the All-American Redheads, who are the National Champs. We're on the road a lot and I hope we'll be coming to Tuscaloosa soon. I'd like to get together with you and discuss the things I didn't have time to write in this letter. I've enjoyed finding out about everyone and hope we can all get together again soon. Keep in touch.

Your friend,

Robin Wells "73"

P.S. Donna, let me leave this thought with you, "No matter what the future may hold, I think we can always look back at the past with fond memories of "73" and good old W.H.S.

SENIORS' LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT CONTINUED FROM PAGE 32

- I, TOM WEST, will my outstanding physique to Lynn Dulaney.
  - I, STEVIE SAINT, will my ability to never get married to Ricki Gray.
  - I, RALPH HALL, will my ability to ride in rodeos to Steve O'Neal.
  - I, BRUCE HILL, will my long hair and beard to David Jones and Robert George to be divided equally.
  - I, PAT HELTON, will my wild wedding shower to Sarah Warren.
  - I, KAREN WILLIAMS, will my good times in the library to Rita West and Pat Womack.
  - I, MELVIN JONES, will my future to June Mitchell.
  - I, JANET TREECE, will my dumb machines in the lobby at trade school to Janet Chrisman.
  - I, HELEN PACE, will my love for the trade school bus to Mike Womack and David Mason.
  - I, RANDY BULLOCK, will my "cards" to Bryce Wells and Danny Wininger.
  - I, SANDRA WALDEN, will my love for little guys to Regina Thompson.
  - I, GAIL LITTLE, will my married life to Mary Jo Pence.
  - I, DEBBIE SAINT, will my good judgement and common sense to Kathy Wells.
  - I, MARK KENNAMER, will my curly hair to Wayne Pace.
  - I, YVONNE WELLS, will my "inability" to get my shorthand homework to Dianne Shelton and Ann Caves.
  - I, NELDA JENKINS, will my ability to pull a Christmas surprise to everyone.
  - I, WAYNE STEWART, will my little purple gym shorts to Eddie Sharp.
- And, I, DONNA KENNAMER, will all my dreams and wishes to Randy Hooper and maybe he can get them to come true.
- P.S. ... We, the 1973 Senior Class, will Miss Skelton and Mrs. Smith to the Senior Class of 1974.
