

PANTHER

84

THE 1984 PANTHER
WOODVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
WOODVILLE, ALABAMA

We, the Senior Class of Woodville High School, wish to dedicate this, our 1984 edition of "The Panther," to our future — a time beyond the limits of our imagination. Dwelling not on the unhappy memories of the past, but the bright and special ones, we now move on to a new life and new experiences that lie ahead. We can only hope for the best: a time filled with success, prosperity, and happiness for us all.

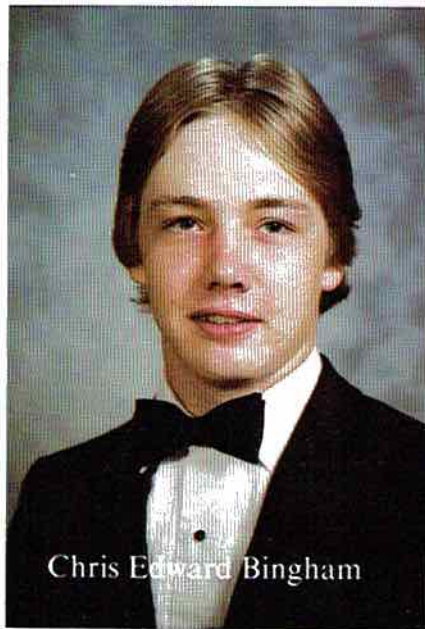

Sincerely,
The Senior Class of 1984

As we think back on all we've been through,
The joyful things and sad,
We'll never forget the memories we've shared.
And the fun we've had.

We have shared secrets for many years,
That have never been told before,
And we'll always keep them between us,
"The Class of 1984."

Graduation Ushers

David Latham, Ginger McGaha, and Jason Hodges (Not Pictured) David Jones

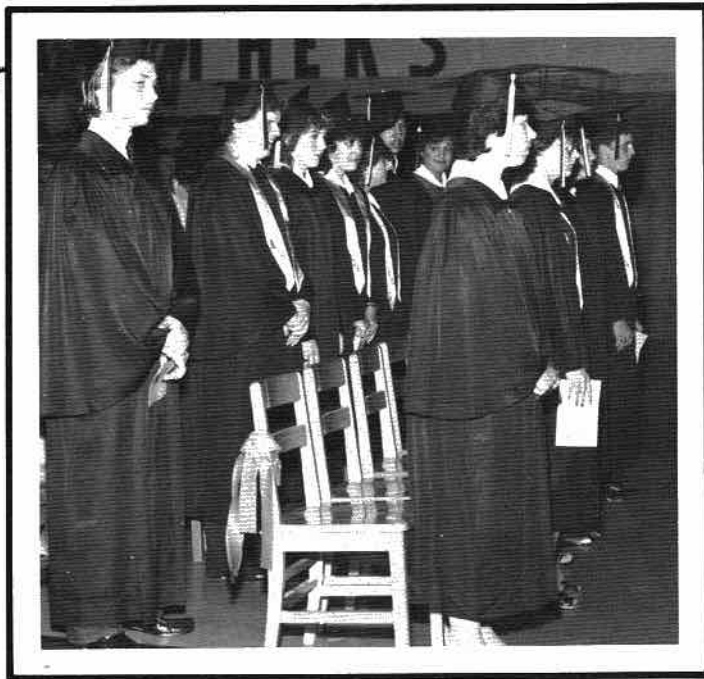

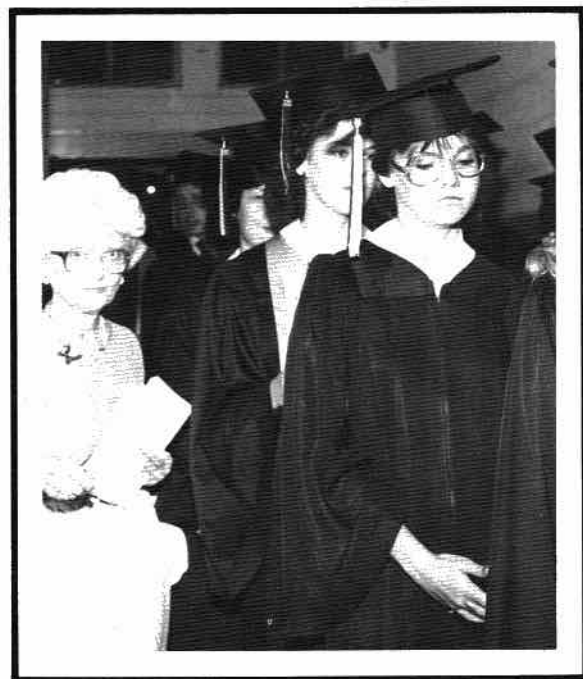

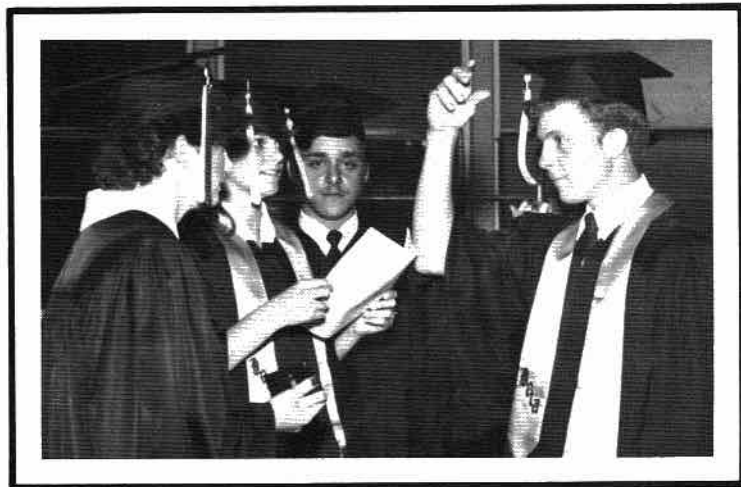

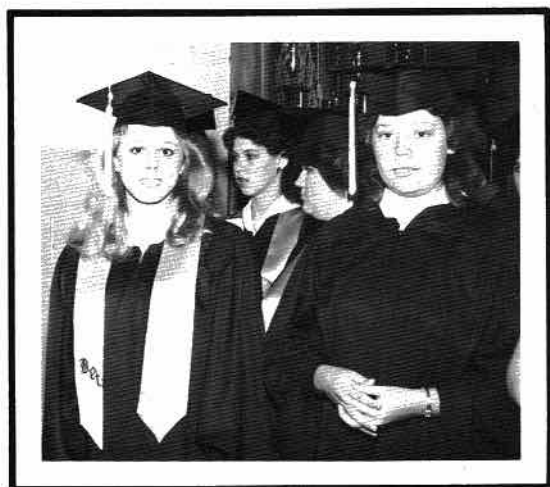

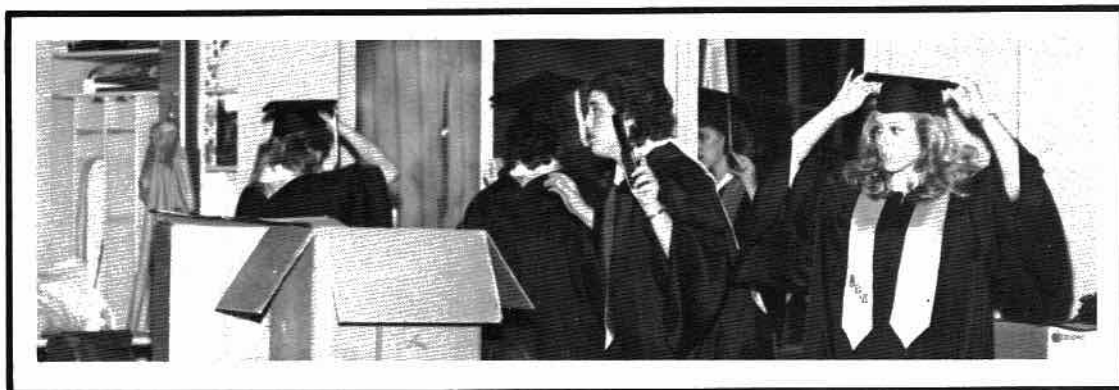

Special Music

Gillie Simmons — Debra Bean

“We’ve Only Just Begun”

“Seniors of '84”

TOMORROW, TODAY, YESTERDAY.

My hopes, my fears, my dreams
Are all found in my tomorrows.
They lie there waiting for me,
I am afraid, for if I open up
tomorrow,
My hopes, my dreams, my fears
May all be lost in today or
May be stolen by yesterday.
Tomorrow will stay locked away;
Today will be hidden in fantasy,
And Yesterday never was.

PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE.

In front of me lies all that is to come, the unknown, the unforeseen obstacles that will test my ability to endure.

This figure robed in black represents that which I cannot see but must wait for to happen, this is the last of the trial, for this . . .
Is my future . . .
