Walt Hammer Heritage Award

Walt Hammer (1928-2000)

Walt Hammer served as Mayor of Scottsboro from 1988 to 1992. His continuous promotion of Scottsboro was responsible for bringing several industries to the city. Walt's pride in the city of Scottsboro was best summed up by his phrase; "Scottsboro Someplace Special." He had a lifelong interest in the history of Scottsboro and Jackson County. In 1967 he researched and published, A Pictorial Walk Thru Ol' High Jackson, which was well received and enjoyed four printings. In the 1980's he approached the Scottsboro City Council to consider buying the Proctor House for the City's Museum. The Council did so, and the house stands today as the Scottsboro-Jackson Heritage Center. Walt served on various committees and boards throughout his life in Scottsboro. He believed in the community he lived in and the people in it.
