Woodville High School

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1977, wish to take this opportunity to dedicate the yearbook to some very special people, our parents.

Throughout all our lives our parents have always been there when we've needed them. They've always given us love, support, understanding, money or anything else we've needed.

Now as graduation grows near, we begin to think about our future. After all these years of security our parents have given us, we'll now be thrown out into the world on our own. We'd just like to say that because of some wonderful parents, we know that we can handle any situation life throws at us.

CLASS PROPHECY

Excerpt from Pam Wyer's Diary

June 2, 1987

Dear Diary,

It has been ten years since graduating from good ole W.H.S. and I thought I would contact all my old class members and talk about old times. I found many things were greatly changed.

First of all Woodville now has a big new hospital. I found that Sandra Lusk is the head nurse there. Janice Moore, who is the first Woodville doctor does most of her work there.

I hear that the class of seventy-seven has turned out quite a few business people. Pam Franks is a famous dress designer and Sheila Warren models the clothes Pam designs. Janet Crum owns Crum Bread Company located at the top of Nat Mountain. I hear that Cathy Dodd owns a whole chain of dairy bars and is doing quite well. Barry Kennamer now runs a sporting goods store in downtown Woodville. It wasn't surprising to learn that Marty Vernon is a soy bean farmer and builds souped-up-tractors as a hobby.

I was glad to learn that we have some famous people from our graduating class. Don Moody plays the drums for K.C. and The Sunshine Band, while his wife, the former Sheila McGaha, has been in several movies and has been nominated for an Oscar. Also in the music field, Steve Kennamer now sings with the Eagles. Jeff Bishop has just been made a general in the army. Anthony Gibson and Carl Pritchett both play for the Cincinnati Reds. Suzy Saint is the world champion barrel racer. She owes it all to her horse, Stevie. Speaking of racing, I read in the paper that Ray West is this year's Indy 500 winner. Bobby Pace is Farrah Fawcett Major's aid, so I hear. He pushes her wheel chair, gets her dentures, etc. Carolyn Mason is the Governor's secretary and is doing very well. I heard on the radio that Chris McAllister is running for Congress and is expected to do very well.

Today I visited Woodville High School. I rode a school bus to the school and found none other than Linda Anders driving it. After I arrived at the school and went in the office, I found out that Pete Rousseau was the principal. Later today I was stopped by Shirley Bingham who is the Woodville policewoman. She told me that Lee Kennamer is working in South Africa in a diamond mine.

Well, Dear Diary, I must close for now and finish my painting of the President.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1977, being of sound mind and body, do hereby publish this our first and last will and testament. We leave our worldly possessions as follows to the oncoming Senior Class of 1978.

I, Sheila Warren, will my serenity, courage, and wisdom to Regina West, Renae Bishop, and Brenda Wyatt.

I, Pamela Franks, will my ability to always get in trouble to Becky Johnson.

I, Suzanne Saint, will my love for marriage and rodeos to Leshia Chambless and Tina Butler.

I, Don Moody, will all my love for drag racing, fine women, and drinking to Rickey Womack.

I, Anthony Gibson, will all my love for girls and sports to anyone who needs them.

I, Janice Moore, being of sound mind and almost body will my sweet personality, witty charm and sweet, sweet charming smile to Jackie Shelton and Shirley Gray.

I, Sandra Lusk, will my long, long, legs to Leshia Chambless and the sole use of my first name to Frost.

I, Janet Crum, will my ability to always miss important happenings to Brenda Wyers and Sandra Frost.

I, Steve Kennamer, will my love for the taste of "Red Man" to Larry Cooper and Rebel Maggart.

I, Cathy Dodd, will those good old "Huntsville nights" to Brenda Smith and Donna Swearingin.

We, Marty Vernon, Carl Pritchett, and Chris McAllister, will nothing to nobody, we used it all.

I, Pete Rousseau, will my love for the sport of racing to Anthony McLaughlin.

I, Bobby Pace, will my ZZ Top tape to James George and my Fords to Bruce Holcomb.

I, Jeff Bishop, will my ability to stay in school to Richie Summers, and my love to the women.

I, Barry Kennamer, will all my love to Connie Warren and Pepé.
